St. James's, September 30.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Town and County of Poole has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Eyre Coote, Knight of the Bath, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants, of your Town and County of Poole, most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Royal Authority, and with thankful Hearts to acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care and Vigilance for the Honour of this Nation, and the general Good of your Subjects.

Convinced as we are that nothing has been wanting on your Majesty's Part to accelerate and promote these great and glorious Ends, permit us, Royal Sir, to express how deeply we are affected and concerned to find, that our Fellow-Subjects in America still hold out an obstinate Resistance to the Legislative Authority of this Kingdom; but nevertheless we hope, that the Time is not far off, when these unhappy and deluded People may be brought to a Sense of their Duty, and Obedience to the Laws of their Parent State: And it is our most ardent Wish, that it may be the Work of your Majesty's Justice to accomplish that great Purpose.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to assure you, that we are steadfast in our Allegiance, unalterable in our Loyalty, unanimous in the Defence of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government; and that we will cheerfully devote the utmost Exertion of our Abilities to crush all impious Attempts, either foreign or domestic, to subvert our present happy Constitution.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders, of the Town of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster, having been transmitted to the Earl of Dartmouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Traders, of the Town of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster, humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty the Address of a faithful and loyal People, to testify our firm and warm Attachment to your Majesty's illustrious Family, the Honor of your Crown, and the Dignity of your Empire.—We esteem it particularly our Duty, at this Time, to declare to the World our Affection to your Royal Person, and our Detestation of the open and daring Contempt shewn to the legal Authority and constitutional Powers of these Realms by some of your Majesty's deluded and rebellious Subjects in America.

Firmly persuaded, that every Part of your wide-extended Colonies is and ought to be subject to the Legislative Power of Great Britain, it is with the most affecting Concern that we reflect on Civil Discord, and the Effusion of Blood, shed by the Hands of British Subjects against each other; and we do most sincerely hope, for the Glory of your Reign, and the Welfare of all your People, that, when the present Phrensy of your Colonists shall subside, a happy Reconciliation may take Place; yet we cannot, without the utmost Abhorrence, look upon the Hand of Parricide lifted up against the Parent Country, it's most kind and generous Protector.—As your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects of Liverpoole have always been ready, on every the most trying Occasion, to testify their sincere and unalterable Allegiance to your Royal House, so are we also equally ready now to exert our best Abilities towards the Crushing every Rebellion, and silencing all Disaffection, that may be harboured in the Breasts of seditious and ill-designing Men, who, under the specious Mask of Liberty, attempt to deceive and seduce the Minds of your faithful Subjects. We are justly and sensibly thankful for the real Enjoyment of that inestimable Blessing,

Blessing in it's most pure and rational Form, under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty.—Deeply impressed with these Sentiments of Gratitude, and the innumerable Advantages we reap from our happy Constitution, under your Majesty's paternal Care, we, with all due Respect, present this our Tribute of Allegiance and Fidelity to the best of Princes; and that the Crown of these Realms may for ever flourish upon you, Sire, and your Royal Posterity, is the earnest Prayer of us your most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the City of Coventry, has been presented to His Majesty by Walter Waring, Esq; and Edward Roe Yeo, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Coventry, September 25, 1775.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IT is with the deepest Concern we have for some Time observed the Progress of those pernicious Principles which the Patrons of Sedition have been industriously insinuating into the Minds of your Majesty's deluded Subjects, and which have at length produced an actual Rebellion among the unhappy Colonists in America; a Rebellion the most atrocious, because altogether unprovoked; the most unnatural, because excited and fomented by the false Representations and Encouragement of a desperate domestic Faction.

At such an alarming Crisis, Silence, in the true Friends to their Country, would be utterly inexcusable; not to condemn the Guilty, were, in some Sort, to partake in their Iniquity: Whilst therefore we deplore this Error in our Fellow-Subjects, we cannot forbear to remark, how very inattentive those Persons must needs be to the Welfare of the Community, who can wantonly interrupt the Public Repose by raising Tumults and Insurrections, from no other Motive, and with no better View, than to promote the Schemes of pretended Patriotism, or to footh the Malice of disappointed Ambition.

