St. James's, November 11.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Grosvenor, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, (seeing with deep Concern, that those conciliatory Measures tendered by your Majesty's Benignity, with the Approbation of the Great Council of the Nation in the last Session of Parliament, to your rebellious Colonies in America, have not only failed to bring them back to their Duty, and to acknowledge the Supreme Power of the British Parliament over them, but that, encouraged by the daily Publications of factious Subjects at Home in their Favour, they have denied that Power, and made such warlike Preparations to resist all Attempts to enforce it, as plainly shew they aim at Independency, and to bid Defiance to that Power which first raised and hath since supported them) cannot help therefore declaring our Abhorrence of Proceedings so subversive of all Order and good Government.

We are convinced, from the experienced Clemency of your Majesty's Government, that (your Parliament being now assembled) if any other Measures than those already offered (consistent with the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown and Parliament) can even yet be suggested to heal the Wound given by the American Rebellion to the British Constitution, your Tenderness and Affection for all your Subjects will permit them to be held forth to America, to close that Scene of Blood, which, from fatal Necessity, will follow the Refusal of the American Provinces to return to their Obedience.

We entirely approve the Wisdom of Parliament, for assuring your Majesty of their firm Resolution to grant you all such Supplies as, with the Assistance of Divine Providence, may enable you to enforce that Duty and Allegiance, which mild and gracious Offers have failed to obtain; and to which we declare we will with all Cheerfulness contribute, till the Right and Authority of Great Britain over her Colonies shall be settled on a solid and lasting Basis.

Given under our Common Seal, this Second Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

Thomas Griffith, Mayor.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free-Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Colchester in the County of Essex, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Gray and Isaac Martin Rebow, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Common-Council, Free-Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Town of Colchester in the County of Essex, beg Leave to address your Majesty, on Occasion of the unhappy Disturbances in your Majesty's Colonies, which have at length broke out into actual and open Rebellion.

While we sincerely lament the fatal Effects of this unnatural Contest, we do with all Humility assure your Majesty, that we are firmly resolved, on every Occasion, to pay a due Obedience to the Legislative Authority, and to support and defend your Majesty's Person and Government to the utmost of our Power.

May the Divine Providence bless your Majesty's Councils with speedy Success in defeating the Designs of all the Enemies of their Country, and in restoring Peace and good Order in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

The following Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Dumbarton, sensible of the many Blessings enjoyed by us of this Country, in common with those of your Majesty's other Dominions, during a Reign remarkable for its Moderation, feel the greatest Abhorrence of that unnatural Rebellion, which has been encouraged by some licentious and designing Persons at Home, and which now rages with savage Cruelty in your Colonies in America.

It is with the deepest Concern that we observe the Necessity to which the Parent State is reduced, of correcting these ungrateful and undutiful Children by vigorous Measures; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready, and will cheerfully do all in our Power, to vindicate and support the Dignity of your Crown and Person, and the Rights of your People, against these deluded Rebels.

Signed at Dumbarton, the Fourth Day of October 1775 Years, in Name and by Appointment of the Magistrates, Town-Council, and Incorporations of the Burgh, by

James Colclough

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew,

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, with the warmest Affection and utmost Humility, beg Leave to declare our entire Satisfaction with your Majesty's mild and just Government.

When the greatest Part of your Majesty's Colonies in America are in actual Rebellion, stirred up by some restless and seditious Spirits among themselves, who have imposed on the People, and under the Pretence of Liberty have in a Manner abolished all Liberty and lawful Government; and while they are unnaturally aided and abetted by a disappointed Faction at Home, we think it our Duty to declare our Abhorrence of these Proceedings, and that we are ready to lay our Lives and Fortunes at your Majesty's Feet, to support your just Right, and the Authority of your Parliament over America.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

The following Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, and Jurats of the Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherst, Knight of the Bath, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats of your Majesty's Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, impressed with the deepest Concern to see so great a Part of our Fellow-Subjects, in your extensive Dominions of North America, so far deluded and lost to the Sense of a just and legal Dependence on your Majesty's auspicious Government, as to forego, by an unwarrantable and criminal Resistance to the Constitutional Legislative Authority of your Realm, that Prosperity and Happiness, which they, in common with your Majesty's Subjects in Europe, so fully enjoyed, humbly beg Leave to assure your Sacred Majesty, that however we may be moved by Sentiments of Humanity, to lament their Folly and Blindness, we shall ever abhor and detest such atrocious Attempts to subvert, under your auspicious Sway, the mildest and best of Governments.

