St James's, June 3, 1775 WHereas it has been humbly reprefented to the King; That on the 3d Day of last March, Mr. Roberi Hunter, Collector of His Mujesty's Customs at the Port of Montrole in Scotland, did receive by the Post, under his Addrefs, an anonymous Threatening Letter, without either Date or Signature; and that on the 20th Day of April last, Mr. David Reid, Inspector General of the Cufloms, did also receive an anonymous Ibreatening Letter, under his Addrcfs, by the Pift, figned "Nine" dated the 12th Day of April 1775; of which Letters the following are Copies, wig.

Sir

The receiving this Letter from an unknown hand, and unfubfcribed, may no doubt be matter of Wonder and Surprise to you, but as I always have a pleafure of being Serviceable to mankind, and of pre-venting Milchief when impending to any Perfon-(altho never fo worthlels) as much as less in my power, is the reason for my making free to ac-quaint you of the following particulars, the knowledge of which, I only got not many hours ago, If its well taken as a Caution shall be infinitely glad, which will best Appear by your after Conduct, If otherwife, I shall only think my trouble lost, and whatever may be the Confequence afterwards I shall be very indifferent.

Having occasion yesterday to be a few Miles from home on Business, I happened to fall in with a small but Senfible Company, after talking over a great many Things, the Conversation turned at last upon a Subject altogether foreign to me, namely anent feveral Profections which have of late been commenced against different Persons in and about the neighbourhood of the Place you live in, particularly to the Northward, and was entirely confounded to hear, that you are the principal Infligator, and actor of fuch hellifh Schemes, as commencing these Profecutions to prove those perfons to be Smugglers, or Importers of prohibited Goods, in order to which you with fome others, your accomplices, have fuborned a fet of the most worthless Perjured, Infamous lowliv'd Rogues, that perhaps Scotland, nay, the whole world cannot produce fuch like perfidious wretches, Confummate Knaves, and the very dregs of mankind, yea, more Generofity is to be had from the moft favage Tyger, that roams in the wild of Nubia, If this is the cafe (which god, you, and your accomplices only know) I think you muft undoubtedly be the moft unhappy of all men - I naturally enquired, what motive, one in your office and Rank could have in fuch wickedness, it was answered, your motives were thought to be partly Envy and Revenge, but mostly mercenary, and that for a very inconfiderable triffle to yourself (after paying your Banditti) you pay no Regard to the ruining Individuals, or whole Families The men who you have injured for much, now after coming to the perfect knowledge, that you are the main Spring of action, are, and Juffly raifed to a Degree of rage next to Madnefs, and are ditermined, that if you do not immediately ftop procedure in these matters, that you will be treated as a Common Enemy, and were their cafe mine, I would look upon you worfe than a Highwayman, and treat you as fuch first opportunity, which I un-derstand you have reason to expect, and if that fhould happen (as god forbid) I am abfolutely conwinced, the world would Justify the Action, and pray, what fine Reflection must your Family and Friends have, when they think of the great honours, you have brought on yourfelf and them. But allowing you still go on in your ordinary Career, and meet with no difafter or Obstacle, and that you get your wicked designs accomplished, that you cause a few people leave their Country, that you get them ruined to all Intents, that you get their families made deflitute, and that by their deflruction you get a number of those deteftable Knaves you emply, into low dirty Offices, to be always plot-ting, fwearing and perjuring themfelves, as tools to your inflexible barbarity and voracious Appetite, pray what mighty Conquest do you make? — Yes, pray what mighty Conquest do you make? you make a few men that might live peaceable in their Families, Miferable Vagabonds, and fend those ignorant fellows, who are fubservient to you, directly to the Devil, and yourfelf at their head - It might be thought that one of your fenfe could never have thought of degrading yourfelf fo much, by being engaged in fo horrid actions, and with fuch low paultry Company, which must render you infamous to the last degree, and without a speedy amendment of your manners you must leave the world with a most abominable Character; and how hideous must your Reflections be, to think that you can-not furvive long, I may fay, looking into the grave and fuch a load of Iniquity on your backpardon me for being fo tedious, only let me add that if your years shall be lengthened yet sometime, It will be your wifdom to change your method to a better way of thinking, which if done must foon appear, otherwife blame yourfelf, if the Confequences are fatal. I am.

Your Crimes are now at a height. your Oppression and Influence in the exercise of your Office, are bemome to glaring that they call aloud for Vengeance,

You truft to your Friends, but there are fome who pretend to be to who would be happy to fee your factificed to the Manes of injured innocence -Know then proud villain, that as your Life is now become odious in the fight of God and all good People, we are determined to put a period to it as foon as a proper Opportunity offers. We shall lye in wait for you, and take you off in an unguarded Hour, and fend you to your infernal Adviser with all your Imperfections on your head. It will be in vain for you to make any enquiry about the intended Perpetrators of that glorious deed as we have fworm inviolable Secrecy. We hope foon to meet with you and clear Accounts. Nine.

Edinburgh 12:th April 1775.

N. B. By God you may be faying your Prayers.
