Aleppo, June 29. The Persians have besieged Bassarah ever since the 7th of April, which Place was well defended to the Date of the last Letters from thence of the 25th of May, but cannot hold out, unless Relief is sent. A Turkish Ambassador has been at Schiras since the 25th of April, to accommodate Matters. At Bagdat they had stored the Town with Provisions, and were in a good Posture of Defence; the Persians have an Army encamped a few Days Journey from thence.

Moscow, July 28. N. S. The Countess Romanzow, Mother of the Marshal, has received a very distinguished Mark of the Emperess's Favour, by being invested with the Order of St. Catherine.

Moscow, August 7. On Monday Evening last the three Regiments of Guards, which are here, marched out to a Camp formed near the Place called Chodinka, about three Wersts from Town, which was destined for the Scene of the remaining Festivities for the Celebration of the Peace. In the Decoration of this Place, the Map of the Crimea and of the Black Sea had been followed with as much Exactness as local Circumstances would permit, by the Erection of Buildings representing the several Fortresses upon the Coast of that Sea. These were elegantly adorned on the Inside, and accommodated to different Purposes. Kinburn, Jenicale, Taganrok, Azow, and smaller Ports, were Theatres. Saloons, Shops, Dining-Halls, Temples, and Arcades for Illuminations, &c. and in the Harbours were seen large Ships and Gallies compleatly rigged; which, besides contributing greatly to the Beauty of the Scene, served for Galleries for the Company, and for other Uses.

Tuesday at Noon a Treat was given to the Populace, consisting of roasted Oxen, and great Quantities of Provision, with Fountains of Wine; at the same Time they were amused with the Feats of Rope dancers and Tumblers, and several other Diversions calculated to entertain them. The Emperess, their Imperial Highnesses, and the whole Court, were Spectators of this from the Saloons of Kerche and Jenicale, which were joined by a Pavilion; after which, the Foreign Ministers had the Honour of dining with her Imperial Majesty in the Hall of Azow, where circular Tables were also spread for the Five first Classes of the Nobility. A French Comedy at the new Theatre (Kinburn) concluded the Entertainments of the Day.

On Thursday Evening, the last of the Festivals, there was a French Comedy at the Theatre at Chodinka, which the Emperess and the Great Duke and Dutchess honoured with their Presence. In the mean while, the Temples, Arcades, &c. erected for the Purpose, and the Ships and Gallies, were illuminated with coloured Lamps in the most elegant Manner, as well as the neighbouring and more remote Country Seats, which had the finest Effect imaginable. The Publick Masked Ball after the Play was very numerous and brilliant. The Emperess distributed Presents, at the Shops, to her Maids of Honour; and ordered a Gold Medal, of Twenty Ducats Value, to be given to each of the Shopkeepers; after which, her Imperial Majesty viewed the Fireworks from a Gallery in the largest Ship, and was pleased to express great Satisfaction at the Manner in which the whole of the Entertainments upon this happy Occasion had been conducted.