The Wisdom and Justice of your Majesty's Counsels, ever since your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, have been so conspicuous, that we look forward with Confidence and well-grounded Hopes, that the same just, prudent, and vigorous Measures, which have so happily distinguished your Majesty's Reign on the most difficult Occasions, will, on this, bring the seditious and rebellious Chiefs, and their Adherents, to a peaceable and dutiful Submission; teach them, that a State of Independance is a State of Anarchy and Confusion, and therefore full of Calamities; that their own and Country's Importance and Prosperity solely depend on the Protection of Great Britain; that to leave them to themselves would be leaving them, as in the Times of ancient unsettled States, a Prey to their own Civil Broils, and the Victims of wicked and ambitious Men; that to return to their Allegiance to your Majesty, and due Submission to the Laws, is their only Happiness, and their only title to your Majesty's Clemency: May your Majesty, by their unfeigned Repentance and sincere Return to their Duty and Loyalty, soon have Occasion to exert, in their Favour, that benign Apanage of Royal Authority, and which your Majesty has at all Times so cheerfully extended to the Imprudent and Unfortunate.

But as the Attainment of that desirable End must be much accelerated by the hearty Concurrence of your faithful Subjects at home, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Measures, we deem it our indispensable Duty, in so important a Circumstance, humbly to assure your Majesty of our Fidelity and Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our Zeal, Affection, and firm Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; in Support of which, we shall ever be ready to sacrifice every Thing we hold most dear: That your Majesty may long reign over a free, dutiful, and happy People; and that your Royal Sceptre may regularly descend to your August Line, to the End of Time, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
And most faithful Subjects,

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Abhorrence of that daring Spirit of Licentiousness, so much encouraged and fomented by wicked and designing Persons, in different Parts of your Empire; hurtful to the State, and destructive of that true Constitutional Liberty, under which all good Subjects live contented and happy.—And that it is with Concern and Indignation we observe the baneful Influence of this Spirit upon many of your American Subjects, now in a State of actual Rebellion, and openly avowing a Revolt from that natural Connection and Dependance, which all the Colonies ought necessarily to have with and upon the Parent State:—A Rebellion as wicked and flagitious; as it is unprovoked and ungrateful.—We therefore humbly request your Majesty's most gracious Acceptance of this Testimony of our Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and pray, that such Measures may be pursued, by the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament, as may most speedily and effectually restore and support Obedience to the Laws, and Peace, Union and Prosperity in your Majesty's wide extended Kingdoms; over which, unimpaired by Foreign or Domestic Foe, may your Majesty, and your illustrious House, reign glorious to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Dumfries, has been presented to His Majesty by Major Robert Laurie, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Dumfries, in Quarter Session assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with earnest Assurances of our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and firm Resolution to support the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the Constitution of our Country, against all open and disguised Enemies.

We have with Indignation and Abhorrence beheld a Set of factious Men in your Majesty's American Dominions, endeavouring to set in Opposition the Executive and Legislative Part of the Constitution; and, under the Pretext of Grants derived from the one, to claim Absolution from their Allegiance due to the other. While they endeavour to assert Principles so totally subversive of sound Government by Force of Arms, we cannot look on the Profession they make of Reverence to your Majesty in any other Light than as empty Sounds; and we consider them as equally Enemies to your Majesty, the Liberty of their Fellow-Subjects, and the Peace and Tranquility of the British Empire.

Actuated by these Sentiments, we conceive it our indispensable Duty to exert every Effort to protect your Majesty's Sacred Person, to re-establish Peace, and Concord throughout the British Empire, to give Vigour and Energy to the Operation of Law, and to assert and vindicate that System of Government that has been handed down to us by our Ancestors.

In the present Crisis we must lament, that the Part of Britain in which we live is destitute of the internal Defence which a well-regulated Militia would produce; had we been possessed of such a Safeguard to your Majesty's Government and the Liberty and Tranquility of the Country, the Military Force that may be proper for our Security might have operated against the Enemies of your Majesty in every Part of your Dominions.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to disappoint the Designs of your open and secret Enemies, that you may transmit to your Posterity the British Empire undivided, and secured by that excellent Constitution by which it has hitherto been cemented, and that your Majesty's Family may continue to the End of Time, to reign over a free and happy People, is the earnest Wish of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
and devoted Subjects.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan, has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan, behold with Abhorrence the ungrateful Conduct of your Majesty's American Colonies, who are aiming to throw off their Dependence on the Mother Country.

We humbly request your Majesty's most gracious Acceptance of this Testimony of our Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and pray that such Measures may be pursued by the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament, as may most effectually restore and support Obedience to the Laws.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free and happy People, and transmit your extensive Dominions undivided to your Royal Issue to latest Posterity, is the ardent Wish of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Burrough of Annan.

The following Address of the Magistrates, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Dumfries, has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Dumfries, deeply impressed with a Sense of the Ingratitude of a Number of the Inhabitants of your Majesty's Dominions in America, both towards your Majesty and the Mother-Country, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Majesty, and utter Abhorrence and Detestation of those treasonable Seditious that have of late been raised in that Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

Persuaded as we are that those Commercial Purposes, to which your Majesty's Colonies in America owe their Original, can never be answered but by maintaining a proper Dependence of those Colonies on the Mother-Country, and vigorously asserting the Authority of the Legislature when resisted or contemned by the Colonists, nothing that is in our Power to contribute shall be wanting, to aid and assist your Majesty in following out such Measures as may be most effectual for asserting the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and the Supremacy of the British Legislature over every Part of the British Empire.

