And to Twenty-four Private Bills.

The humble Address of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, presented to His Majesty on Thursday, May 19, 1774.

Die Lunæ, 16^o Maii, 1774.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, having, in Pursuance of your Majesty's most gracious Recommendation in your Speech to your Parliament, at the Opening of this Session, taken into our most serious Consideration the present State of the Gold Coin of this Realm; and having called for several Accounts, and examined Evidence touching the same; we find, That the Gold Coin of this Realm has been greatly diminished, by clipping, filing, and other evil Practices, particularly of late Years, in Violation of the Laws of this Realm: And it appears to us, that it hath been a Practice to export and melt down the new and perfect Coin soon after it has been issued, for private Advantage, to the great Detriment of the Public; and that the like Practices will continue, while Pieces, differing greatly in Weight, are current under the same Denomination, and at the same Rate and Value. And having, with great Attention, deliberated on this important Subject, in which the Commerce and Interests of your Majesty's Subjects are so essentially concerned, and on the Measures which ought to be pursued for preventing the Mischiefs to which the Publick are thus exposed; we are humbly of Opinion, That, in the first Place, it is proper that all Guineas weighing less than Five Penny Weights, Eight Grains; and all Half-guineas weighing less than Two Penny Weights, Sixteen Grains; and all Quarter-guineas weighing less than One Penny Weight, Eight Grains, be called in, and recoin'd, according to the established Standard of the Mint, both as to Weight and Fineness; and that it is proper, that the said Guineas, Half-guineas, and Quarter-guineas, be called in by Degrees, and as fast as the Occasions of Circulation will allow, and as the Officers of the Mint are able to recoin the same: And that the Publick do bear the Loss arising from the Deficiency and Recoinage of the said Guineas, Half-guineas, and Quarter-guineas; provided such Deficiency does not exceed the Rates settled by the Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury, in their Order of the Twenty-third of July last; and provided they be offered in Payment to the Receivers or Collectors of the Publick Revenues, or are brought to such Persons or Persons as your Majesty shall authorize to receive and exchange the same, within certain Times to be appointed for that Purpose.

We do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty, That your Majesty would be graciously pleased to issue your Royal Proclamation, or Proclamations, and thereby appoint such Days as to your Majesty shall seem meet, after which the said Guineas, Half-guineas, and Quarter-guineas, be not allowed in Payment, or to pass, except only to the Collectors and Receivers of the Publick Revenues, or to such Persons as your Majesty shall authorize to receive and exchange the same: And that your Majesty would appoint certain other Days, after which the said Guineas, Half-guineas, and Quarter-guineas, be not allowed to pass in any Payment whatsoever, or to be exchanged in Manner before mentioned.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Attention you have given to a Matter, in which the Commerce and Revenue of my Kingdoms are so nearly concerned, affords Me the highest Satisfaction; and you may depend upon My giving the necessary Orders for carrying the Measures you recommend into immediate Execution.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 21, 1774.
