St. James's, November 18.

THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Thrale, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, whose Names are hereunto subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

AT a Time when every Art is industriously employed to diffuse false and unconstitutional Principles, we, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and entreat a favourable Acceptance of our warmest Acknowledgements for those Civil and Religious Blessings, which our Feelings tell us we enjoy, in the amplest and most substantial Manner, under the Benignity of your Majesty's Government.

The disaffectionate Behaviour of some of your Majesty's Colonies fills us with the deepest Concern; and although we are prompted by Humanity to pity a misguided and infatuated People, we hold in the utmost Abhorrence those inflammatory Spirits, by whose Suggestions they have been urged to commit the most daring Offences.

Convinced however, that Resistance in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions to the legal Power and Pre-eminence of Great Britain, is not only a flagrant Breach of Duty in the Offenders, but also an Invasion of her indisputable Rights, we humbly trust, from repeated Experience of your Majesty's watchful Care, that every Effort will be exerted to restore Obedience in America, and to establish the Supremacy of British Legislation over every Part of your Majesty's wide-extended Empire. And we desire Permission to affirm, that we consider it to be the Duty of all real Lovers of their Country, and are therefore ourselves ready to give every Furtherance and Support which our Abilities and respective Situations will admit of, to whatever may contribute to preserve or promote the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and, what are inseparable from it, the Peace, good Order, and Prosperity of our Fellow-Subjects.

May the Wisdom of the Supreme Disposer of Events guide all your Majesty's Counsels; may the Enemies of Freedom and mild Government see and correct their fatal Error; and may the Crown, with undiminished Splendor, flourish upon your Majesty, and in your illustrious House, till all human Empire shall be no more!

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the City of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Richard Symons, Bart. One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Hereford, in Council assembled, beg Leave, at this alarming and critical Juncture, to tender our Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majesty, and our inviolable Attachment to our free and happy Constitution.

Penetrated with these Sentiments, we lament the unnatural Defection of Part of your Majesty's Subjects in America from their Allegiance to this their Parent State, as well as the unsuccessful Endeavours hitherto used to bring them back to their Duty.

We trust your Majesty, of your great Wisdom and Clemency, will apply wise and wholesome Measures to conciliate their Affections, and reclaim those deluded People to a true Sense of their Duty and Interest.

But alas! should such Measures fail, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready, to the utmost of our Abilities, to support your Majesty in such vigorous and Constitutional Measures, as may best conduce to accomplish this salutary Purpose, and promote the Happiness and Dignity of your Majesty, and the whole British Empire.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the said City, the Sixth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

The following Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Man, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

PERMIT, most Gracious Sovereign! The Bishop and Clergy of the Isle and Diocese of Man; few in Number, inconsiderable in Influence, and remote in Situation, but in Duty and Affection to your Sacred Person, your Family, and Government, equal to those of any Diocese in your Majesty's Dominions, to express, before You, Sentiments, which, springing warm from their Hearts, their coolest and most deliberate Judgments also approve.

Fully sensible of our own Unimportance, we should think it Presumption to interrupt your Majesty with the Tender of our most humble Duty, did not the Circumstances of the Times, and the very culpable Behaviour of some of our Fellow-Subjects, seem to call upon all Persons, of all Ranks and Professions, "high and low, "rich and poor, one with another," to declare their Abhorrence of the daring and unprovoked Rebellion, begun and carried on, in several of your Majesty's Colonies, against the Authority of the whole Legislative Power of Great Britain.

We profess the same Passion for Freedom, the same steady Adherence to our just and legal Rights, which is pretended to be the Object in Pursuit by the Advocates for nominal Liberty and real Licentiousness; but we know not, nor expect any true Liberty, except under the Guardianship of the Laws; and we know not, and hope never to know, any other Guardians of the Laws, than our Sovereign, and his two Houses of Parliament.

