St. James's, November 7.

THE following Address of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Militia of Devonshire, having been transmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonshire Militia.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonshire Militia, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Duty and Allegiance.

With Sorrow and Concern we saw the first Sparks of Diffension arise between Great Britain and her dependent Colonies; with the greatest, with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, we now not only see these Sparks break out into the fiercest Flames of Anarchy and Rebellion, but to our Surprise and Astonishment, we behold those Flames supplied with fresh Fuel, and the enkindled Blaze fomented by many self-interested, discontented, and ill-disposed Persons, even in this Kingdom, who justify and approve the daring rebellious Measures of the Colonies, against the Legislative Authority of this Country.

At this alarming Crisis, both as faithful Subjects, and as Soldiers most firmly attached to your Majesty's most illustrious Family and the happy Constitution of our Country, we think it our indispensable Duty to assure our most Gracious Sovereign, in the most solemn Manner, that we are resolved and ready, as far as the Laws of this Realm will admit, to stand by your Majesty against all rebellious Attempts whatsoever; to defend your Sacred Person, and to support our present Constitution, at the Hazard of our Lives, and at the Expense of our Fortunes.

Dated at our Meeting at Bideford, in the said County of Devon, the Twenty-first Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

of their Duty. For which Purpose we, amidst the rest of our loyal Fellow-Subjects, do hereby make a Tender of our faithful Services to your Majesty.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council assembled, under no Influence but the Dictates of our own Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to declare our Abhorrence of the Rebellion in your American Colonies, excited by designing Men, and, we are sorry to add, encouraged by too many at Home, against their most indulgent Sovereign and the Supreme Legislature of the British Empire; under whose Protection our Liberties, both Religious and Civil, have long been uninterruptedly enjoyed, and can only in future subsist.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for these Blessings, we are ready on every Occasion to assist your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, in subjecting your rebellious Subjects to the Obedience they owe their lawful Sovereign, and both Houses of Parliament; and we pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty, and direct your Councils to maintain our happy Constitution, and defeat the traitorous Machinations of all your Enemies, Foreign and Domestic, designed against your Sacred Person and Government.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the First of November, 1775, by Alexander Simson, Provost.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, assembled at Dundee this 25th of October 1775:

May it please your Majesty,

Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we see, with the deepest Concern, that a Part of our Fellow-Subjects in America, having adopted Principles subversive of all legal Government

Government and Subordination, are now in a State of actual Hostility and Rebellion.

At such a Period we consider ourselves as called on, with the rest of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, publicly to declare our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, our Abhorrence of every Measure that may prove prejudicial to them, and our Desire of contributing to undeceive a People misled by the Hopes of finding in their Mother-Country that same licentious Spirit, which prevails among themselves.

To this Testimony of our own unshaken Loyalty and Affection, it gives us Pleasure to add, that the same Principles prevail among the People under our Care; who, as well as we, look with Astonishment on those factious Men in Great Britain, who, to gratify their own Ambition, are ready to sacrifice the Interests of their Country, and the Lives of their Fellow-Subjects.

It is our earnest Prayer to the great Disposer of all Events, that the Authority of the British Legislature may be acknowledged and obeyed throughout all the Parts of your Majesty's Dominions; and that Means may happily be devised for obtaining that End without the further Effusion of human Blood, which, as Men and Ministers of the Gospel of Peace, we wish to be avoided: But if, to our great Regret, lenient Measures should unhappily prove ineffectual, and only tend to foment the Disorders which they are meant to remedy, we will most cordially pray for Success to such Expedients as the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils shall find necessary to employ.

That Almighty God may pour down his best Blessings on your Majesty's Person and Family; that He may long preserve your Majesty to be the Guardian of our Religious and Civil Liberties, as presently established by Law, and to reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People; and may, at a distant Period, crown you with immortal Glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord, are, and ever shall be the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most Faithful,

most Obedient,

and most Loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders assembled in this Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns.

Signed in our Name, and at our Appointment, by James Adamson, Moderator.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, incorporated Trades, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Dundee, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, incorporated Trades, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Dundee, highly sensible of the Happiness of our Situation under your mild and most gracious Government, beg Leave, in the most respectful Manner, to address your Majesty with the utmost Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy. Zealous for the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution, it is with Pleasure and Admiration we review the Wisdom of your Councils, ever since your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

Sensible that your Majesty's Goodness reached the remotest Corner of this extended Empire, it raised our Indignation and Surprise when first we heard of the ungrateful Conduct of many of your American Subjects; we never could have thought that they so soon would have forgot the Hand that saved them; or that they so lately, at the Expence of much Blood and Treasure, freed from the Insults of a Foreign Power, and blessed with British Freedom, would have dared to raise the Standard of Rebellion against your Government.

We would still fondly hope that they would yet return to their Duty, and spare the further Effusion of Blood.—But should they still continue in their Obstinacy, we hope more vigorous Methods will be adopted and continued, until they shall appear sensible of their Crimes; content with their just Rights, and atone for their Offences, by their Submission to the Laws of this Kingdom.

While we disapprove of the rebellious Conduct of your Majesty's Subjects in America, we are sorry to think, that even some of our own Countrymen, by their Practices, rather appear the Aiders and Abettors of their Treason. These, notwithstanding their specious Pretences, we consider as the Enemies of their Country, and view their Endeavours to raise Disturbances amongst us with Abhorrence.

It is with Pleasure we can assure your Majesty, that our Trade hath as yet suffered nothing by the American Ports being shut against us.

