St. James's, November 7.

THE following Address of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Militia of Devonshire, having been transmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonshire Militia.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Officers of the Northern Regiment of the Devonshire Militia, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to assure your Majesty of our unfeigned Duty and Allegiance.

With Sorrow and Concern we saw the first Sparks of Diffension arise between Great Britain and her dependent Colonies; with the greatest, with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, we now not only see these Sparks break out into the fiercest Flames of Anarchy and Rebellion, but to our Surprize and Astonishment, we behold those Flames supplied with fresh Fuel, and the enkindled Blaze fomented by many self-interested, discontented, and ill-disposed Persons, even in this Kingdom, who justify and approve the daring rebellious Measures of the Colonies, against the Legislative Authority of this Country.

At this alarming Crisis, both as faithful Subjects, and as Soldiers most firmly attached to your Majesty's most illustrious Family and the happy Constitution of our Country, we think it our indispensable Duty to assure our most Gracious Sovereign, in the most solemn Manner, that we are resolved and ready, as far as the Laws of this Realm will admit, to stand by your Majesty against all rebellious Attempts whatsoever; to defend your Sacred Person, and to support our present Constitution, at the Hazard of our Lives, and at the Expence of our Fortunes.

Dated at our Meeting at Bideford, in the said County of Devon, the Twenty-first Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston in the County of Cornwall, having been transmitted to the Earl of Rochford, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston in the County of Cornwall, most humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, and, uninfluenced by any other Motives than those of Duty and Loyalty to our Sovereign, to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion, which some of your Majesty's Provinces in North America have lately entered into, fomented by the Arts of evil and designing Men: And to testify to your Majesty our entire Approbation of, and Confidence in, those Measures which are pursuing for bringing these deluded People to a Return of their Duty. For which Purpose we, amidst the rest of our loyal Fellow-Subjects, do hereby make a Tender of our faithful Services to your Majesty.

Given under our Hands and the Common Seal of the said Borough, this Twenty-eighth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Royal Burrow of Perth, in Common Council assembled, under no Influence but the Dictates of our own Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to declare our Abhorrence of the Rebellion in your American Colonies, excited by designing Men, and, we are sorry to add, encouraged by too many at Home, against their most indulgent Sovereign and the Supreme Legislature of the British Empire; under whose Protection our Liberties, both Religious and Civil, have long been uninterruptedly enjoyed, and can only in future subsist.

With Hearts full of Gratitude for these Blessings, we are ready on every Occasion to assist your Majesty to the utmost of our Power, in subjecting your rebellious Subjects to the Obedience they owe their lawful Sovereign, and both Houses of Parliament; and we pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty, and direct your Councils to maintain our happy Constitution, and defeat the traitorous Machinations of all your Enemies, Foreign and Domestic, designed against your Sacred Person and Government.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the First of November, 1775.

Alexander Simson, Provost.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Angus and Mearns, assembled at Dundee this 25th of October 1775:

May it please your Majesty,
Sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we see, with the deepest Concern, that a Part of our Fellow-Subjects in America, having adopted Principles subversive of all legal Government