Attached as we have ever been to the Principles of the glorious Revolution, and the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious House, we cannot, without the utmost Concern, perceive any of your Majesty's Subjects acting upon Principles subversive of that Constitution, which has, since the Succession of your Majesty's Family, secured to us the most inestimable of all Blessings, Liberty and pure Religion. And as it becomes every British Subject to set Life and Fortune at nought, when these, or the Constitution by which they are secured, are attacked, should it be necessary for us to hazard both on the present Occasion, we trust that we shall not be found backward to sacrifice them, to maintain the Constitution in the same State it has been handed down to us by our Ancestors.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free and united People, and that the British Empire may be transmitted undivided to your Majesty's Royal Issue to latest Posterity, is the sincere and ardent Wish of,

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty by Goodyer St. John, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously: And he had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Knights of the Shire, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express our firm and unfeigned Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government.

We acknowledge, with the utmost Gratitude, the very many Blessings which your People have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and we behold, with an equal Degree of Concern and Abhorrence, the Repose of the State disturbed by a Part of your American Subjects, who have been led by a Spirit of Delusion and Sedition into such violent Proceedings against the Legislative Authority of this Country, as are no less repugnant to their Duty and Allegiance than subversive of their own Interest, and the general Weal of this great and extensive Empire.

We assure your Majesty that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support you in establishing and maintaining the Authority of the Legislation of this Country over every Part of the British Dominions; and we most readily wish that, by the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils and Measures, the present unnatural Rebellion may soon be suppressed, and that a permanent Tranquillity may be restored to your Majesty's People and Government.

The following Address of the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeses of the Borough of Andover, in Common Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knight of the Bath, and Benjamin Letheulliere, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive, very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

This humble Address of the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeses of the Borough of Andover, in Common Council assembled.

Mo. Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Bayliff, Steward, Approved Men, and Burgeses of your ancient Borough of Andover, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to testify the Abhorrence we have of the rebellious Revolt of many of your American Subjects, under the false Pretence of asserting Rights they never had, but, in Reality, with a Design of casting off their Allegiance to your Majesty, and their Dependence on the British Empire, of which they are an indubitable Part.

We have too much Reason to fear, that the Spirit of Disobedience, now raging in this distant Part of your Majesty's Dominions, with all the Madness of Arbitrary Riot and Cruelty, hath been worked up to its present alarming Crisis, by the artful Insinuations of some designing Leaders, who have themselves other Pursuits in View, than what their deluded Followers may perhaps as yet suspect: We trust, and do most sincerely hope, this will eventually turn out to be the Case, and that these unhappy and misguided Men will soon see the fatal Tendency of their rash Proceedings, and return to their Duty: And we are the rather inclined to hope this, as we cannot conceive, that any Number of Men here, or in America, who have felt the Blessings of your Majesty's mild and gentle Sway, can, when they come coolly to consider the Consequences, wish to exchange it for any other.

It is to your Majesty, and to the illustrious Princes of the House of Hanover, your Royal Predecessors, that we, and all your Subjects at this Time, in a great Measure owe that Enjoyment of true legal Liberty, which we believe no Nation in the World can boast of but ourselves. That the same Constitutional Liberty, which we feel, may be felt by all other your Majesty's Subjects, in all the Parts of your wide extended Empire, and that every Member of it may acknowledge the Sovereignty of Great Britain, is the incessant and most ardent Wish of our Hearts. And in order to obtain the Accomplishment of this Wish, we do assure your Majesty, that we shall most heartily concur, as far as in us lies, in supporting your Majesty in all such Measures as in your great Wisdom you shall think necessary to take, to bring back your rebellious Colonists to a Submission, in Deed as well as Words, to your Majesty's Government, and to the Legislative Power of the British Parliament.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of November, in the Sixteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Barrington and Sir Charles Hardy, Knight, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady Attachment to your Person and Family, in these Times of publick Commotion. We reflect with Gratitude on the many Blessings dispensed to us by your Majesty's Goodness, and observe with the deepest Concern the calamitous Effects of that Spirit of Discontent which prevails among your Subjects in America, and is encreased to such a Degree as to produce all the Evils of a Civil War in that Quarter of your Dominions. Arduous Questions of Government, of which we are incompetent to judge, we do not affect to decide, we leave them to your Majesty, assisted by the great Council of the Nation, in Confidence that the Powers vested in You by the Laws of your Kingdom, will ever be directed towards the Attainment of the great End of their Institution, the Good of your People. And we persuade ourselves that under the Influence of Measures, concerted with Wisdom and executed with Firmness and Moderation, the Colonists will be brought to a just Sense of their Duty, that good Order will be re-established among them, and that Peace and Harmony will take Place throughout the British Empire.

Permit us further to assure You, Sir, that we contemplate with Abhorrence every Proposition that is inconsistent with the Idea of your Majesty's perfect Security on the Throne of these Kingdoms, because we look up to your Majesty as the faithful Guardian of those Liberties which were recovered by the Revolution, have been protected by your illustrious Family, and which, we trust will be preserved entire to us and our Descendants.
