A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
For Encouraging Landmen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War.

G E O R G E R.
WH E R E A S it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Landmen, who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able-Bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five Years, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall, on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve on Board Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as shall be employed for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man; such Sum to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports or Places where the Ships, into which they shall be entered, shall be, immediately after the Third Muster of such Men. And for Prevention of any Abuses by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on board any other Ships or Vessels in order to obtain the said Bounty Money; We do hereby declare and command, That such Men, belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on Board any other of Our said Ships or Vessels in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be severely punished according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirtieth Day of November, 1770, in the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

At the Court at St. James's, the 9th Day of December, 1770,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WH E R E A S His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 30th of last Month, to direct, that the Quarantine then subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from Hamburgh and Bremen, should be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels should be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without opening, unpacking, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, provided that they have no Rags or Cotton-wool on Board, and that the Master, or other Person taking Charge of such Ship or Vessel, do first make Oath before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate, on their Arrival at the Place where they are bound to, that they did not touch at any Place from whence Quarantine is required to be performed, nor had Communication with any Ship or Vessel subject thereto during the Voyage, and that the Crew are all in Health. And whereas His Majesty hath received Information, that Hemp, and Flax, and Human Hair, and Feathers, are frequently brought on board Ships coming from Hamburgh and Bremen, which Goods are likewise more especially liable to retain Infection;—His Majesty, for the better preventing the Infection now raging in some Parts of Poland from being brought into this Kingdom, is pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Vessels coming from Hamburgh or Bremen, and having Rags, Cotton-wool, Hemp, or Flax, or Human Hair, or Feathers, on board, that are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive, in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

St. James's, December 11, 1770.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Number of desperate Men, armed with Fire-Arms, whose Names are at present unknown, did, on the 13th Day of October, and on the 20th Day of November last, break open the Guard-House erected at the Entrance of the Black Lead Mine near Seathwaite in the County of Cumberland, and did forcibly enter into a Part of the said Mine, with Intent to take and carry away Black Lead from thence, and did also threaten the Lives of the Persons who had the Care of the said Mines: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Proprietors of the said Black Lead Mine do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as is first said, to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
