St. James's, November 20.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, has been presented to His Majesty by Bartholomew Price, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with the strongest Assurances of our steady Attachment to your Majesty's and this Nation's united Cause, in Opposition to the insolent Efforts of all the Enemies of Peace, Order, and good Government, where ever exerted by factious Clamour, or by rebellious Insurrection.

An Experience, coeval with your Majesty's Reign, hath taught us, that your Majesty's first and most zealous Aim hath been to win the Affection and cheerful Obedience of all your Subjects, by all those Methods of Indulgence, Patronage, and Gentleness, which do, in the Nature of Things, tend to dispose the Minds of Men to submit themselves, with all Thankfulness, to so patriotic a Sovereignty: And we cannot, without the deepest Concern, observe, that the Event of so gracious a Trial hath, through the treacherous Workings of Republican Malevolence, so totally disappointed your Majesty's just and reasonable Expectations, and those of all good Men; and that the Good-Will and Lenity, which pervade and adorn all your Majesty's Measures of Government, have served only to raise, to animate, to inflame the stubborn Spirit of Insult and Rebellion, especially in your Majesty's late highly favoured Provinces in America.

The tender Emotions of Humanity, foreseeing the Calamities of the Storm, which that Spirit hath raised, cannot but incline us to wish, that the common Sentiments of Gratitude had so duly operated in the Hearts of our Fellow-Subjects there, as to have retained them in their most bounden Duty of cheerful Submission to those mild Laws and equitable Regulations, with which the Legislature of their Mother Country hath an undoubted Right to require their most cheerful Compliance.

Such Compliance, (against which no Pleas of Exemption have been offered but what Malice and Chicane have laboriously set up, to be, by plain Truth and Fact, with no Labour, overthrown) such Compliance would happily have prevented that lamentable Indigence and Distress of the Rebel Provinces, that miserable Effusion of Christian Blood, which, it is to be feared, are now become the necessary, though harsh Remedies of their pestilential Disease.

And since an obstinate and active Rebellion, subsisting in any Part of your Majesty's Dominions, can hardly fail, unless it be seasonably suppressed, of producing Events highly calamitous to the Whole, and of Consequence deeply afflictive to your Majesty's paternal Heart, we do, with all that Alacrity and Zeal of Duty, which grateful Subjects owe to such a Sovereign, assure your Majesty, that we are firmly determined, with our utmost Ability and Influence, to support such vigorous Measures as your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence, in Concert with that of the great Council of the Nation, may think proper to adopt, for reducing mad and ruinous Revolt to quiet and wholesome Submission; and for establishing in it's full Force the Legislative Authority of Great-Britain over the Dominions of the British Crown in their widest Extent.

With no small Satisfaction we foresee, that, when your Majesty's Firmness and Magnanimity shall have obtained this just Triumph over the Treacherous and Ungrateful, you will celebrate one more highly pleasing to you, in "receiving the Missed with Tenderness and Mercy."

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, warmed with a grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your benign Reign, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of the just Sense which we, and the Burgeses and Inhabitants of this Town whom we represent, have of them, and of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty: That we highly disapprove of and detest the seditious and rebellious Conduct of some of your Majesty's Colonies in North America; who, by the Arts of designing Men, have been seduced to resist the just Authority of the British Legislature, and are aiming to throw off their Dependence on the Mother-Country.

Perfused, that the Commercial Interests of this Kingdom, as well as the Liberty, Security of Property, and all other inestimable Blessings we enjoy under the British Constitution, can only be preserved unto us, and continued to Posterity, by firmly maintaining and supporting the Supremacy of the British Legislature over every Part of the British Dominions.

We highly approve both the prudent and spirited Measures taken by your Majesty and your Parliament, for bringing back the deluded Colonies to their Duty, and preserving unimpaired the Constitutional Rights of Great Britain over them; sorry that the mild Measures, taken with them at first, failed to effectuate so desirable an Event.

We therefore wish and humbly request your Majesty would still pursue such further vigorous Measures as you and the Wisdom of your Parliament may judge necessary to bring it about, and secure, in Future, upon a permanent Establishment, their Dependence on the Parent-Statè; assuring your Majesty, that nothing in our Power, as loyal and dutiful Subjects; shall be wanting, on our Part, to aid and assist your Majesty in so great a National Concern.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to continue the Blessings of a just and mild Government, over a free and undivided People, is our sincere and ardent Wish.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Common Council of Lochmaben, the Thirteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

William Hoggan, Provost.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, feel ourselves at this Time indispensably called upon to express our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion existing in a Part of your American Dominions, and our highest Indignation at the ungrateful Revolt, by which the Government of the best of Kings hath been for some Time disturbed in your Majesty's Colonies.

