St. James's, July 14.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, some of the Aldermen, the Sheriffs, and Commons, of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household) with the following Address and Petition, which was read by the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, with all Humility, beg Leave to lay themselves at your Royal Feet, humbly imploring your benign Attention towards the grievous Distractions of their Fellow Subjects in America.

The Characteristic of the People, Sire, over whom you reign, has ever been equally remarked for an unparalled Loyalty to their Sovereign, whilst the Principles of the Constitution have been the Rule of His Government; as well as a firm Opposition, whenever their Rights have been invaded.

Your American Subjects, Royal Sir, descended from the same Ancestors with ourselves, appear equally jealous of the Prerogatives of Freemen, without which they cannot deem themselves happy.

Their chearful and unasked-for Contributions, as well as willing Services, to the Mother Country, whilst they remained free from the Clog of compulsory Laws, will, we are sure, plead powerfully with the Humanity of your Disposition, for graciously granting them every reasonable Opportunity of giving, as Freemen, what they seem resolutely determined to refuse, under the Injunction of Laws made independent of their own Consent.

The Abhorrence we entertain of civil Bloodshed and Confusion will, we trust, Sire, if not wholly exculpate us in your Royal Mind, yet plead powerfully in our Favor, for the Warmth with which we lament those Measures, whose destructive Principles have driven our American Brethren to Acts of Desperation.

Convinced of the earnest Disposition of the Colonists to remain firm in all duteous Obedience to the constitutional Authority of this Kingdom, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to beseech you, that those Operations of Force, which at present distract them with the most dreadful Apprehensions, may be suspended; and that, uncontroled by a Restraint incompatible with a free Government, they may possess an Opportunity of tendering such Terms of Accommodation, as, we doubt not, will approve them worthy of a distinguished Rank amongst the firmest Friends of this Country.

Signed by Order of Court,

William Rix.

To which Address and Petition His Majesty was pleased to return the following Answer:

I Am always ready to listen to the dutiful Petitions of My Subjects, and ever happy to comply with their reasonable Requests; but whilst the constitutional Authority of this Kingdom is openly resisted by a Part of My American Subjects, I owe it to the rest of My People, of whose Zeal and Fidelity I have had such constant Proofs, to continue and enforce those Measures by which alone their Rights and Interests can be asserted and maintained.