That the deluded and unthinking Many are (as is usual in such Cases) misled and deceived by the designing and ambitious Few, we are fully persuaded; and that the Former may have their Eyes opened, their Errors removed, and (then) their Faults forgiven; and the Latter be brought to speedy Repentance, or to their deserved Punishment, we earnestly pray.

Our Prayers and our Hearts are, alas! all we have, to offer to your Majesty; but these, because sincere, will by You, Sir, not be disdained.

May the present Disturbance be the only one that shall ever disquiet your Royal and Benevolent Mind! May it be short as the transient Storm, and be succeeded by an untroubled Calm, a long and glorious Sunshine; May all your Subjects, both at Home and Abroad, be duly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your just and gentle Rule! And may they express their grateful Sense of those Blessings, by unfeigned Piety towards their God, and undissembled Loyalty to their King; May your Majesty's Enemies (who, if your Subjects, are Enemies to their Country) "be clothed with Rebuke, "with Shame and Dishonor! But upon your own Royal "Head, and on those of your Posterity, may your Crown "flourish, till all human Empire shall be no more."

The following Address of the House of Keys representing the Isle of Mann, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the House of Keys representing the Isle of Mann, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with this our dutiful Address, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government. We are desirous to express our Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person, and our utter Detestation of all traitorous Conspiracies and Rebellion, and especially at this critical Juncture, when an unnatural Rebellion has been raised in some of your Majesty's Colonies, and encouraged and abetted by wicked and designing Men.

We not only lament the Delusion of those unhappy People, but think it our Duty, as loyal Subjects and Well-Wishers to our happy Constitution, openly to declare our Abhorrence of such Misdoings.

We trust in your Majesty's Wisdom, that every Means will be used to bring them to a proper Sense of the Allegiance which they owe to your Majesty, and the Power which has preserved and protected them: And we are confident your Majesty will exert that Power with Lenity. And we most fervently pray, That Divine Providence may so prosper your Majesty's benevolent Intentions, that your mistaken and deluded Subjects in America may see their Errors, and become once more happily united under your Majesty's Constitutional Government; and that the Blessings, derived to us from your Majesty's August Family, may continue, and be handed down to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Renfrew, has been presented to His Majesty by John Craufurd, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Renfrew.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land-Tax of the County of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of Gratitude and Fidelity to your Majesty, happy under the Influence of your mild and beneficent Administration, rejoicing in the Contemplation of your Virtues, we behold, with Pity and with Indignation, the daring Attempts of your Colonies to disturb the Tranquillity, and to interrupt the Felicity of your Reign.

We commiserate the Errors, we detest the Guilt, of those deluded People, who, seduced by the wicked Arts of designing Men, and actuated by Prejudice and Passion, abuse the venerable Name of Liberty, and employ it as a Cover for their Treasonable Purposes of withdrawing their Allegiance from your Majesty, of renouncing their Subordination to Great Britain, and of arrogating Independence to themselves.

We assert the Principle, that in the Constitution of every State, there must be one supreme, uncontrollable Power, whose Dictates all must obey. We wish for no Liberty to ourselves, and can admit of none to others, beyond what we all are entitled to, by the Laws of our Country. We disclaim those timid, interested, or factious Suggestions, in Favour of Lenity and Concessions, to Subjects in Rebellion, while they have Arms in their Hands. Upon their first Returns to Duty, and Submission, none can doubt your Majesty's gracious Declaration, That you will be ready to receive the Missed with Tenderness and Mercy.

Though an occasional Increase or Diminution of Trad:

