And that, after the Expiration of the said Six Months, they will deposit the Money in a Banker's Shop, of which Notice will be given by Advertisements in the Gazettes and News-Papers after-mentioned; there to remain, without the Copartners being liable for Interest thereon, until the Money is called for by the Annuitant, or his or her lawful Attorney. And the said Committee, in order to make the above Particulars known to all the Annuitants and their lawful Attornies, and to the Executors or Administrators of such Annuitants as are dead, have ordered this Notice to be published twice every Week in the London Gazette, and in the News-Papers called the Public Advertiser, Daily Advertiser, the Gazetteer, the London Chronicle, and London Evening Post, for three Weeks, and once a Week for three Months thereafter. And, in order to bind the Company to the Performance of the Conditions herein specified, a Copy of this Advertisement, subscribed by a Quorum of the Committee, is lodged with Sir Thomas Frankland, Baronet, one of the Inspectors, at his House in Old Bond Street, for the Benefit of all concerned.
