The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Monday November 8. to Thursday November 9. 1676.

Lime, Novemb, 6.

He 4th inftant arrived here the Goodmill of this place from Morlaix, with Ballaft onely, fhe met in her Voyage an Oftend Caper of fix Guns, who took from the Mafter and his Company their Cloaths, and feveral other things; they know not the name of the Privateer, nor tannot give any other defcription but that the Commander of it was called Captain William, and that he was a tall Man.

Articles of Peace concluded between the King of Pa-44#d and the Ottoman Port.

I. The Treaties concluded with the late King Michael fhall be quite abolifbed, fo that no more account fhall in the leaft be had of them. II. For what concerns Podolia, the Turks fhall retain

11. For what concerns Podolia, the Turks shall retain Caminics, with a certain compass of ground round it. And the Bissi declares, That although he bave no power to Treat concerning these Points, yet he hopes the Port will agree to the same, in case the King will fend an Envoy to finish the Treaty, who should bring back the Ratification. Concerning the Ukraine, the Turks leave the greatest part thereof to the Republick, as Bialacierkiew, Pawlocz, Galaicke, Memerow, Ste. what the Turks vetain is inconfiderable, and belongs most to Dorolensko.

III. All Preforers and Slaves taken this year flut 3 fet at liberty and no farsher bostility shall be persizzed.

Itsted. IV. The Christian Religion fail be freely exercifed in all places which the Turks tetain by this Treaty.

V. The Turks shall renounce is the Moneys promised them by the Republick by the Treaty of Leopol, and accordingly the Hostages then given shall be restored, as well asiall those that were given by versue of a Treaty concluded with King Calumir at Sborrow.

as well asiall thole that were given by verice of a Tredy concluded with King Calimir at Sbotrow. VI, The Turks and Tartars promife a first Alliance with the Poles, and that they will affift them Against their Enemies, and offer, if they defire it to pafs the Borilthenes, with their Aimy, and to minter there: upon which the King hath answered that he must first conclut the Republick in the thing.

VII. By vertue of this Treaty it is promiled that the Holy Sepulcher flall be given back to the Francifcans, to remove the differences arisen on that acz count.

VIII. The Poles shall find a splendid Embally to the Port; the Turks name the Prince Constantin, the Lieutenant-General of the Crown, or the Chevelier Lubomirsky, but the thing is not yet resolved.

Naples, Oligb. 20. We have formally told you that the French had taken Melilli, which they have fince quitted again, and as for their defign upon Siracufa and Catanea it has not fucceeded, the Viceroy of Sicily-having had time enough to post himself near the latter place, and the Marquis de Brascamonte to arrive with 1200 Men at Siracu fa, fo that the French were forced to retire, and in their retreat we are told a fmart Rens counter happened between the French and the Spanish Cavalry, which, it's faid, was to the advantage of the latter, for that the French loss a great many Men, and among others the Lieutenant General of their Horse. In the mean time the French that remained in Messian had formed a defign upon the Scaletta, which for three days together they attacked both by Sea and Land, but as it's faid at last abandoned the enterprize. The French Fleet is returned to Messian.

Vienna, Nov. 1. The 5th of the next month the Emperor will part hence to Lintz, and from thence to Paffau on the Frontiets of Bavariz, where his Marriage will be celebrated. The Prince of Dietrichfteyn, who is to conduct the Imperial Bride thicher, has orders to begin his journey immediately. From Cracow we have advice of the Peace concluded between the King of Poland and the Turks, at which there was great rejoycing in Paland, and the more for that their affairs were not in a pofture to continue the War. The Bifhop of Gurke who is the first of the Plenipotentiaries the Emperor fends to Nimeguen, will now part hence very fuddenly.

Gopenbigent, Nov. 3. The King of Denmark has drawn all his Forces into the Field, to be ready to oppose the defigns of the Suedes, who hitherto do not enter upon any action, expecting as is faid more reinforcements; in thomean time Lieutenant General Arensderf has been fent out with a party of Horfe to obferve them; upon whofe return our King will take his final refolutions.

Berlin, Now. 4. Great endeavors are used by our Elector to oblige the Inhabitan's of Stetin to a furrender, before the feafon compels him to put his Forces into Winter-quatters; to this end the Beliegers have planted a great many Cannon, with which they batter<sup>1</sup> the place with great fury, and have already occasioned frequent Fires in it, by Which 15 or 20 house have been barnt down, and others very much spoiled, but after all, the Inhabitants continue refolute to defend the Town to the last, and thereby give great chouragement to the Garisfon to do their part the better.

