The following Address of the Boroughs of Dunfermline, Inverkeithing, and Culrofs, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant-Colonel Archibald Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Boroughs of Dunfermline, Inverkeithing, and Culrofs.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, presume to approach your Throne with the deepest and most grateful Sense of the manifold Blessings which, under the Dispensation of Divine Providence, we have happily enjoyed during the Course of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

It is with equal Sorrow and Surprise, that we find ourselves called upon to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of those rebellious Violences, into which some of your Majesty's Subjects on the Continent of America, have been unhappily deluded, and, to such a Degree, as to manifest a Desire of shaking off all Dependence upon that Legislature, which they have so often petitioned in Time of Distress, by which they were so frequently, and so effectually relieved, and by whose Favor, and under whose Protection, their Prosperity and Opulence have been carried to so great a Height.

It is the sincere and ardent Wish of these your ancient and faithful Boroughs, that Peace and good Order in that Part of your Empire may be speedily and happily re-established by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and by the Success of your Arms in Support of your Crown and Dignity, and the Authority of the British Legislature. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready, from every Principle of Loyalty and Attachment, to contribute cheerfully thereto, by the utmost Exertions in our Power.

May it please your Majesty,

We are,

Your Majesty's

Most dutiful and loyal Subjects,

Signed by Order, and in the Name of our respective Councils,

John Kirk, Chief Magistrate of Dunfermline.

Arch. Campbell, Chief Magistrate of Inverkeithing.

James Johnston, Chief Magistrate of Culrofs.

Dunfermline, October, 1775.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Borough of Peebles, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Cockburn, Bart. Representative in Parliament for Peebles, Lanerk, Linlithgow, and Selkirk, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Peebles, in Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, and with Hearts full of Gratitude, express the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's wise, mild, and auspicious Government.

It is with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation we see a Rebellion carried on in some of your Majesty's Colonies, instigated and promoted by a seditious and evil-minded Faction at home.

With the greatest Respect and Fidelity we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will be ready, at all Times, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majesty's Person and Family; support your Government, and the Legislative Authority of these Realms, against all deluded and seditious Subjects, at Home or Abroad.

That a Continuance of the wise and prudent Measures hitherto adopted, with respect to America, may soon reduce these insatuated People to their Duty: That Sedition may be extirpated these Realms; and, that your Majesty may long reign over a free and united People, are the sincere Prayers of,

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment, and the Town's Seal affixed, at Peebles, the twenty-fourth Day of October, 1775.

Wm. Kerr, Provost.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Linlithgow, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Augustus Cunynghame, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Linlithgow, most humbly beg Leave to lament the unhappy Disturbances occasioned by the Rebellion raised by some of your Majesty's Subjects in America; to declare our Detestation and Abhorrence of these and all other Attempts against your Government; our entire Confidence in such Measures as to your Majesty's Wisdom and that of your Parliament shall appear most prudent to quell the Insurgents, restore Peace to your Dominions, and to maintain the necessary Constitutional Dependence of all your Colonies on the Mother Country; and that we are ready cheerfully to contribute all in our Power to these desirable Ends.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person, Family, and Government; and to offer our Prayers for the long Continuance of your auspicious Reign, under which, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, we enjoy every Advantage derivable from our happy Constitution.

In Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting,
 ROSEBERY.

Linlithgow, October 19, 1775.