Trade must appear of less Importance, when the Contest is for National Honour, and the Preservation of great National Rights; yet we cannot help observing with Satisfaction, that our Commercial Interests have not suffered by the Defection of the American Provinces; and that their malignant Combinations to distress and alarm this Country, by a total Prohibition of Trade, have happily been hitherto disappointed. The valuable and extensive Manufactures of the Town of Paisley, and other Parts of this industrious and populous County, have at no Period had a greater Produce, or a more ready Demand. Every Hand is full of Employment, and every Heart full of Confidence; relying on your Majesty's Wisdom and Fortitude, to put a speedy End to those Disorders, and to restore the Blessings of Peace and Concord to all your Dominions.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, animated by the united Sentiments of Loyalty, Love of our Country, Regard for our own Interests, and those of our Posterity, we are determined to exert our utmost Efforts, in Support of your Majesty's Authority, the Supreme Power of the Legislature, and the Constitutional Dependence of every Part of the British Empire.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment,
Paisley, November 7, 1775. William Mure, Preses.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, has been presented to His Majesty by John Craufurd, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Renfrew, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE should be unworthy of the Blessings which we enjoy as British Subjects, did we fail, at this Time, to express our Attachment to that Government which conveys and secures them.

With much Concern and Abhorrence we behold the unnatural and daring Attempt of your Majesty's American Subjects to throw off their Subjection to legal Authority, and to subvert those very Laws, under which they have risen to Power and Opulence.

Enjoying true Liberty and Peace, we wish to see them restored to our Fellow-Subjects; and are convinced, that this great End will be most effectually promoted, by the steady Exertion of those Powers, which the Constitution has vested in your Majesty; fully persuaded, that they will ever be wisely employed by a Monarch, who while able to chastise rebellious Subjects, declares from the Throne, that He is ready to receive the Milled with Tenderness and Mercy. Animated with these Sentiments, it is our steady Purpose to support the Rights of your Majesty, as Sovereign of all your Dominions, and the supreme Authority of the British Legislature over the whole Empire.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that although this be among the first Manufacturing Towns in North Britain, and, by its Situation, most likely to be affected by the unconstitutional Proceedings of the Colonies; our Trade, in most of its Branches, in no Degree has suffered from their ungrateful Conduct. Our Manufactures daily encrease and afford Employment for thousands of loyal Subjects; and we are persuaded, that to enforce Submission to the Laws of Great Britain, is absolutely necessary to secure a lasting Commerce with America.

For every Advantage which we derive from your Majesty's Care and Attention to the Good of your People, we humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Acknowledgements. That your Majesty may long reign over a happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, The Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by our first Magistrate: And we have ordered the Common Seal of the Town to be hereto fixed.

Paisley, November 7, 1775. John Storie.

The following Address of the Corporation of Bewdley in the County of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Henry Lyttelton, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Lyttelton, High Steward of the Corporation, and Charles Baldwin, Esq; the Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Corporation of Bewdley in the County of Worcester, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave, at this very important Crisis, to approach your Majesty, with Hearts full of Zeal, for the Maintenance of those Rights which are inseparably attached to your Majesty's Imperial Crown, and Abhorrence of those unconstitutional Doctrines and Practices, which have plunged so large a Part of your Majesty's American Subjects into open Rebellion, against the Supreme Legislative Authority of your Majesty in your High Court of Parliament.

As Englishmen we hold ourselves bound to concur with Alacrity in such Measures, as, in the Wisdom of your Majesty, and the Great Council of the Nation, shall be found necessary to assert and confirm the ancient unalienable Power and Jurisdiction of the Three Estates of this Realm over every Part of the British Dominions in all Cases whatsoever; and as Men, whose Welfare is more immediately dependent on Trade, and who know the Importance of the Objects in Dispute, we earnestly supplicate your Majesty to persevere in such Courses, as may most effectually subdue that treasonable and ungrateful Spirit, in the American Provinces, which manifestly tends to throw off every Restraint commercial and political, which, as Colonies that owe their Existence to the Support and Protection of this Country, Law, Reason, and Justice, have subjected them to.

Permit us, Sir, to conclude, with our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, That our deluded Fellow-Subjects may soon return to a just Sense of their Duty; and that your Majesty may long live and reign the Father of a happy and undivided People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Bewdley, this Eighth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

James Prattinton, Bailiff.

