Stockholm, March 3.

LAST Wednesday the States were assembled in Pleno, when the House of Nobles communicated to the other Orders their Resolution which was taken last Monday about the King's Assurances; and the three other Orders resolved immediately to agree entirely with the Nobility in the Amendments, and notified their Assent the same Morning: In Consequence of which, they were expedited to the Grand Deputation, where a Resolution was taken, that the Marshal of the Diet, and the Speakers of the other three Orders, should attend the King with a Copy of the Assurances as now regulated, and desire to know when his Majesty would be pleased to receive the Grand Deputation, with the Act that was to be presented to him for his Signature.

Accordingly the Four Speakers attended His Majesty Yesterday, who was pleased to answer them, That he had so much Confidence in the States, that there was no Occasion for the Copy they had brought him; and that whenever the Assurances were presented to him by the States, he would sign them. It is supposed this Ceremony will be performed To-morrow.

Saxe-Gotha, March 10. This Morning about Five o'Clock died, at his Palace of Friedenstein, after a long and painful Illness, in the 73d Year of his Age, his Serene Highness Frederic Duke of Saxe-Gotha, to the great Grief of his Subjects, over whom he had reigned near Forty Years, universally beloved and respected.

Whitehall, March 24.

ADVICE is received, by a Letter from Governor Leyborne to the Earl of Hillsborough, dated at Grenada the 6th of January last; as also by a Letter from Rear Admiral Mann to the Lords of the Admiralty, dated the 4th of the same Month; that, in the Night of Friday the 27th of December, a Fire broke out in the Town of St. George in that Island, and that the whole Town was before Morning reduced to Ashes, except some Buildings at the Careenage, and next the Court-house and Custom-house, saved chiefly by the Activity of some Seamen sent from on Board His Majesty's Ships lying off the Town.

The Flames were so rapid, that notwithstanding the active Assistance given by the Officers and private Men of His Majesty's 70th Regiment, few of the Inhabitants were able to save any of their Effects; and the Loss is supposed to amount to upwards of Two Hundred Thousand Pounds Sterling.

As soon as the Fire was extinguished, His Majesty's Governor summoned the Inhabitants to meet together, to consider what Measures it might be proper to pursue.—A Committee was appointed to purchase and collect together in one Place, all the Provisions that could be got, that the Inhabitants might know where to apply for immediate Subsistence.—A Subscription was set on Foot by the Governor for the Relief of the poorer Sufferers; to which the Merchants and Planters contributed with great Liberality.—Two Vessels in the Government's Service were dispatched to the neighbouring Islands to procure Provisions, one of which returned on the 3d of January with her Loading; and every Measure has been adopted by His Majesty's Governor that could be devised, to alleviate the Distresses of the Sufferers under so dreadful a Calamity.
