

munition to the English Colonies, still subsist, We have again thought fit absolutely to prohibit, and We hereby absolutely do prohibit, all Exportation of Ammunition, Gunpowder, Guns and Shot, by Ships belonging to the Dominions of Great Britain, for the further Term of a Year, on Pain, not only of Confiscation of the Arms and Ammunition, which shall be found there on board, but also of a Fine of a Thousand Guilders over and above, at the Charge of the Commander, whose Ship shall be answerable and liable to Execution for the same.

That We have further thought fit to enact, and We do hereby enact, that, during the aforesaid further Term of one Year, no Gunpowder, Guns, Shot, or other Instruments of War, shall be embarked on board any other Ships, whether Foreign, or belonging to this Country, to be transported abroad, without Consent and Permission of the College of Admiralty, under whose Jurisdiction the Embarkation shall be made, on Pain of Confiscation of the Arms, Gunpowder, Guns, Shot, or other Ammunition, which shall have been embarked without Permission, and of the Commander's incurring a Fine of a Thousand Guilders, on board of whose Ship the said Arms and Ammunition shall have been embarked, and his Ship be answerable and liable to Execution for the said Fine.

And that no one may pretend Ignorance hereof, We call upon and require the States, the Hereditary Stadtholder, the Committee of Council, and the Deputations of the States, of the respective Provinces, and all other the Officers and Justices of these Countries, to cause this Our Proclamation to be forthwith promulgated, published, and affixed in all Places where the same is necessary, and where such Publication is wont to be made; And We further charge and command the Counsellors of the Admiralty, the Advocates General, and Commis General, together with all Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains, Officers and Commanders, to pay Obedience to this Our Proclamation, proceeding, and causing to be proceeded against the Transgressors thereof, without Favour, Connivance, Disimulation, or Composition; for such have We found meet.

Given at the Hague, under the Seal of the State, the Signature of the President of Our Assembly, and the Counter-Signature of Our Grefrier, August 18, 1775.

Paris, August 23. The Festivals at Versailles have taken up this whole Week. The Ceremony of the Marriage of Madame Clotilde, the Grand Apartment, and the Banquet Royal on Monday, were as magnificent as possible, and were conducted with the greatest Order.

His Most Christian Majesty has ordered the Title of Altesse Royale to be given to the Duke D'Angoulême.

St. James's, August 26, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Monday Night last, the 21st Instant, between Eight and Nine o'Clock, Two Gentlemen in a Single Horse Chair were stopped on the Wandsworth Road, near the Five Miles Stone, by several Persons, believed to be Six or Seven, and robbed of their Money, and one of the Gentlemen of his Watch, the other of his Watch-Chain; after which one of the Footpads fired a Pistol, and wounded one of the Gentlemen very badly in the Face, insomuch that his Life is despaired of: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually fired the Pistol) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, as a further Encouragement, Mr. Robert Gordon (Brother of the wounded Person) doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person who shall discover the Person who actually fired the Pistol, to be paid, upon the Conviction of the said Offender, by Mr. Thomas Jones, at his House in Southampton Street, Bloomsbury.

N. B. The Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, offered in last Saturday's Gazette, for discovering any of the Offenders, was a Mistake, the Reward being intended only for the Discovering and Conviction of the Person who actually fired the Pistol, as it is now offered above.

Rob. Gordon.
