St. James's, September 16.
THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and principal Inhabitants, of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manchester in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, attended by Mr. Clowes, Mr. Birch, Mr. Wright, Mr. Houghton, Mr. Ford, and Mr. Lever, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;
 The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and principal Inhabitants, of the Town and Neighbourhood of Manchester, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

ACTUATED by an affectionate and dutiful Regard for your many Royal Virtues, and firmly attached to that Constitution which secures to us the Enjoyment of Liberties known only to British Subjects, we presume, in the most loyal and respectful Manner, to offer our Tribute of Gratitude to your Majesty, for the many Blessings we have enjoyed under the benign Influence of your Government.

Since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, Commerce, the great Source of Wealth, hath been not only successfully encouraged, but firmly established, in this Island; and under the Auspices of Peace hath been carried to an Extent unknown to your Royal Predecessors. Manufactures flourish in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions, particularly in this Town and Neighbourhood, where they are daily advancing towards Perfection, and where the lowest of your Subjects are fully employed, and are blessed with the peaceable Enjoyment of the Fruits of their Industry.

Thus happy under your Majesty's Government, we look with Horror upon every Attempt to disturb it's Tranquility; and it is with inexpressible Concern we behold the Standard of Rebellion erected in some of the American Provinces, and our Fellow Subjects involved in an unnatural War against their lawful Sovereign. We observe, with Regret, that the Lenity shewn by your Majesty towards the Insurgents hath been of no Avail, but, instead of reclaiming, hath seemed rather to irritate and urge them on to more daring Acts of Violence; and as Force is become necessary to bring them to a Sense of their Allegiance, we think ourselves bound in Duty to assist your Majesty in the Execution of the Legislative Authority.

We are not intimidated at the Prohibition laid by the Americans on the Importation and Exportation of Goods to and from the British Dominions; our extensive Trade happily flows in so many different Channels, that the Obstruction of one can but little distress, much less deter us from our Duty to our King and Country. But whatever Check our Manufactures may receive by a necessary War, we shall cheerfully submit to a temporary Incurrence rather than continue subject to lawless Depredations from a deluded and unhappy People; as we are fully persuaded, that Trade with America can never be established on it's true Basis, until the Colonies are reduced to a proper Submission to the Government and Laws of Great-Britain.

As Englishmen, we are led by Inclination, as well as impelled by Interest, to preserve the Authority of the British Legislature, and to protect the Dignity and Prerogative of the Crown (as founded on the Principles of the Constitution) sacred and inviolate. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to support, with our Lives and Fortunes, such Measures as your Majesty shall think necessary for the Punishment of Rebellion in any Part of your Dominions, being convinced, that the Sword of Justice will be directed by the Hand of Mercy towards such of your Subjects as have been deluded by the artful Designs of a discontented Faction.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Warren, Knight of the Bath, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Sir George had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Town of Lancaster, in Common Council assembled, happy in the Enjoyment of the same Privileges, under various Charters granted by your Royal Predecessors, with the first City of this Kingdom; presume we have the same Right to address the Throne upon every just Occasion, and upon every true Principle of the Constitution,

Constitution, unfeduced by bad Example, and influenced by Party.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, it was with the deepest Concern we saw the first Troubles break out in North America, and most sincerely lamented the Infatuation of a misguided People, hoping they would soon have returned to a Sense of themselves, and their Duty;—but now, when the Standard of Rebellion is erected in that Country, when your Majesty's Governors have been expelled or over-lawed, and every Form of legal Government subverted and destroyed, when the supreme Authority of the Mother Country is derided and denied, we think it incumbent on us to declare to your Majesty and the World, we look upon the Authors and Abettors of these Violences with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence.

At such a Crisis, then, as the present, when, under the sacred Name of Liberty (of late so vilely prostituted and abused) every Enormity is committed, and every dangerous Tenet adopted and advanced; when Rebellion Abroad is cherished and fomented by traitorous Correspondencies, as well as furnished with Means of Offence, from Home; we flatter ourselves there is not a Man to be found, who is worthy to be called a Briton, that dares to arraign the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, or the Exertion of your Majesty's executive Powers against Subjects so unnatural, so ungrateful: But whatever may be the Fate of this deluded People, whatever Mischiefs they may bring upon themselves, we absolutely rely on your Majesty, that the indubitable Rights of this Kingdom will be inviolably preserved, and that no Measures will be taken in Relation to America, but what are consistent with the Dignity, Honour, and Safety of Great Britain.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaster, this Fifth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seventy five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, has been presented to His Majesty by John Darker, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Mr. Darker had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Sire!

YOUR Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and, with all Humility, to offer an Address on the unhappy Difference subsisting between the Mother-Country and your Majesty's American Colonies; lamenting, as we do most sincerely, the Loss of our-Countrymen, who have already fallen a Sacrifice in Defence of Measures extorted from the Parent-State by the obstinate Delusion of those People, who, from their first Settlement on the Continent of America, have uniformly experienced Protection, Encouragement, and Defence, at the Expence of Millions, and with the repeated Effusions of human Blood.

