Petersburg, September 10.

ON Wednesday last was exhibited here, before the Empress and the whole Court, a Representation of the Taking of the Fortrefs of Giurgewo. The Siege was conducted in the regular Forms by the Train of Artillery, under the Direction of the Grand Master Prince Orlow, assisted by the Preobrazinsky Regiment of Guards. After a Cannonade and Bombardment of near two Hours, during which Time the regular Approaches were made, the Outworks of the Fortrefs silenced, and a Breach effected by the Battering Cannon, the Soldiers were seen to mount to the Assault, and the Place surrendered. In the Course of the Siege several Mines were sprung, the Magazine of Powder in the Place took Fire, and no Incident was omitted which could contribute to give the Spectators a perfect Idea of the Manner in which such an Attack is carried on. Afterwards a magnificent Fire-Work was played off on a Stage built on the River for that Purpose; which concluded the Entertainment of the Day, at the Whole of which the Empress was pleased to express great Satisfaction.

Yesterday her Imperial Majesty, attended by the Court, went to hear solemn Mass at the Fortrefs of Petersburg, and to offer up her Prayers for the Souls of those killed in Battle, which is an annual Custom in Time of War.

This Day being the Feast of St. Alexander Newsky, the Empress, as is usual, went in Procession from the Cazan Church to the Monastery of that Saint, preceded by the different Orders of the Clergy, and attended by the Chevalier Guards, &c. The Knights of the Order of St. Alexander had the Honour of Dining with her Imperial Majesty, and this Evening there was a Ball at Court.

St. Ildesno, September 16. This Evening, just as his Catholick Majesty returned from his annual Hunting at Pawlar, a Fire was perceived in the Palace over the Apartment of his Royal Highness the Prince of Asturias, which broke out in a sick Person's Chamber. It continued burning for some Hours, and consumed the whole Roof and upper Floor of that Part of the Palace which joins the Right Wing to the Chapel: It is, however, now so far extinguished, as to leave no Apprehensions of it's communicating on either Side.
