Turin, April 24.

ON Monday the 8th Instant the French Ambassador here made his Publick Entry. He went from his own House to Court, attended by the Marshal de la Roque and the Master of the Ceremonies, and was introduced to his Sardinian Majesty and the Royal Family; on his Return, he was conducted to a House provided for him by his Sardinian Majesty, where he was entertained for three Days at the Expence of the Court, and had a Table at Dinner and Supper of Forty-six Covers. The same Evening there was a grand Opera at the Theatre, which was superbly illuminated. On Wednesday the 10th, his Excellency made a Demand in Form of the Princeess in Marriage with the Comte de Provence, in the Name of the King his Master; and in the Evening there was a Drawing-Room at Court. On Saturday the 13th his Excellency, having removed to a House on the Place St. Charles, which he had taken for the Occasion, gave a grand Masked Ball and Supper to all the Nobility; at which the Duke of Savoy, the Prince of Piedmont, and the Princes of the Blood were present. On Monday the 15th, the Contract of Marriage was signed; and there was a grand Ball at the Prince of Carignan's in the Evening. On Wednesday the 17th, his Excellency gave a grand Ball and Supper to the Nobility and Gentry. There were Three Tables of Two Hundred Covers. On Thursday the 18th, there was a magnificent Ball at Court; and, on Friday, a Drawing-Room and Concert. On Sunday the Marriage Ceremony was performed; the Prince of Piedmont being Proxy for the Comte de Provence. In the Evening a grand Firework was exhibited in the Place of St. Charles; after which, the Ambassador's House, a Temple in the Middle of the Square, and Four Chinese Mosques at the Corners, built on the Occasion, were illuminated, and had a very noble Effect. The Concourse of People to see the Fireworks and Illuminations, was very great; notwithstanding which, through the Precautions taken by the Governor, not the least Disturbance happened. After this there was a Ball at the Ambassador's House for the whole Town, which lasted all Night.

On Monday Morning, about Ten, the Princeess departed from this Place: She went in a Coach with the King of Sardinia and the Duke and Dutchess of Savoy, and was followed by the Prince of Piedmont and the Duke of Chablais in another, attended by 435 Persons in Coaches and on Horseback, and escorted by a Troop of Horse Grenadiers. At Rivoli the King of Sardinia, the Duke of Chablais, and the Prince of Piedmont, took their Leave of the Princeess, and returned to Turin. Their Parting was very affecting, and moved all the Spectators. The Duke and Dutchess of Savoy accompanied her to Aviglian, where the Princeess was to rest on Monday Night. The Comte de la Mar-mora has Orders to meet the Princeess at Chamberry, and attend her to Pont Beauvoisin, where she will be received by the Persons appointed for that Purpose by his most Christian Majesty, and conducted to Versailles.

Yesterday his Prussian Majesty arrived from Potsdam, with an Intention of exercising, in the Presence of the King of Sweden, the Troops of this Garrison in the Plain of Tempelhoff near this City; but the Orders given for that Purpose were countermanded on Account of the Badness of the Weather.
