St. James's, October 24.

THE following Address of the Justices assigned to keep the Peace, and of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Liberty of the Tower of London, and Precincts thereof, has been presented to His Majesty by Robert Pell, David Wilmot, John Spiller, Thomas Tryon Cotton, and Richard Rutson, Esquires, and the Reverend Dr. Mayo, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices assigned to keep the Peace, and of the Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Principal Inhabitants of the Liberty of the Tower of London, and Precincts thereof.

DEEPLY impressed with a due Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects think it our indispensable Duty, at this alarming Crisis, to declare our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion in America, excited, encouraged, and supported by the Advice and Assistance of a few disappointed seditious Persons at Home.

We feel exceedingly for the Distresses of our deluded Brethren, and lament the Situation into which their own Obstinacy and unjust Spirit of Independency have brought them, under the false Colour of opposing the Right of British Taxation; attempting, at the same Time, to captivate your Royal Mind by setting up Charters granted by the Crown, as superior in Operation and Effect to those wise and wholesome Laws enacted by the British Legislature for the Good of all your Majesty's Subjects Abroad and at Home.

It is with the greatest Respect and Gratitude we observe your Majesty (instead of countenancing arbitrary Government) resting the valuable Privileges of Britons on their natural and proper Basis, viz. King, Lords, and Commons.

May therefore that Period soon arrive, when the Leaders and Abettors of this most unnatural Rebellion shall be brought to Shame and Punishment, and due Subordination and Respect be paid to the British Laws: To accomplish which desirable Ends, to restore Peace and Happiness, and to promote every other Constitutional Purpose, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and maintain, with our Lives and Properties, the Authority of the British Legislature over the whole Empire, against all Invaders of our Glorious Constitution.

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Anne Poulett, One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater in the County of Somerset, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with Hearts full of Allegiance, Loyalty, and Fidelity.

Truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, uniformly regulated by the Laws of this Country, by which our Constitutional Rights are preserved and secured, we cannot, without the deepest Concern, behold the many inflammatory Methods used to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, to seduce them from their Duty, and even to countenance and abet the most ungrateful and daring Rebellion in America.

We therefore think it greatly incumbent on us to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of such flagitious Attempts; and to humbly beg your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of our most faithful Assurances to support your Majesty, and the Legislative Authority of this Kingdom, to the utmost of our Power.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Nottingham, having been transmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

TRULY sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne to express our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Faction and Rebellion, which has broken out, and still exists in some of the Colonies in America. However their Behaviour may be cloaked under the specious Pretence of Liberty, yet it is not difficult to discover, that the Term is only prostituted to the vilest and most unwarrantable Purposes. The daring Insults shewn to your Majesty's Person and Government, we have seen with a Mixture of Indignation and Contempt, and could not help lamenting the Licentiousness of the Times, and the too fashionable Mode, now adopted by many, of reproaching the most Sacred Characters. We feel the Necessity your Majesty was under in taking the Part you did in this Crisis of Affairs in America, as it was impossible for your Majesty not to foresee, that unless Government be supported with Firmness and Fortitude, Confusion and Disorder must inevitably ensue.

Though we are sorry to give the most distant Hint, that any of the Subjects in this Kingdom can have been disaffected to your Majesty, yet we cannot so far disguise our Opinion as not to say, that we believe, had not the Flames of Sedition been blown up by turbulent and dissatisfied Minds, the Disputes, now subsisting between the Mother-Country and her Colonies, had long since been accommodated.

The Association forming in the Metropolis is a Confirmation of our Opinion; but we have the Satisfaction to hope, that your Majesty's loyal Subjects will convince these few mistaken Men, that their Attempts to sow the Seeds of Discord amongst us will prove as impotent as they are wicked; and that their Design will be too glaring to escape the Notice, and their Aim too detestable not to excite the honest Indignation of the Publick. In this Situation, whom have we to look up unto but your Majesty, who is at once the Guardian of the Rights, and the Avenger of the Injuries of our Country? It becomes therefore our Duty to implore your Majesty's Protection, and to offer you every Assistance in our Power.

As Clemency and Mercy are the Criterion of a noble Mind, it will be impossible for your Majesty not to exercise them, whenever proper Concessions may be made from America; but till then, relying on the Wisdom of your Majesty, and your Council, we trust you will take such Measures as may effectually bring back the Colonists to a Sense of their Duty, and at the same Time convince them, that, when the Honour and Dignity of the Crown demand Obedience, your Majesty will not bear the Sword in vain.