W. A. Roberts, Town Clerk.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the City of Brechine, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the City of Brechine, in Common-Council assembled:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the City of Brechine, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, as well from Duty, as from a sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, at a Time, when Rebellion amongst some of your Majesty's Subjects in America rears its Head, and bids Defiance to the Laws; to express our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to assure your Majesty, that, from the Bottom of our Hearts, we abhor and detest the rebellious Acts of your Colonists, and that we utterly disapprove of every Method whatever, tending to inflame the Minds of your Majesty's peaceful Subjects against your Majesty and those of your most Honourable Council, while prosecuting Measures so highly necessary for bringing to Reason, and Submission to the Laws, those of your rebellious and deluded Subjects, who have endeavoured to throw off their Dependence on the Parent State.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, with the most unfeigned Truth, that we look upon those Attempts with the utmost Indignation; and most earnestly wish that the Measures adopted by the Legislature, may, by the Aid of the Almighty, be the speedy Means of restoring Tranquility, and putting an End to civil Discord. For obtaining of which happy End, we will support your Majesty, and the Authority of the Legislature, with our Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majesty and your Royal Heirs may reign to latest Posterity over an united and happy People, is our most ardent Wish.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, The Magistrates and Town-Council of your City of Brechine.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City is affixed.

John Molison, Provost.

The following Address of the principal Inhabitants of the ancient Burrough of Perth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Colonel James Murray, Representative

Representative in Parliament for the County of Perth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the principal Inhabitants of your ancient Burrough of Perth, beg Leave, at this important Crisis, to testify our grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and our Abhorrence of the unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion which has been excited among our deluded Fellow-Subjects of America, by the Artifices of ambitious and designing Men.

The lenient Measures which your Majesty, induced by your paternal Tenderness, had employed for reclaiming that infatuated People, having proved ineffectual, your Majesty has at last been compelled, by their obstinate Disobedience, to have Recourse to more vigorous Exertions. We think ourselves bound, by every Consideration of Duty and Interest, to declare our Resolution to support your Majesty on this Occasion, so far as we are able, in our several Stations and Professions, being convinced, that the Supremacy of the British Legislature over the Colonies is essential to the Harmony, Strength, and Happiness of the whole Empire.

The following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel James Pringle, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, in General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Enjoying under your Majesty all the Blessings which a mild and equal Government can bestow, we observe, with inexpressible Grief, an unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion broke out in Part of your Majesty's Colonies, threatening all the Evils of Civil War.

With equal Concern and Surprize we observe Numbers of your Majesty's Subjects in America, who have suffered no actual Oppression, misled by Apprehensions of Danger to their Freedom from Great Britain, the Seat of Liberty itself; and we behold with Detestation the Arts that have been used to seduce, and by which the Contagion has been spread so wide.

Though the Forbearance and Lenity which your Majesty has shewn, and the Conciliatory Advances made by the Wisdom of Parliament, fully evince how ready your Majesty has been, not only to redress all Grievances, but also to quiet Apprehensions; yet, instead of making such Submission as is due to your Majesty's Dignity, and the Supremacy of the British Parliament, an open Rebellion is raised by these deluded People, underserving of the Blessings they enjoy, ungrateful to the Power by which they have been reared and protected.

These Considerations call upon all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, and, among others, upon the Freeholders of this County, to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, assuring your Majesty, that with their Lives and Fortunes they are ready to support the Honour and Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Supremacy of the British Legislature; confident that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, your paternal Love for all your Subjects, and the united Force and Valour of your Kingdoms, will have their full and proper Exertion.

Signed by Sir John Stuart, of Allanbank, Baronet, Praeses of the Meeting, by their Order, and in their Presence, at Greenlaw, the 31st Day of October, 1775.

John Stuart.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Clackmanan, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Ralph Abercromby, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Clackmanan, conscious of the many Blessings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and penetrated with the deepest Sense of the unhappy Situation into which so great a Number of your Subjects in America have been led, by the artful and traitorous Misrepresentations of their self-interested and designing Leaders, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to assure your Majesty, in the most solemn and publick Manner, of our Abhorrence and Detestation of their unconstitutional Principles, and of the heart-felt Concern with which we behold their present Rebellion.