Hamburg, Nov. 10, The Brandenburgs before Steein continue to batter the place without intermiffion, and fince what we told you in our laft have done farther execution with their Granadoes which notwithflanding, the Inhabitants remain unanimous to defend the place to the laft, fo that it's not doubted but his Electoral Highnefs will be obliged to quit the Siege; and we have Letters from Berlin, which fay, that the Elector had caufed feveral Redoubts to be made round the place, for the keeping is blocked up this winner, and this day here is a report in Town, that the Befieged had made 28allys and that they had taken and tarried into the Jwinder burgs did very much annoy that place. • Strasburg, Nov. Gr. The Imperial and French Ars

- Strasburg, Nov. G. The Imperial and French Ars mice continue to have their guarters in the Neighborhood bood of Bafe; the former has it's head quarters at Danakishen, and the other at Hegenheym being divided by the Rhine. The 4th inft nt patied through this City Count Mansfelt, on his way to the Imperial Army, being charged with the Emperors orders to the Duke of Lorrain, about the distribution of Winterquarters, which we expect the Imperial Troops will now in few days go into.

Brifze, Nov. 7. The Troops of the Circles, which feparated some time fince from the Imperial Army, in or er to their return home, were it feems countermanded, and have ever fince continued in the Neighborhood of Friburg, in expectation of the futcels of the Duke of Loriains defign to pals the Rhine, but finding that through the opposition of the Suiffers the fame was not like to fucceed, they marched the 4th infant, in orcer to their going into Wister-quarters in Suabia, Franconia, &c. The Duke of Lorrain in the mean time continues encamped as formerly, being defirous to fee what fuccefs the Duke of Zell has before he removes. The French Army under the command of the Duke of Luxembu g continues as yet together.

From the Marcfchil de Crequi's Camp at Sarquemines, three Miles from Sarbrucke, on the other fide of the Saar, N v. 8. The Lunenburg and Munfter Troops are within fix Leagues from hence, on the other fide of Deuxports, they passed the Rhine about 13 or 14000 ftrong, but having joined the detachement commanded by Major-General Dunewalt we reckon them 18000. The Marelchal Grequi has fent fome Infantry to reinforce the Garifon at Deuxponts, where the Sieur de Fast, who was the Kings Lieutenant at Philipsburg commands. The Marquis de Renel arrived here the 4th inftant, with a detachement from Flandery.

Cologne, Nov. 11. The Ofnabring Troops continue their march towards the Melelle, three days fince they attacked a small place in this Diocess, called Lin, but were repulsed with the loss of 70 men, and among them five Caprains killed, besides wonnded. The 2 Dutch Regiments who came from Treves, have orders to march back again, and to follow the Ofnabrugs. From Treves we have Letters inform us, that the Confederate Troops under the command of the Duke of Zell were come to Birckenfeldt two Leagues from Deuxponts ; we hear of great complaints that are made of the violenges committed by the faid Troops in their march.

Hague, Nov. 13. Though the flate of the War for the year enfuing be not yet finished, yet in the mean time it's faid that eight new Regiments will be raifed againft Spring. Yefterday the Court of Juftice finished the affair of the Sieur de Groot, his Highnels having as Stadtholder perfonally affisted there from nine in the morning till nine at night, and to morrow we expect the Sentence will be pronounced. This afternoon his Highnefs is gone to his houfe at Ssefldyke, and will be back in a day or two. We have the confirmation of a Peace being concluded between the Poles and the Turks.

Braffils, Nov. 10. Since the arrival of the laft Ordinary from Spein, here hath been much discourse at Court of great Levies that are to be made againft Spring, in order to the forming an Atmy of :5000 men, to be under the fole command of our Governor-General; and to this end, we are in expediation of receiving by the next Spanish Ordinary Bills of Ex-change for a Millon or two of Crowns; in the dispatch of which, the new Prefident of the Finances in Spain is as we bre told very zealous. From Cambray we hear that feveral parties have been fent abroad from thence into the French Ter-ritories to raife Contributions, one of which in a Village near Arras found fore refiftance from a fmall number of Soldiers, fent from Arras, but the Spaniards entred the Village, killed fome, and of Seldiers and Inhabitants took 200 Prifo-uers, with a good booty of Horfes and Cattel. Lieutenant-