We have not been inattentive to the late Parliamentary Deliberations respecting the Colonies; and whilst we view, with full Approbation, the Conduct of our Representatives given in and to those truly respectable Majorities, fully informed and competent to decide upon Questions so important; it is Matter of Wonder to us, that any Part of our Fellow-Subjects, however small, should so far be seduced by Prejudice and Faction, as to afford, even in the most distant Manner, Countenance to a People, declared, on the firmest Ground, to be in a State of Rebellion.

Your Majesty's Clemency and Justice we are fully impressed with; and do not entertain a Doubt, but that the Colonists will receive those Terms, whenever a proper Opportunity occurs, that may be consistent with the Dignity and Welfare of the Mother-Country to offer, and such as may be accepted with Security and Advantage by those who have shewn a Disposition to oppose, with the utmost Violence, the Legislative Power of Great Britain; but we cannot refrain from expressing our Wishes, that if their present Contumacy should continue, your Majesty may adopt such Measures as will convince them, "that the Sword is not borne in vain," and that Inclination, not Means, has hitherto been wanting to ensure that Attachment and Obedience to this Country, which might reasonably have been expected as the fair Result of Gratitude and Interest. To accomplish this necessary End, and in Defence of our happy Constitution, your Majesty may at all Times be assured of our best Assistance.

Given under our Common Seal this Eighth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy five.

Samuel Oliver, Mayor.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of Liverpoole in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Dartmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of Liverpoole in the County Palatine of Lancaster, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

TRULY sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy in common with the rest of your People under your Majesty's mild Administration and paternal Care, We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach the Throne with all due Respect to your Royal Person, the most steady Attachment to the Protestant Succession, and the firmest Zeal for our glorious Constitution, to testify our warmest Commendations of the Wisdom and Stability of your Majesty's Councils, which have been directed to allay and put an End to the unhappy Differences subsisting between Great Britain and her Colonies.

It is with the greatest Concern we reflect, that the Measures hitherto pursued to bring our Fellow Subjects in America to a true Sense of their Duty and indeed, have not, as yet, had the desired Effect; but we ardently hope that they will very soon be sensible of their Error, and return to a due Acknowledgment of the Power of the British Legislature; that the Joys of Peace and Tranquillity may be restored, and the Hearts of all your Majesty's Subjects be reunited in the strictest Bonds of mutual Confidence and Affection.

We cannot, however, avoid expressing our Abhorrence and Detestation of all traitorous and rebellious Disturbers of your Majesty's Peace and Government, and assuring your Majesty, that we shall ever be ready and willing to exert our utmost Endeavours for the Discouragement of all such illegal Proceedings. And we pray, that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of all your Subjects, and that the Crown of these Realms may descend to your latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal the Eleventh Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

 or to Mr. Collard, aforesaid. And as the Widow intends carrying on the Business, she begs Leave to acquaint the Friends and Customers of her late Husband, that she hopes to be honoured with a Continuation of their Favours, and which will be gratefully acknowledged.

Tull, August 14, 1775.

Whereas Peter Thornton, formerly of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, Dry-dier and Druggist, who died about forty Years ago, is supposed to have had indebted to several Persons in Trade, in London, to the Amount of 500 l.
 but to whom by Name, or in what Sums, is not now known, and the Heir at Law of the said Peter Thornton being desirous that his Debts should be fully paid and satisfied; Notice is hereby given to all such Creditors of the said Peter Thornton, that if they will send a particular Account of their respective Demands to Mr. Smith, Attorney, in 22, within six Months from the Date hereof, the same will be forthwith afterwards discharged.

 ral Order of Transfer of the High Court of Chancery, before William Waller Rogers, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in St. James's-Inn, Chancery-lane, London, on Tuesday the 28th Day of October next, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve o'Clock in the Forenoon,
 A large, elegant, and well-built Dwelling-house, with the Garden, Coach-houses, Stables, and Out-houses thereto belonging, situate on the South Side of Grosvenor-street in the Parish of St. George Hanover-square in the County of Middlesex, late in the Occupation of the Russian Ambassador, but now untenanted. The Premises are built in the most substantial Manner; and are held by Lease for a Term of Eighty Years, of which there were 26 Years unexpired at Lady-day last, subject to a Ground-rent of 15 l. per Annum.

Whereas Patrick Nevil, a Native of the City of Waterford in the Kingdom of Ireland, embarked from thence some Time in the Year 1753, being then between 62 and 63
 Years of Age; since which no satisfactory Account has been received of his being alive or dead, though published several Times in the London Gazette in the Year 1764; but, by the last Accounts his only surviving Sister Mary Nevil Murphy, a Resident in Waterford aforesaid, received, it appears, that the said Patrick Nevil died at Jamaica in the year 1759, as certified by one Captain Andrew Harney, a Dublin Trader.
 He was about five Feet 10 Inches high, somewhat gross, smooth faced, much swarthy, occasioned by the Jaundice and a pirajitic Disorder in his Head, with which he was very much afflicted. Any Person that can give a proper and true Account of his Death without lawful Issue, shall receive as a Reward the Sum of 10 l. Sterling; and a Reward of 20 l.
 Sterling will also be paid to any Person who can give a clear and satisfactory Account of his being living, and where he may be heard of, upon Information of which, the above Sums will be immediately paid by the following Gentlemen:

- Bartholomew Valois, Esq; Cadiz.
