

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Barrington and Sir Charles Hardy, Knight, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Common-Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our steady Attachment to your Person and Family, in these Times of publick Commotion. We reflect with Gratitude on the many Blessings dispensed to us by your Majesty's Goodness, and observe with the deepest Concern the calamitous Effects of that Spirit of Discontent which prevails among your Subjects in America, and is encreased to such a Degree as to produce all the Evils of a Civil War in that Quarter of your Dominions. Arduous Questions of Government, of which we are incompetent to judge, we do not affect to decide, we leave them to your Majesty, assisted by the great Council of the Nation, in Confidence that the Powers vested in You by the Laws of your Kingdom, will ever be directed towards the Attainment of the great End of their Institution, the Good of your People. And we persuade ourselves that under the Influence of Measures, concerted with Wisdom and executed with Firmness and Moderation, the Colonists will be brought to a just Sense of their Duty, that good Order will be re-established among them, and that Peace and Harmony will take Place throughout the British Empire.

Permit us further to assure You, Sir, that we contemplate with Abhorrence every Proposition that is inconsistent with the Idea of your Majesty's perfect Security on the Throne of these Kingdoms, because we look up to your Majesty as the faithful Guardian of those Liberties which were recovered by the Revolution, have been protected by your illustrious Family, and which, we trust will be preserved entire to us and our Descendants.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, November 11, 1775.

Notice is hereby given, that Their Majesties propose to remove, on Wednesday next, from Kew to the Queen's House; and that their Majesties will go to Chapel at St. James's on Sunday the 19th Instant, and have a Drawing-Room afterwards as usual.

London, November 9.

Yesterday John Sawbridge, Esq; Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall, when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the New Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, several of the Aldermen, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pendants, to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Fryars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided, at which were present several of the Nobility, Foreign Noblemen, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

ERRATUM.

In last Saturday's Gazette, in the Introduction to the Derby Address, instead of "presented by Wennan Coke, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament," read, "presented by Daniel Parker Coke, Esq; Petitioner for the Borough of Derby."

Admiralty-Office, October 28, 1775.

WHEREAS several of the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are unemployed, have not sent to this Office the Places of their Residence; It is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that all such Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, as come within the above Description, do forthwith transmit to this Office the Place of their respective Residence; and that they do, for the Future, continue to do the like whenever they remove to any other Place.