It might indeed, and with the greatest Reason, have been expected, that the singular Prudence and Moderation, with which your Majesty hath ever held the Reins of Government, would have effectually composed every Animosity among your People, and secured a general Acquiescence in a Conduct so irreproachable. It might have been hoped too, that the Ministry you have so judiciously made Choice of, and who, on the late trying Occasions, have acquitted themselves with the most consummate Discretion, should not have experienced so base and ungrateful a Return. The continued Series of Ill-Treatment, which your Majesty, the more immediate Officers of the Crown, and the great Council of the Nation, have met with at the Hands of these nominal Guardians of our Rights and Liberties, we

sincerely

Sincerely lament; and it is our earnest Request, that this Testimony of our Abhorrence of such scandalous and unjustifiable Behaviour may stand recorded to the latest Posterity. Renouncing therefore, thus openly, all Fellowship with the Men of this Complotion, permit us, Sire, with all Humility, to approach your Throne with our most faithful Assurances of an unalienable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and of our most hearty Concurrence in the Prosecution of such Measures, as, in your Royal Wisdom, you shall think proper to adopt, for the Suppression of the present outrageous Commotions Abroad, for the Restoration of Peace and good Order at Home, for the Maintaining a due Regard to the Authority of the Legislature, and for the Support of our admirable Constitution, both in Church and State.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by John Rolle Walter, Esq; and Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter in Chamber assembled, beg Leave to pay our humble Duty to Your Majesty, and to express our Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under Your Majesty's Government.

Convinced, as we are, of Your Majesty's unwearied and impartial Attention to the true Interests of all Your Subjects, we cannot but behold with infinite Concern, the unhappy Differences, which subsist between this Country and many of Your Majesty's Colonies in North America; where a most unjustifiable Resistance hath been made to Your Majesty's Arms, in open Defiance of the Legislative Authority of Great Britain.

We had our Hopes, that this misguided People might ere now have been reduced to a proper Sense of that Duty and Obedience, by which alone they can be connected with this Country. In what Manner this great Object is further to be pursued, is a Question, on which we presume not to express our Sentiments; but relying with Confidence on the Wisdom, Justice, and Prudence of Your Majesty's Counsels, we doubt not but Your Majesty, zealous of the Honour of Your Crown, and deeply interested in the Welfare of all Your People, will act with Firmness, and adopt such Measures, as may most effectually tend to the Establishment of Peace, consistent with the Support of that general Principle, on which the declaratory Act is founded.

Far be it from us, however, to circumscribe the Bounty of Government; may every constitutional; every favourable Indulgence be extended towards them: We are anxious that Your Majesty's Subjects should be all heartily and sincerely united in that dutiful Obedience to Your Majesty and the Legislature lature of Great Britain, which constitutes the true Strength of this great Empire.

That a just and perfect Reconciliation may soon take Place is our most ardent Wish: But should the unhappy Contest be further prolonged, and America still contending for Independence, obstinately continue to reject all reasonable Offers of Accommodation, we conceive they will one Day feel the Loss they have sustained, when, from having been deluded by their seditious Leaders, they shall become a Prey to their Armies and their own intestine Animosities, and shall then find by sad Experience, that Peace and Happiness, and Liberty, are only to be secured to them, by the protecting Power of this Country.

That Your Majesty may long reign over a loyal, happy, and united People, is our most earnest and constant Prayer.

Given under of our Common Seal, this 25th Day of September 1775.

At the Court at St. James's, the 27th Day of September, 1775,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 23d Day of August last, to prohibit the Exportation out of this Kingdom into any Parts beyond the Seas, or Carrying Coastwise, any Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of the said Order: And whereas His Majesty judges it necessary that the Exportation of Saltpetre, or Carrying the same Coastwise, should be likewise prohibited during the said Time; — His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Term limited by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 23d of August last, presume to transport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Saltpetre, or ship or lade any Saltpetre on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the Forfeiture and Penalty inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the Carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell,

Dublin Castle, September 22.

This Day being the Anniversary of Their Majesties Coronation, in the Morning the Flag was hoisted on Bedford Tower: At Noon the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired three Rounds, and answered by

By the KING'S PATENT,
HORSE-BALLS,

Prepared and Sold by W. RADLEY, Luggish and Cnemist, at N^o 27, near Gray's-Inn-Gate, Holborn. Purging-Balls 2s. each Parcel, containing three Doses, which in a small Compass contain all the essential Qualities of a stomachic Purge; they do not cloy a Horse's Stomach, as most other Purges do, but, without the least Gripping, scour a Horse well, and make him stale plentifully.

The Virtues of the other are too long to enumerate here. A little Attention to the Care of Horses, and a few Medicines seasonably applied, will prevent or remove the most obstinate Coughs, Grease, Worms, Disturbances of the Eyes, &c. which Horses are subject to, and when neglected are attended with bad Consequences; a more particular Description of which will be given to any Person who will take the Trouble of sending to the above Shop. Horse Medicine Chests complete 5l. 5s.
