The following Adrefs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgefles, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been prefented to His Majesty by the Honourable Robert Fulke Greville, One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgefles, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Warwick, unbiafled by Party, unawed by Faction, and not blinded by falfe Patriotifm, but actuated by a dutiful and fincere Regard for your Majesty's Perfon, arifing from the cleareft Conviction of your Majesty's earneft Wifhes and Endeavours to promote the Prosperity of Great Britain, humbly preſume to adrefs your Majesty, with Hearts replete with Gratitude for the innumerable Bleffings, which, through Providence, and the Wiſdom and Mildnefs of your Majesty's Government, we now enjoy.

It is with the utmoſt Concern we fee the Acts of the Britiſh Legiſlature contemned and oppoſed by many of your Majesty's Subjects in North America, through the Incitement and Miſrepresentation of artful, deſigning, and ſeditious Men, both at Home and Abroad; who, under the ſpecious Pretext of preſerving the Liberty of the People, are aiming at a total Subverſion of all Law and good Government, and conſequently introducing the worſt of Tyrannies.

And we cannot but ſincerely lament, that they have ſo far ſucceeded, under the Cloak of Mock-

Patriotiſm, as to incite Numbers of your Majesty's American Subjects to be guilty of open Rebellion.

We therefore think we ſhould but ill deſerve the Appellation of Engliſhmen, if we refrained from declaring to our Sovereign, and to the World, our utter Abhorrence of the Authors and Abettors of ſuch outrageous and traitorous Proceedings.

And, at this alarming Criſis, we conſider ourſelves obliged, as loyal Subjects, and real Friends to the true Intereſt of Great Britain and it's inſeſtimable Conſtitution, to aſſure your Majesty, that, as the lenient Treatment of your Majesty's infatuated and miſled Subjects in America has been inſufficient to induce and prevail on them to return to their Reaſon and Allegiance, we apprehend compulſory and effectual Methods are not only juſtifiable in Law and Conſcience, but abſolutely expedient to be exerted with Vigour and Reſolution.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majesty, that we will, with Alacrity and Spirit, ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſuch Meaſures as your Majesty ſhall think proper to purſue, for enforcing and maintaining Obedience to the Laws in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions; entirely conſiding in your Majesty's Goodneſs, becauſe we are fully ſatiſfied, that, upon this important Occaſion, every Plan which your Majesty ſhall adopt will be ſo judiciously concerted and wiſely directed, that it will preſerve the Freedom of the Conſtitution inviolate, and advance the Honour and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the Borough of Warwick, this Twenty-eighth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.
