Petersburgh, May 3.
YESTERDAY being the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Birth-day, there was a very brilliant and numerous Court in the Morning; and in the Evening a Ball and Supper, both which the Empress honoured with her Presence, being the only Time her Imperial Majesty has supped in publick for many Years.

Upon this Occasion, the Order of St. Alexander was given to General Potemkin, and the same Mark of Distinction sent to M. Reinstorp, Governor of Oremberg, accompanied with a Present of fifteen thousand Roubles. General Bibikow was promoted from the Rank of Major to that of Lieutenant-Colonel of the Guards. An Express arrived from this Officer on Saturday Night last, with an Account, that Prince Galitzin had again engaged a Body of the Rebels, commanded by their Chief, on the Borders of the Yaick; which he entirely defeated, Pugatcheff escaping with only fourteen Men. It seems that after the former Action he found Means to assemble some Thousands of the Fugitives, with which he engaged a second Time with the above Corps. When the Express came away General Bibikow was near Oremberg, and so ill of a Fever as to be scarcely able to sign the Report.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Cathcart, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, embrace with Pleasure this first Opportunity which our Meeting in a General Assembly affords us, of approaching your Throne with humble Congratulations on the Birth of another Prince.

Attached to your Majesty by that Affection which your Majesty's amiable Qualities inspire, we cannot but rejoice in an Event which adds to your domestic Felicity. The Loyalty which we bear to our Sovereign, and a deep Sense of the intimate Connexion betwixt the Prosperity of your Royal Family, and the Publick Welfare, increase our Satisfaction. Engaged as we are by every Motive of Duty and Interest to wish the Continuance of the British Sceptre in your illustrious House, we regard every Addition to your Royal Family as a new Pledge of the Securities of our Religion and Liberties. We adore the Goodness of God, who, by the flourishing State of your Royal House, and the persevering Wisdom and Clemency of your Government, affords us so much Reason to be grateful for the Happiness which we now enjoy, and for the future Prospects which are before us.

That His gracious Protection may ever continue to watch over your Royal Person, your illustrious Consort the Queen, the Prince of Wales, and every Branch of your august Race; that His Spirit may prompt all your Majesty's Undertakings, His Wisdom may direct all your Councils, and His Providence crown them with Success; and that, after having long made that extensive and flourishing Empire over which you reign happy by your mild and just Administration; you may at length attain the full Reward of those righteous Princes who shall shine as the Brightness of the Firmament in the everlasting Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, are the sincere Prayers of,

Most Gracious Sovereign, Your Majesty's most faithful, obedient, and loyal Subjects, The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Whereas, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for the more effectually carrying into Execution certain Proposals made by the most noble Henry Duke of Buccleugh, the most noble Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, and Others, for redeeming the Annuities granted by the Company of the Bank in Air, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, known under the Firm of Douglas, Heron, and Company,"—The said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, Archibald Douglas of Douglas, Esq; John Hamilton of Sundrum, Alexander Ferguson of Craigdarroch, Ilay Campbell, David Ferguson, Alexander Wight, John Campbell, Andrew Crossbie, George Home, Alexander M'Konochie, Thomas Lockhart, and John Syme, being the Committes of Partners of the said Company appointed for managing and winding up the Affairs of the said Company, or any five of them, (of which the said Henry Duke of Buccleugh, Charles Duke of Queensberry and Dover, and Archibald Douglas of Douglas, Esq; or any two of them or the Survivor of them, shall be three, two, or one, as the Case shall happen) are authorized and empowered to execute and issue Bonds, in Manner mentioned in the Act, for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole 500,000 l. for the Purpose of raising Money for redeeming the Annuities, that were granted by the Partnership of Douglas, Heron, and Company, in 1772, and for the Payment of a Half Year's Purchase, or 50 l. more on every Annuity of 100 l. and pro rata for every greater or lesser Annuity, as a Premium verbally agreed to be paid to the Annuitants when the Annuities were granted, at the Time of redeeming thereof; under certain Conditions and Regulations specified in the Act—And whereas the said Committee are now executing Bonds, in Pursuance of the said Act, and will be ready to begin to redeem the said Annuities upon the 10th Day of June in this Year 1774, and the said Committee taking into Consideration, that the paying the Redemption Money and getting the Annuity Bonds properly discharged cannot possibly be executed in one Day, and they being desirous to redeem the Annuities in the Manner most equal and convenient for the Annuitants, have come to the Resolution of proceeding in the Redemption of the Annuities in the following Manner:

That is to say,—They will redeem each Annuity upon the first Quarter-Day the Annuity becomes due, after the 10th Day of June in this Year 1774, by paying to the Annuitant the original Price of the said Annuity, the Half-Year's Purchase or Premium, and the whole Arrears of the Annuity then due, upon getting a Discharge or Acquittal of the Annuity Bond; and will proceed in the same Manner, paying from Day to Day, Sundays excepted, until the Quarter Day of each Annuity Bond shall be passed, and Payment made to each Annuitant, or his or her Attorney legally authorized, who shall call for Payment of the said Redemption Money. And, for the further Accommodation of the Annuitants, who may wish to have their Annuities annuities redeemed before their Quarter-Days, they will redeem them upon any Day the Annuitants shall call for their Payment, after the said 10th Day of June in this Year 1774. And the said Committee have appointed Alexander M^r Koniechie, one of their Number, to pay the said Redemption Monies, at his Lodging in the House of Thomas Lambert, Taylor, N^o 73, St. Martin's-Lane, Charing-Cross; where Attendance will be given from Ten o'Clock Forenoon till Three o'Clock Afternoon. And, for the greater Accommodation of the Annuitants, and to avoid Loss to those who may, from any unavoidable Cause, be prevented from calling for Payment of their Redemption Money upon the Quarter-Day, in Manner above expressed, they have resolved, and hereby agree, to pay Interest of the Redemption Money from the said Quarter-Day, at the Rate of Five per Cent. until Payment thereof, provided Payment is called for within the Space of Six Months from the said Quarter-Day. And that, after the Expiration of the said Six Months, they will deposit the Money in a Banker's Shop, of which Notice will be given by Advertisements in the Gazette and News-Papers, after-mentioned; there to remain, without the Copartnership being liable for Interest thereon, until the Money is called for by the Annuitant, or his or her lawful Attorney. And the said Committee, in order to make the above Particulars known to all the Annuitants and their lawful Attornies, and to the Executors or Administrators of such Annuitants as are dead, have ordered this Notice to be published twice every Week in the London Gazette, and in the News-Papers called the Public Advertiser, Daily Advertiser, the Gazetteer, the London Chronicle, and London Evening Post, for three Weeks, and once a Week for three Months thereafter. And, in order to bind the Company to the Performance of the Conditions herein specified, a Copy of this Advertisement, subscribed by a Quorum of the Committee, is lodged with Sir Thomas Frankland, Barones, one of the Judges, at his House in Old Bond Street, for the Benefit of all concerned.
