Westminster, November 30.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most Gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT gives Me much Concern, that I am obliged, at the Opening of this Parliament, to inform you, That a most daring Spirit of Resistance and Disobedience to the Law still unhappily prevails in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay, and has, in divers Parts of it, broke forth in fresh Violences of a very criminal Nature. These Proceedings have been countenanced and encouraged in other of My Colonies, and unwarrantable Attempts have been made to obstruct the Commerce of this Kingdom, by unlawful Combinations. I have taken such Measures, and given such Orders, as I judged most proper and effectual for carrying into Execution the Laws which were passed in the last Session of the late Parliament, for the Protection and Security of the Commerce of My Subjects, and for the Restoring and Preserving Peace, Order, and good Government, in the Province of the Massachusetts Bay; and you may depend upon My firm and stedfast Resolution to withstand every Attempt to weaken or impair the Supreme Authority of this Legislature over all the Dominions of My Crown; the Maintenance of which I consider as essential to the Liberty, the Safety, and the Welfare, of the British Empire; assuring Myself, that, while I act upon the Principles, I shall never fail to receive your Assistance and Support.

I have the greatest Satisfaction in being able to inform you, That a Treaty of Peace is concluded between Russia and the Porte. By this happy Event, the Troubles which have so long prevailed in one Part of Europe are composed, and the general Tranquillity rendered complete. It shall be My constant Aim and Endeavour to prevent the Breaking out of fresh Disturbances; and I cannot but flatter Myself I shall succeed, as I continue to receive the strongest Assurances from other Powers of their being equally desirous to preserve the Peace.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Estimates for the Service of the ensuing Year to be laid before you; and I doubt not but that, in this House of Commons, I shall meet with the same affectionate Confidence, and the same Proofs of Zeal and Attachment to my Person and Government, which I have always, during the Course of My Reign, received from My faithful Commons.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Let Me particularly recommend to you, at this Time, to proceed with Temper in your Deliberations, and with Unanimity, in your Resolutions. Let my People, in every Part of my Dominions, be taught by your Example, to have a due Reverence for the Laws, and a just Sense of the Blessings, of Our excellent Constitution. They may be assured that, on My Part, I have nothing so much at Heart as the real Prosperity and lasting Happiness of all My Subjects.
