

East-India House, August 24, 1774.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Wednesday the 28th of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon.

Trinity House, London, September 24, 1774.

Whereas several Vessels coming into the River Thames have run foul of the Light Vessel placed at the Nore Sand, for the Safety of Navigation, whereby she has frequently received considerable Damage: This Corporation recommend it to the Masters of all Ships to be cautious of doing any Injury to the said Light Vessel, as the Security of Navigation and Commerce may be much affected by their Inattention.

Vicqualling-Office, September 26, 1774.

THE Commissioners for Vicqualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 26th of October next, they will be ready to receive Tenders in Writing (sealed up) and treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake to furnish Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may come to Leith, Leith Road, and the Firth of Edinburgh, and be in Want thereof.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Vicqualling-Office, London, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Leith.

And all Persons who may think proper to make Tenders upon the said Occasion are desired to take Notice, that no Regard will be had to any Tender that shall not be delivered to the Board before One o'Clock on the said 26th of October next.