With the utmost Sincerity and Zeal we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, which we are determined to

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lymington, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Harry Burrard, Bart. One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lymington, with all Humility approach your Royal Presence at this truly interesting and alarming Crisis, and beg Leave to express, in the warmest Terms, our most affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

It is with the deepest Concern we behold that some disaffected, turbulent, and designing Men, taking Advantage of your Majesty's Lenity, have been able by Degrees, to deceive and delude so many of your Majesty's Subjects in America; and to force others, by the most cruel Acts of Tyranny and Oppression, into an avowed and detestable Rebellion.

We cannot sufficiently admire the Wisdom and Lenity of your Majesty's Councils, in preparing, with Firmness and Resolution, the Means of succouring and protecting the well-affected and much distressed Part of your Majesty's Subjects; and of compelling the Refractory to pay a due Attention to their Dependence on the Parent State, and a proper Obedience to the Laws of our inestimable Constitution. Nor can any Thing render your Majesty's Clemency more conspicuous, than the Disposition you have manifested of re-admitting to your gracious Favour and Protection such of your Subjects as may voluntarily retract their Errors, and return to their Duty and Allegiance.

Sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Vigilance to promote the Happiness of all your People, and to secure to them inviolate the full Enjoyment of their Liberties, and all the just Rights and Privileges delivered down to them from their Forefathers, we most solemnly assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready to risk every Thing we hold most dear, to keep the Dignity and Honour of the Crown unsullied, and to maintain and support the Supreme Legislative Authority of Great Britain; which we know to be the only firm Basis of the true Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects in every Part of your extensive Dominions.

That your Majesty may reign long and prosperous over an happy and united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, to support, at the Hazard of our Lives, against all Hostility to your Royal Crown and Dignity, and to the violated Rights of the British Empire.

We cannot sufficiently admire the Temper with which your Majesty has acted, from your Paternal Anxiety to prevent, as long as possible, the Calamities which are inseparable from a State of War; and we, with equal Concern and Regret, observe, that the Resolutions of the British Parliament, breathing Moderation and Forbearance, have produced no other Effect on the deluded Minds of the disobedient Part of your American Subjects, than Usurpation and Rebellion.

We find, that the rebellious War, now levied in America, hath not been confined in it's Objects to Great Britain; for it appears in several of the American Resolutions, that their Resentments are also directed to the Trade of this Kingdom; and we glory in being considered, even by those who injure us, as united with Great Britain, against all the Universe; and, as devoted to your Majesty, against every Enemy upon Earth.

By your Majesty's Arms was preserved the very Existence of this ungrateful People; by the Courage and Discipline of your Troops were they saved from the impending Danger of a powerful, and, till then, victorious Power.—Ireland shared in that Triumph; and, we trust, Ireland fervently wishes to see accomplished the glorious Task of restoring to the Americans that Liberty which is consistent with the Laws of the Empire, and those Comforts of Life, which interested and desperate Agitators, with merciless Perseverance, instigate them to forfeit.

'Tis indeed to be lamented they should still listen to these restless Deluders, who, whilst they affect to deprecate the Effusion of Blood, call for the Shedding of it; and who by Efforts, as unavailing as unwarrantable, urge on the Destruction of those, whom the whole Power of your Majesty's insulted Dominions are happily combined to subdue.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, your Majesty's Concern for our Commercial Advancement, upon which our Prosperity and Happiness so exceedingly depend; and we trust to your Majesty's distinguished Firmness and Wisdom, to support the Dignity, maintain the Rights, uphold the Constitution, and restore the Tranquillity of the British Empire.

their Diligence and Activity most of the Persons were saved, after having been exposed for Six Hours to the Violence of the Storm.

Monsieur Porquet, the Commissary of the Marine at this Port, attended by a Surgeon, with the greatest Humanity, afforded all possible Assistance to the unhappy Sufferers; and, by the Use of proper Methods, a Sailor and a Negro, who were taken up with little Signs of Life, were with great Difficulty perfectly recovered. This Morning the Bodies of Mrs. White and her Negro Woman Servant were found on the Shore.

The greatest Humanity and Tenderness were shewn by Monsieur Porquet the Commissary of the Marine, the Physicians, Surgeons, and the Inhabitants in general, to these unfortunate People.
