Dresden, February 8.

LAST Week we had a sudden Change of Weather, from severe Frost to incessant Rain of two Days and Nights; and there being a deep Snow on the Ground, which melted at once, the Elbe swelled very greatly, and overflowed all the Neighbourhood of this City, and the low Parts of the whole Country, so that it is feared the Crops on both Sides of the River will be carried away.

Turin, February 15. On Sunday Morning last his Sardinian Majesty declared the intended Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Piedmont with the Princess Royal of France. There was Grand Gala at Court on Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, and the whole Town was illuminated. The King of Sardinia's Theatre was likewise illuminated each Night; at the Prince of Carignan's there were three Balls; this Evening there is a Ball at Court, which will conclude the present Festival.

Berlin, February 18. The Frost is now entirely gone, and is succeeded by so wet a Season, that there is much to be feared from the Inundations of the Rivers in this Neighbourhood.

Paris, February 22. The Distemper among the horned Cattle still rages in several Provinces with great Violence: A Cordon of Troops is forming, and other Precautions are taken to prevent it's Progress.