We are the more strongly induced to consider it as our indispensable Duty most seriously to address your Majesty on this Occasion, when we reflect, that our deluded Fellow-Subjects in America have been taught to believe, that, by opposing the Supreme Authority of Parliament, and by disobeying our Legislature, they act agreeably to the Sentiments of the greater Part of your Subjects in Great-Britain.

We therefore embrace this Opportunity of unanimously declaring, that we consider such Principles and Practices as repugnant to the true Spirit of the British Constitution, and as destructive of that Liberty which can only exist where there is a strict Observance of the Laws; and that we are firmly resolved to exert ourselves to the utmost, in our respective Spheres, to support this great and important Cause, in which the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, and the Interest of your People, are so deeply concerned.

We flatter ourselves, that the vigorous and decisive Measures your Majesty seems resolved to adopt, will, by the Blessing of the Almighty, speedily produce the desired Effect of re-establishing Peace and Harmony between Great Britain and her Colonies, by convincing the Latter, that Great Britain, from whom they derive their Origin, by whom they have been nourished and supported in their Infancy, and by whom they have been protected from Foreign Enemies, at the Expence of much Blood and Treasure, can still exert and vindicate the Rights of a Parent State.

Upon the whole then, Great Sire, it is our fervent Prayer and most ardent Desire, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and a happy People; and that this Empire may be transmitted to your latest Posterity entire and undivided.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Clackmanan, this 27th Day of November, 1775
Years, by William Cathcart, Praeses.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of St. Andrew's, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Dundas, Esq; Lord Advocate of Scotland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of St. Andrew's, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Majesty's ancient City of St. Andrew's, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, with Sentiments of unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your Majesty's Sacred Person, Family, and Government.

Deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of the many Blessings, which we, and all the Subjects of this extensive Empire; enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Administration, we have beheld, with Indignation; the Arts by which factious and turbulent Men have endeavoured, for some Years past, to alienate the Affections of your Majesty's Subjects, and to disturb the Tranquility of your Government. We lament that your Majesty's American Colonies have been so far deluded and misled by these Arts, as to abandon their Connection with their Parent-State; by which they had been reared and protected: And we wish, in this publick Manner, to testify our Abhorrence of that unnatural Spirit of Rebellion, which, notwithstanding all the Lenity and Forbearance they have experienced, has at last broke forth in Acts of open Hostility, and has led them to take up Arms against the best of Sovereigns, who, through his whole Reign, has shewn himself the Father of all his People, and the Guardian of their Rights.

We have entire Confidence in the Wisdom and Rectitude of your Majesty's Counsels; and we trust that, under God, they will speedily prove effectual for subduing the rebellious Provinces, and for restoring Peace and Tranquility upon Terms becoming the Dignity of the Supreme Legislative Authority of this Empire.

At a Time when some of those, who even aspire at a Seat in the British Senate, are accused of treasonable Practices and Conspiracies, permit us, Great Sir, who live in a distant Part of your Kingdom, to express our respectful Submission to your Government, our Veneration for the Constitution of Great Britain, and our firm Resolution to support and defend it at all Times to the utmost of our Power.

Signed by our Præses, in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment.

Christianus Adamson, Dean of Guild.

St. Andrew's, October 3, 1775.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Colonel Cosmo Gordon, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, think it our indispensable Duty, at this Juncture, humbly to address your Majesty, and to declare our Abhorrence of the present unnatural Rebellion carried on by many of your infatuated Subjects in America: In doing this, we can assure your Majesty, that we express not only our own Sentiments, but those of our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks, in this Corner of your Majesty's Dominions.

With profound Humility we profess our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and our most cordial Approbation of the early Measures adopted for giving a Check to the first Dawnings of Disobedience. — This County, in the late War, sent out many of its Sons to defend your Majesty's ungrateful Colonies against the Invasion of Foreign Enemies; and they will now, when called upon, be equally ready to repel all the Attempts of the Traitorous and Disaffected,

Nairn, November 7, 1775.