General Agurio has put the Troops defigned to Si omers inta General Agurio has put the Troops delighted to Si Omers inte that place, and is come back hither, where he intends to re-main this winter. The Ridhop of O/nating-having left his Troops in the Diocets of Corgae, which, it's faid, at prefent whardly amount to 3000 men, with orders to continue their march towards the Mofille, is gone home attended with his Guards onely, having promified to recruit his faid Troops againft Spring. From Linge they write, that, a great Convoy with 3 or 4000 Horfe are going from Charleroy to Maeffricht by the way of Cradros, which is the onely part of that Countrey which hath not been already ruined in this War. The laft Letters we had from the Duke of Zulk Camp were dated the Letters we had from the Duke of Zells Camp were dated the 51b inftant at Kustell, a bout four-Leagues from Desuponts, which faid, that the day following the Army-was to march. From Alface we understand, that the Duke of Lorrain had new quitted all thoughts of passing the Shine, but that for want of inbliftence he would be obliged to put his Army very quuckly into Winter quarters.

into Winter-quarters, Ditto, Nov. 13. We still diffcourfe of great preparations against Spring, and we expect with fome impatience the ar-rival of the Spanish Ordinary, which, it's faid, will bring Bills for a very confiderable Sum. They write from Alface that both Armies continue in the fame poffure as formerly, and that both Atmiss continue in the tame point as formerly and that both have received orders to go into Winter quarters and from Cologne, that on Friday laft the young Princes of Newbourg paffed by there, in their way towards Newbourg, to be prefent at the Empresses Marriage, which is to be celebrated the 9th of the next month at Paffare. The Troops of Ofna-brag continue their march towards the Mofelle, to join with the Duke of Zell, and likewife the two Holland Regiments that came from Treves, have received orders to march after the Of nating Troops, who in their march through the Pais de Co-logns, did attack the Cafile of Linne, where they were repul-ied with the lofs of above 150 men, befides many woundeds. We are told from Mitz that Monfieur dr Reselis come with a detachement from Maria (nat Monneur ar Rearis Conte With a detachement from Mareichal Creque to Sarbrue, to obferve the motions of the Duke of Zell, and that the French were refolved to defend Deuxponts. Our Italian Letters by this laft Ordinary affure us, that the Marquis C fiel Roding the new Viceroy of Sicily, hath forced the French to retire, from a polithey had taken near Synacula; that in the retreat the French loft feveral Men, and amongst them fome officers of Quality, whereof the Lieurenant-General of the Cavalry is faid to be one; neither did the Spaniards come off without lofs though 200 fo confiderable as the French; a Lieutenant Geo neral of the Spaniards is also faid to be wounded.

Prevention the spaniartis is also laid to be wounded. "Rows, New, 14. The Court is at preferent at St Germain, where it will pais the winter The Armies in Mlfac. and Brifgen are now in good earneft preparing to go into Winter quar-ters, but as for those commanded by the Duke of Z. II and the Marefchal C que it is very probable they will come to an En-gagement. Two days fince we received a certain account of the complement of the Duke of the Twitethe conclusion of a Peace between the Poles and the Turks very honourable for the first.

Advertisements.

- of The Commentaries of C. Julius Cafar, of his Wars in Galla; and the Civil Wars betwirk him, and Pumpey. By Clument Edmonds Efg; Remembrancer of the City of London.
- Two Sermons Preach'd at the Funerals of the Right Honorable Rebert Lord Lexington, and the Lady Mary B Wife. By Samuel Holden A. M. late of Lincoln Mary 1 Wife. By Samuel Holden A. M. late of Lincoln Colledge in Oxford, and Chaplain to his Lordfhip, deceased. Both fold by Jonathan Edwyn, at the Three Rofes in Ludgate, ftreet.
- 🖙 A Dialogue between a Popifh Prieft and an English Protestant. Wherein the principal Points and Ar-guments of both Religions are truly proposed, and fully ex-amined. By Matthew Pool, Author of the Syzepsis Cisica-rum Sold by The: Coeferil, at the Aslas in Combil.

Sorge Coveri in a light Camblet Sute, and Worfted Camblet G Serge Cover in a ligor Camplet Suite, and worsted Camplet Coat, fad brown lank hair, about 40 years of age, a Ton-four man, allo Willium Covers aged about 22 years in a cloth coloured Sute, with three rows of Buttons down the Coat, and a fad coloured Coat upon the Sute, a Plaisterer by Trade, his Wife a full fet Woman with Pockholes in her face, an afh-co-Wite a fully let woman with poeknots in herrare, an anreo-loured Gown mixed with an exp of red, having defrauded feve-tal perfons of quantities of Goods, upon fecuring the perfons abovementioned, or any of them, and giving notice to Jyhn Wetteret, or Wallism Washief in Rateliff Highway, over against the Host-chie a Victualling howfe, thall have 31. reward. A Yer; large white Mastiff Dog with half this face brindle, and large brindle (pots on his fides, his ears not cut and a boot eail. They the conduct on vice of him east the state of the long tail. They that can give notice of him at the Anchor Tavern in the Minories, shall have 20 s. reward.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Savoy, 1675.