tresed. them to the Last Williams I mean they are all the objects of Your Repentment. & you seem Determined to have thear Blood. for the small Sum of 10 pound which you might have had repaid You 5 Times over . . . but by all that's good. in the Course of next week. You shall Breath Your last as I am Determined to have your Life if it costs me mine the next Moment.

I am

Sr Yours

Inflexibly Resolute

(Superfcribed)

To

The Secretary of The Bank of England.

And that the said threatening Letter was sent to the Secretary of the Bank, out of Resentment for his having published an Advertisement offering a Reward for apprehending Henry Williams, who stands charged on a violent Suspicion of having feloniously uttered and published a Bank Note for Ten Pounds, as true, knowing the same to be false, forged, and counterfeited: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in so atrocious a Crime, and so daring an Attempt to intimidate, and thereby prevent the legal Prosecution of Persons guilty of an Offence of so dangerous Consequence to the Publick, and so detrimental to the Credit of the Bank of England, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover him, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S U F F O L K.

And, as a farther Encouragement, and in order to deter any Person from molesting or intimidating the Officers and Persons employed in endeavouring to bring to Justice the Person or Persons who have attempted, in open Violation of the Law, to commit Frauds on the Bank, to the Endangering of Publick Credit, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by the said Secretary of the Bank, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, August 29, 1772.

Letters having been received from Rear-Admiral Montagu, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships in North America, and from the Governor of the Colony of Rhode Island, containing Advices, that, on the 10th of June last, a Number of Boats filled with armed Men, attacked His Majesty's Schooner the Gajpee, commanded by Lieutenant Dudingston, then lying in Narragansett River within the said Colony of Rhode Island; and that, after dangerously wounding the Commander of the said Schooner, they had plundered, burnt, and destroyed her: His Majesty has thereupon thought fit, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to constitute and appoint Joseph Wanton, Daniel Horsmanden, Frederick Smyth, Peter Oliver, and Robert Auchmuty, Esquires, to be His Majesty's Commissioners for inquiring into all the Circumstances relative to the attacking, taking, plundering, and burning, the said Schooner, and to the Insults offered or Obstructions given, on this Occasion, to His Majesty's Officers within the said Colony of Rhode Island. And in order to the discovering and bringing to Justice the Offenders in that daring Insult and Attack upon His Majesty's Authority and Commission, His Majesty has been farther pleased to order a Proclamation to be passed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and to be printed and published within the said Colony of Rhode Island, offering His Majesty's gracious Pardon to any of the said Offenders, (excepting the Persons who wounded Lieutenant Dudingston, and excepting Two others who assumed to be the Sheriff of the Colony, and the Captain or Leader of the Insurgents) who shall discover any of their Accomplices, and also offering Rewards for such Discovery.

East-India House, September 11, 1772.
