Dublin Castle, November 1.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to return the following most gracious Answers to the humble Addresses of the Houses of Lords and Commons.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty returns His Thanks to the House of Lords for their very loyal Address. The strong Assurances they give of their Duty and Affection to His Majesty and His Royal Family, have given His Majesty the greatest Satisfaction; and as His Majesty, from the experienced Zeal of the House of Lords, has the firmest Reliance on their applying themselves diligently to promote the Happiness and Prosperity of His Subjects of Ireland, they may be assured of His Majesty's constant Favour and Protection.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty thanks the House of Commons for their unanimous and loyal Address. Nothing could be more acceptable to His Majesty, than this fresh Mark of their Duty and Affection to His Majesty, and His Royal Family.

His Majesty doubts not but His faithful Commons will cheerfully grant the necessary Supplies, for the Support of His Government with Honour; and they may be assured of His Majesty's Concurrence in such Measures as may best contribute to the Welfare and Prosperity of the Kingdom of Ireland.

G. R.

Die Martis 2^o Die Novembris, 1773.

Resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That the humble Thanks of this House shall be returned to His Majesty for His Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of this House of the Thirteenth Day of October last.

Ordered, That the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the said Resolution, and desire his Excellency will please to lay the same before His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, return your Majesty our warmest Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of this House.

We will cheerfully grant the necessary Supplies for the Support of Government with Honour, as far as the present State and Circumstances of the Country will admit, being truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Regard for us, from the Assurances given us of your Majesty's Concurrence in such Measures as may best contribute to the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland, and from our happy Experience of your Majesty's mild and gracious Government.

ERRATUM in The London Gazette of last Saturday, in the List of Gentlemen nominated for Sheriffs for the County of Norfolk;

After Everard Buckworth Herne, of Harveringland, Esq; Add, Hugh Hare, of Harpham, Esq;

Admiralty-Office, November 12, 1773.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 8th Instant the Ship Maria Rennie, of Pairpol in Bretagne, of the Burthen of about 40 Tons, whereof Antoine Le Gratier was Master, bound from Rotterdam to Rochelle and Rochfort, laden with Cheefe, Iron, Steel, and other Goods, having received some Damage in bad Weather, was, in attempting to get into the Harbour of Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, unfortunately run on Shore near that Place, where she is likely to be lost, but it is thought the greatest Part of her Cargoe will be saved.

Ph. Stephens.

Navy-Office, November 9, 1773.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Tuesday the 23d Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to supply His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth with Braziers and Founders Goods, on a standing Contract, that they may attend accordingly.

ROBERT BRAND, of Long-Acre, the Patentee for Elastic Trusses for the Cure of Ruptures, being informed that there are Persons who have made and sold Things, which they call Elastic Trusses, which are neither better nor worse than the same Trusses formerly used by their Forefathers:—Mr. Brand, in Justice to himself, and those afflicted with Ruptures, who are in this Matter grossly imposed upon, and being informed the aforesaid Persons still continue to make and vend the said Things they call Elastic Trusses; any Person that can bring Proof of any of them being made or sold, by any Person, except Robert and Thomas Brand, Surgeons, shall, on Conviction, receive TWENTY GUINEAS Reward.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Gabriel late Lord Colraine, deceased, are peremptorily to come in and prove their Debts before Thomas Harris, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Lincoln's-Inn, on or before the 20th Day of December next, or in Default thereof they will be excluded all Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of William Whatton, late of Thurnby in the County of Leicester, Clerk, deceased, are to come in and prove their Debts before Thomas Cuddon, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded all Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the unsatisfied Creditors and Legatees (if any) of the Right Honourable Charles late Earl of Northampton, deceased, are to come in and prove their Debts and claim their Legacies before Thomas Cuddon, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn, Chancery-Lane, London, or in Default thereof they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Thomas Talboys, late of Doughton other-Dufton, in the County of Gloucester, Esq; deceased, are, on or before the 1st Day of December next, to come in and prove their several Demands, before Edward Leeds, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office in Carey-Street near Lincoln's-Inn, London, or in Default thereof they will peremptorily be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.
