

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Burgh of Renfrew,

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Renfrew, with the warmest Affection and utmost Humility, beg Leave to declare our entire Satisfaction with your Majesty's mild and just Government.

When the greatest Part of your Majesty's Colonies in America are in actual Rebellion, stirred up by some restless and seditious Spirits among themselves, who have imposed on the People, and under the Pretence of Liberty have in a Manner abolished all Liberty and lawful Government; and while they are unnaturally aided and abetted by a disappointed Faction at Home, we think it our Duty to declare our Abhorrence of these Proceedings, and that we are ready to lay our Lives and Fortunes at your Majesty's Feet, to support your just Right, and the Authority of your Parliament over America.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Paterson, Provost.

Renfrew, October 28, 1775.

The following Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff, and Jurats of the Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherst, Knight of the Bath, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bailiff and Jurats of your Majesty's Royal Court, the Dean and Clergy, and other Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey, impressed with the deepest Concern to see so great a Part of our Fellow-Subjects, in your extensive Dominions of North America, so far deluded and lost to the Sense of a just and legal Dependence on your Majesty's auspicious Government, as to forego, by an unwarrantable and criminal Resistance to the Constitutional Legislative Authority of your Realm, that Prosperity and Happiness, which they, in common with your Majesty's Subjects in Europe, so fully enjoyed, humbly beg Leave to assure your Sacred Majesty, that however we may be moved by Sentiments of Humanity, to lament their Folly and Blindness, we shall ever abhor and detest such atrocious Attempts to subvert, under your auspicious Sway, the mildest and best of Governments.

The Wisdom and Justice of your Majesty's Counsels, ever since your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, have been so conspicuous, that we look forward with Confidence and well-grounded Hopes, that the same just, prudent, and vigorous Measures, which have so happily distinguished your Majesty's Reign on the most difficult Occasions, will, on this, bring the seditious and rebellious Chiefs, and their Adherents, to a peaceable and dutiful Submission; teach them, that a State of Independance is a State of Anarchy and Confusion, and therefore full of Calamities; that their own and Country's Importance and Prosperity solely depend on the Protection of Great Britain; that to leave them to themselves would be leaving them, as in the Times of ancient unsettled States, a Prey to their own Civil Broils, and the Victims of wicked and ambitious Men; that to return to their Allegiance to your Majesty, and due Submission to the Laws, is their only Happiness, and their only title to your Majesty's Clemency: May your Majesty, by their unfeigned Repentance and sincere Return to their Duty and Loyalty, soon have Occasion to exert, in their Favour, that benign Apanage of Royal Authority, and which your Majesty has at all Times so cheerfully extended to the Imprudent and Unfortunate.

But as the Attainment of that desirable End must be much accelerated by the hearty Concurrence of your faithful Subjects at home, to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Measures, we deem it our indispensable Duty, in so important a Circumstance, humbly to assure your Majesty of our Fidelity and Loyalty to your Majesty, and of our Zeal, Affection, and firm Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government; in Support of which, we shall ever be ready to sacrifice every Thing we hold most dear: That your Majesty may long reign over a free, dutiful, and happy People; and that your Royal Sceptre may regularly descend to your August Line, to the End of Time, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Sacred Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful
And most faithful Subjects,

Guernsey,

October 17, 1775.

Paulus Aemilius Irving, Lieut.

Gov.

Will. Le Marchant, Bailiff

Law. Fiott

Daniel de Lisle

J. Guille St. George

D. L. Marc

Charles Andros

Rich. De Beavoir

Nicholas Dobrée

Nicholas Referfon

Peter De Jettsey

Hirzel Le Marchant, King's

Procuror

Peter Coutart, King's Delegate

Comptroller

Jean Goffelin, Prevost du Roi

Joshua Goffelin, Greffier

John Moullin, Serjeant

E. Crespin, Dean

Jean Godefroy, Recteur de St.

Sauveur

Joshua Le Marchant, Chaplain

of the Island and Garrison

Iaac Vallar, Recteur de St.

Pierre du Bois

Gounon De Pradon, Recteur de

St. André

François Pepin, Ministre

J. C. Bernel, Ministre

R. Martineau, Ministre

Emeric de St. Palmas, Ministre

William Dohrée, Clerk

James De Havilland, Lieuten-

nant in the Navy

John Waugh, late Lieutenant

of the 61st Regiment

John Rivoire

Robert Porret Le Marchant

James Hubert, jun.

George Lefebvre, Colonel

John Le Mesurier, Colonel of the

Blue

John Carey, jun.

John La Scire

Peter Dobree

Thomas Smith, Captain of

Invalids

James Nairn, Lieutenant

William Reade, Lieutenant

James Adear, Lieutenant

John Jenkinson, Ensign

Thomas Carey

John Cornelius

Peter Hubert

Thomas Andros

Solomon Lauga

Peter Le Cocq

William Coutart

John Le Marchant, Lieutenant

Colonel

Thomas Le Marchant, Lieutenant Colonel of the Red.

Elisha Le Marchant

John George Harris, King's

Receiver General

William Brock

Daniel Watkins

Henry Brock

Peter Bonamy

Nicholas De Lisle

William Le Mesurier

John Bolger

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Kirkcudbright, deeply sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our Abhorrence of that daring Spirit of Licentiousness, so much encouraged and fomented by wicked and designing Persons, in different Parts of your Empire; hurtful to the State, and destructive of that true Constitutional Liberty, under which all good Subjects live contented and happy.—And that it is with Concern and Indignation we observe the baneful Influence of this Spirit upon many of your American Subjects, now in a State of actual Rebellion, and openly avowing a Revolt from that natural Connection and Dependance, which all the Colonies ought necessarily to have with and upon the Parent State:—A Rebellion as wicked and flagitious, as it is unprovoked and ungrateful.—We therefore humbly request your Majesty's most gracious Acceptance of this Testimony of our Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and pray, that such Measures may be pursued, by the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament, as may most speedily and effectually restore and support Obedience to the Laws, and Peace, Union and Prosperity in your Majesty's wide extended Kingdoms; over which, unimpaired by Foreign or Domestic Foe, may your Majesty, and your illustrious House, reign glorious to latest Posterity.

Kirkcudbright,

Sept. 25, 1775.

Matt. Buchanan, Provost.