The following Address of the Mayor, Capital-Burgeses, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton in the County of Devon, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the City of Exeter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital-Burgeses, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Parish of Southmolton in the County of Devon.

May it please your Majesty,

AT a Time when one Part of your Majesty's Dominions is in actual Rebellion, which, there is too much Cause to think, hath been excited and fomented by ill-disposed People in another Part of them; Silence in any Man or Body of Men; who profess themselves well-affected to your Majesty and the Constitution, would betray a justly reprehensible Inattention, in a Matter of so great Importance.

Permit, therefore, most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Capital-Burgeses, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of your Borough and Parish of Southmolton in the County of Devon, to join the rest of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, in expressing our warmest Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, to testify in the best Manner we at present can, our Sense of, and Gratitude for, the many Blessings we derive, under Divine Providence, from your Majesty; and to declare our utter Disapprobation and Abhorrence of those Principles, which at first occasioned, and have since promoted, those Troubles and Disturbances, which now prevail in America.

We most heartily wish that this deluded People may soon see their Error, and return to their Duty.

Should they however still persist in their Obstinacy and Disobedience, we entirely confide in your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, for taking such Measures as will effectually secure Obedience to the Supreme Authority in and from all Parts of your Majesty's Dominions.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully contribute every Thing in our Power towards the Maintenance and Support of that Authority, as far as our Influence extends. — And we will use our utmost Efforts to discourage and prevent any Tendency to Disaffection or Disregard for your Majesty's and our valuable Constitution; and upon all Occasions endeavour to approve ourselves your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful, and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough and Parish, this Tenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

Signed by Order, and with the Concurrence of,
John Starland, Town Clerk.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of November, 1775,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Lyttelton was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, November 18.

The King has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable John Earl of Ashburnham to be Groom of His Majesty's Stole, and First Gentleman of His Bed-Chamber.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Pelham, the Office of Keeper and the Custody of His Majesty's Great Wardrobe.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Lyttelton the Offices of Warden and Chief Justice in Eyre of all His Majesty's Forests, Parks, Chaces, and Warrens, beyond Trent.

St. James's,

St. James's, November 15.

This Day Their Majesties came from Kew to the Queen's Palace, to reside during the Winter.

The same Day His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, His Royal Highness Prince Frederick, and Their Royal Highnesses the Princes and Princesses, removed from Kew for the Winter Season.

St. James's, November 18.

The King has been pleased to grant unto George Coleman, Esq; the Office and Place of Sergeant at Arms in Ordinary, to attend upon His Royal Person when there is no Parliament, and in Time of Parliament on the Speaker of the House of Commons, in the Room and Place of Nicholas Bonfoy, Esq; deceased.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Gregory Turner, of Ambrolden in the County of Oxford, Bart. and his Heirs, His Royal Leave and Licence to take and use the Surname of Page, and bear the Arms of Page quarterly with Turner, (such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office;) and also to order, that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Dublin, November 7.

Saturday last being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was displayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction, at the Castle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William; the Regiments on Dublin Duty lined the Statue on each Side; and, after his Excellency's Return to the Castle, the Great Guns at the Salute-Battery, in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix, were fired three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square in the Barracks; and the Night concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Dublin, November 7.

Sunday last, being the Anniversary of the horrid Gunpowder Plot, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired three Rounds, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and the Evening concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Constantinople, October 3. Abdallah Mirza, accompanied by fifteen Persons, arrived here a few Days ago from Persia, with a Letter from Kherim Khah, to congratulate the Grand Signor on his Accession to the Ottoman Throne, which he delivered at an Audience of the Vizir; on which Occasion he received an Ermine Fur, a Horse caparisoned, and Presents to the Amount of about 4000 Dollars.

By the last Advices from Bassora, the Town continues to be well defended; the Muscat Fleet, consisting of 30 Sail, great and small, was daily expected to relieve the Place; and it is not doubted, if the Pascha of Bagdat sends Succours, that the Persians will be obliged to raise the Siege.

