Dresden, March 24.

THE Dowager Princess Radzivil died here on Wednesday last. Her Son in Law, the Palatine of Wilna, Head of the Radzivil Family, arrived here from Hungary a few Days before her Death.

Hamburg, March 29. The great Fall of Snow that we had here on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, and the hard Frost since, retards the Arrival of all the Northern Posts. Four from Denmark and Sweden are due To-day, as well as a Post from Poland.

Whitehall, April 6, 1771.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Tuesday Night the 19th of last Month, an Advertisement was put up at the Entry of the King's Arms Tavern at Dumfries in Scotland; of which the following is a Copy, viz.

To the whole Inhabitants of Dumfries and others who have hitherto been guilty of engrossing, forestalling, and transporting of Corn or Meal from this Port, or have been aiding or assisting to any that have hitherto engrossed, forestalled, or transported Corn or Meal, to the great Hurt and Prejudice of the Country, the Poor in particular, to the Violation of the Laws of God and Nature; Public Notice is hereby given, that they from the Date hereof, desist from such sinful Practices, under Penalty of having their Houses burnt to the Ground, and punished in their Persons in Proportion to the Office they bear, viz. if a Magistrate with Mutilation, and if a Tradesman to have his Ears cut off at the Cross—March 19th 1771.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or putting up the said seditious and threatening Advertisement, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote or put up the same) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted,) the said Reward to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

DUNK HALIFAX.

St. James's, March 30, 1771.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of the Right Honourable the Lord Cadogan, at Caversham in the County of Oxford, was broke open in the Night of the 18th of January last; and also a Closet within the Steward's Room, out of which was stolen the Sum of 63 l. and upwards: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Lord Cadogan does hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid, by his Lordship, on Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

CADOGAN.

Christ's Hospital, London, April 5, 1771.

Whereas John West, late of London, Servicer, and Frances his Wife, both deceased did, in their several Life-times, settle on the Governors of the said Hospital, divers Estates in and about the City of London and elsewhere; and the said Francis West did also by her Will give a Sum of Money to the said Governors, to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands, &c. The Profits of the Whole of the said Estates to be applied for the Payment of Annuities or Pensions of Five Pounds each, to poor Men and poor Women of the Age of Fifty Years and upwards, during their natural Lives, and directed, that their Relations by Consanguinity should have Preference. The said Governors do therefore hereby give Notice, that if any Person, qualified as aforesaid, shall stand in Need, or desire the Benefit of the said Charity, they may, in Forty Days from the Date hereof, apply to the said Governors, at the Compting-house in the said Hospital, and make out their Relation to the Donors, or to either of them, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Charity.

Jos. Eyre, Clerk.

N. B. A Committee will sit in the Compting-house of the said Hospital, on Thursday the 16th Day of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, to elect Pensioners in the Room of such as are dead.

Kennington, Chelsea, and Fulham Turnpikes.

The Trustees of the Kennington, &c. Turnpikes will, at a Meeting to be held at the King's Arms Tavern in New Palace Yard, on Wednesday the 10th of April next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, receive Proposals, sealed up, from any Person or Persons willing to take the Whole of the Tolls, or those of any one of the Gates separately, under their Care. The Term of Letting the same to commence from the 1st of May next. For Particulars enquire of Mr. Johnson, in Half-Moon Street, Piccadilly.