We are happy under your Majesty's Reign, and will most cheerfully, to the utmost of our Power, exert ourselves upon all Occasions to support the Dignity of the Crown, and the true Interests of Great Britain.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Orders in Council of the 23d of August and the 27th of September last, to direct that no Person or Persons whatsoever should at any Time, during the respective Terms therein mentioned, presume to transport out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, (except the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council. And whereas it has been represented to this Board, that it will tend greatly to the Advantage of Trade for a General Order in Council to be issued, to permit and allow Saltpetre and Gunpowder to be carried Coastwise in small Quantities, under certain Restrictions, to be prescribed by the said Order;—His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, that Saltpetre and Gunpowder be permitted to be carried Coastwise to and from any of the Ports of this Kingdom, notwithstanding His Majesty's aforementioned Orders in Council of the 23d of August and 27th of September last; provided, that no greater Quantity of Saltpetre and Gunpowder be shipped, laden, or carried Coastwise at any one Time, in any one Ship or Vessel, than One Ton of Saltpetre and Fifty Barrels of Gunpowder, except such as shall be shipped, laden, or carried Coastwise by Direction of the Master-General, Lieutenant-General, and Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service; and also except such as shall obtain Leave or Permission in that Behalf from His Majesty or His Privy Council; and provided also, that sufficient Security be first given to the proper Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in Treble the Value of the Saltpetre and Gunpowder desired to be sent Coastwise, to carry the same to the Places proposed, and none other; and that a Certificate or Certificates be produced, within One Month from the Date of the Bond, from the proper Officers of the Customs at the Ports for which the respective Quantities of Saltpetre and Gunpowder shall be shipped, of the same having been duly landed at such Ports; in Failure of which the Bonds to be immediately put in Suit: Which Certificate or Certificates the Commissioners of the Customs are hereby required to transmit to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in order to be laid before this Board. Aleppo, August 31. Letters from Bagdat, of the 14th Instant, mention, that the Garrison of Bussarah was numerous, in good Spirits, and had Provisions for some Months; and that the Muscat Fleet, consisting of about 150 Sail great and small, was coming to their Assistance, and daily expected: Preparations were likewise making at Bagdat to succour Bussarah.

Constantinople, September 18. The Grand Seigneur has sent a Present of a valuable Fur, and Sabre, ornamented with Diamonds, to the Captain Pascha, who sent hither the Head of the Rebel Scheck Daher.

Moscow, September 25. Yesterday in the Evening her Imperial Majesty, attended by the Marshals Romanzow and Rosanowsky, and Count Ivan Czernishev, set out on a Pilgrimage to the Convent of Voskresenskoy, where her Majesty proposes to stay till Tomorrow Morning, when she intends to proceed from thence to Jaropolitz, a Seat of Marshal Czernishev, and to honour him with her Company during that and the following Day, and to return to this Place on Thursday Evening or Friday Morning. Though the Great Duke is so well recovered from his Indisposition as to have been able to appear at Court Yesterday; yet his Health is not sufficiently re-established to admit of his accompanying the Empress, and he remains in Town with the Great Dutchess.

Moscow, October 5. On Sunday last, being the Great Duke's Birth-Day, there was a very brilliant Court both Morning and Evening, but her Imperial Majesty, being indisposed, did not appear; and her Indisposition continuing prevented her likewise from appearing on Tuesday, the Anniversary of her Coronation. The Empress, however, is now so well recovered as to propose setting out on Sunday next on an Excursion to Columna, in order to take the Benefit of the present fine Weather. During her Imperial Majesty's Absence the Great Duke and Dutchess intend honouring Count Zachar Czernishev with a Visit at Jaropolitz.

Escorial, October 9. The Court is arrived here from St. Ildephonso. The Princess of Asturias is now so well as to dine in publick as usual. The excessive Rains, which have lately fallen at Madrid, have done much Mischief; and so great a Quantity of Snow has lately fallen, as to render the Roads across the Mountain almost impassable.

Vienna, October 11. The Vintage, which is now begun every where, is likely to prove one of the richest, both in Quantity and Quality, that is remembered in the Course of this Century.

Vienna, October 14. The Nobility and Foreign Ministers were admitted last Night to the Honour of taking Leave of the Archduke and Archdutchess of Milan, whose Departure from hence is fixed for the 17th Instant.

Vienna, October 18. Their Royal Highnesses the Archduke Ferdinand and the Archdutchess set out early Yesterday Morning, on their Return to Italy. They intend going by the Way of Trieste and Venice, and will probably not arrive at Milan before the Middle of next Month.

Bonn, October 26. This has been such a Year of Plenty as has not been known in the Memory of Man. The Harvest of every Kind has yielded beyond Expectation; and the Vintage, in Quantity and Quality, has exceeded that of 1756. On the Moselle they were obliged to order that no Cyder should be made this Year, there not being a sufficient Number of Casks for the Wine. The Vintage has also been very plentiful on the Mayn and Rhine.

St. James's, October 27, 1775.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the 30th Day of September last, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock at Night, William Oswall, Peter Crossthwaite, and John Clark, Officers in the Service of His Majesty's Customs at Blyth in the Port of Newcastle, observing a Boat coming up the River, put off in the King's Boat in order to examine and search the same: That being thus in the Execution of their Duty, and within Twenty Yards of the said Boat, or thereabouts, the Persons on Board fired at the Officers several Shot, one of which wounded the said Oswall on the Knee, and others went through the Boat: That the said Persons pursuing them, and continuing their Fire, the Officers thought themselves obliged, for the Preservation of their Lives, to run the Boat on Shore to quit her and make their Retreat: That the said Persons afterwards feloniously took and carried away the said Boat, with her Tackle and Furniture.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so daring and dangerous gerous an Offence, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to the Person making such Discovery; to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