St. James's, November 18, 1775.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of Mr. Richard Sandford, Baker, in Winchester-street in Broad-street Ward, London, for several Sundays past has been attempted to be broken open by Robbers, upon which Account a Guard was placed with Fire-Arms in the House; and that, on Sunday last, the same Attempt being again made about Six in the Evening, and the House entered, the said Guard shot the Foremost of the Gang: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in breaking open and entering the said House, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except such of them as have returned from Transportation) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, for the Discovery and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned in the said Burglary, a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is promised to any Person or Persons who shall make Discovery of any concerned therein (except as before excepted) to be paid on Conviction by the Alderman of the Ward, or his Deputy: The Parish of Alhallow, London Wall, do likewise hereby promise a Reward of TEN POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said Parish, upon Conviction as above.

S A W B R I D G E, Mayor.

A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Friday the 17th Day of November, 1775.

RESOLVED, That a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS be offered by this Court, for the apprehending and bringing to Justice each of the following Persons, who are supposed to have returned from Transportation before the Expiration of the Term of their respective Sentences, and who may hereafter be found at large in this Kingdom.

Francis Talbot, a middle-sized Man, between 20 and 30 Years of Age, much marked with the Small-Pox, pouting Lips, very carrotty Hair, and stoops much in the Shoulders, and limps when he talks.

Robert Armstrong, a tall Man about five Feet nine Inches high, about 25 Years of Age, light-coloured short Hair, fresh-coloured Complexion, straight and well-made, is much given to Laughter.

Isaac Usher otherwise Isaac Cutler, a Jew, a short Man, thick-made, between 40 and 50 Years of Age, a little marked with the Small-Pox, speaks fast, is short-breathed, did wear a brown Wig, either clubbed or curled, with a Tyburn Top, fresh-coloured Complexion, generally turns his Head about when in Conversation, has thick Legs, and walks slow, is now imagined to dress neat, and wear Ruffles.

Joseph Abrahams, commonly called Yapper, a Jew, about 23 Years of Age, about five Feet six or seven Inches high, stout-made but clumsy, black Eyes, and black short Hair, swarthy Complexion, broad flat Nose, and broad Face, and a large Mouth.

RESOLVED, That a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS be offered by this Court, for the apprehending and bringing to Justice any other Person or Persons, who shall have returned, within five Years past, or may hereafter return from Transportation before the Expiration of the Terms of their Sentences, and who shall be found at large within this City, or the Liberties thereof, that the said Reward be for each Person so apprehended, and be paid on his, her, or their Conviction, at the Chamber of London; and this to continue in Force for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months.

Signed by Order of Court,

R I X.

Admiralty-Office, October 28, 1775.

Whereas several of the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, who are unemployed, have not sent to this Office the Places of their Residence; It is the Direction of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that all such Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, as come within the above Description, do forthwith transmit to this Office the Place of their respective Residence; and that they do, for the Future, continue to do the like whenever they remove to any other Place.

Ph. Stephens.

Navy-Office, October 25, 1775.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 22d of November next, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to supply His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness, with Braziers Wares, on a standing Contract.

London Assurance House, November 15, 1775.

THE Court of Directors of the London Assurance Corporation hereby give Notice, that the Annual General Court appointed by the Charter will be held at their House in Birchin-lane, on Wednesday the 13th of December next, at Twelve at Noon.

NOTICE to all the Creditors of Edward Leatherbarrow, of Wigan in the County of Lancaster, Grocer, (a Bankrupt) that they transmit their several Demands, duly attested, to Charles Goore, of Liverpool, Merchant, (the surviving Assignee) on or before the 25th of December next; immediately after which Time a Dividend will be made, as far as the said Bankrupt's Effects will extend: And such of the Creditors, who neglect to make Proof in the Time above mentioned, will be totally excluded. Dated the 18th Day of November, 1775.
