

William Chapman
John Westbrook
John Butterfield
John Gould
Richard Taylor
Abraham Darby
James Atlee
William Kose
John Boulton
John Clark
Francis Justice
Ralph Leycester,
A. M.
Nathaniel Butler
Abraham Robinson
William Woodwell
Giles Colfell
M. Wiggins
John Westbrock,
jun.
Giles Goldsmith
Richard Cotterel
William Whitfield
Johnua Ahear
William Stone

Thomas Sanders
Henry C. Hill
Samuel Harding
Henry Newell
Abraham Boulton
John Adridge
William Lee
John Cleve
Giles Taylor
Richard Hopkins
William Davis
James Pile
Stephen Atlee
William Perry
B. Barlow
J. Lee
John Hall
John Sims
John Davis
John Douglas, D. D.
Canon of Windsor
H. Foragon
Henry Whitfield
John Pilgrim
Richard Jephson

Edward Bromley
John Duckridge
Nicholas Trevanion
Gedige Bount
Edward Tew
George Hatch
Thomas Moore
Thomas Like
George Wallington
Ph. Duval, D. D.
Canon of Windsor
John B. Stock, M. A.
William Pearson
Richard Biggs
Adam Younger
Daniel Highmore
Edward Adams
George Brookland
Robert Hampden
Pye
William Ward
John Bradley, M. A.
Joseph Mould
Caleb Colton

Thomas Therle
Arthur Lloyd
Samuel Colborne
J. A. Lock
John Hannaford
Richard Willis
Thomas Brice
James Bay
Thomas Pinchard

John Chamberlain
Thomas Baskerville
John Nash
George Wright
Hugh Colborn
Ed. Lindeberger
Thomas Smith
John Youngs
Daniel Robinson

Benjamin Turner
Thomas Beckley
John Whiteley
William Egan
Jo. Egar
William Crowl
Wm Curtis, Treasurer

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by William Douglas, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Common-Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, warmed with a grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your benign Reign, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of the just Sense which we, and the Burgeses and Inhabitants of this Town whom we represent, have of them, and of our firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us, at the same Time, to assure your Majesty: That we highly disapprove of and detest the seditious and rebellious Conduct of some of your Majesty's Colonies in North America; who, by the Arts of designing Men, have been seduced to resist the just Authority of the British Legislature, and are aiming to throw off their Dependence on the Mother-Country.

Perfused, that the Commercial Interests of this Kingdom, as well as the Liberty, Security of Property, and all other inestimable Blessings we enjoy under the British Constitution, can only be preserved unto us, and continued to Posterity, by firmly maintaining and supporting the Supremacy of the British Legislature over every Part of the British Dominions.

We highly approve both the prudent and spirited Measures taken by your Majesty and your Parliament, for bringing back the deluded Colonies to their Duty, and preserving unimpaired the Constitutional Rights of Great Britain over them; sorry that the mild Measures, taken with them at first, failed to effectuate so desirable an Event.

We therefore wish and humbly request your Majesty would still pursue such further vigorous Measures as you and the Wisdom of your Parliament may judge necessary to bring it about, and secure, in Future, upon a permanent Establishment, their Dependence on the Parent-Statè; assuring your Majesty, that nothing in our Power, as loyal and dutiful Subjects; shall be wanting, on our Part, to aid and assist your Majesty in so great a National Concern.

That your Majesty may be long preserved to continue the Blessings of a just and mild Government, over a free and undivided People, is our sincere and ardent Wish.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Common Council of Lochmaben, the Thirteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

William Hoggan, Provost.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, feel ourselves at this Time indispensably called upon to express our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion existing in a Part of your American Dominions, and our highest Indignation at the ungrateful Revolt, by which the Government of the best of Kings hath been for some Time disturbed in your Majesty's Colonies.

With the utmost Sincerity and Zeal we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, which we are determined to

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lymington, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Harry Burrard, Bart. One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lymington, with all Humility approach your Royal Presence at this truly interesting and alarming Crisis, and beg Leave to express, in the warmest Terms, our most affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

It is with the deepest Concern we behold that some disaffected, turbulent, and designing Men, taking Advantage of your Majesty's Lenity, have been able by Degrees, to deceive and delude so many of your Majesty's Subjects in America; and to force others, by the most cruel Acts of Tyranny and Oppression, into an avowed and detestable Rebellion.

We cannot sufficiently admire the Wisdom and Lenity of your Majesty's Councils, in preparing, with Firmness and Resolution, the Means of succouring and protecting the well-affected and much distressed Part of your Majesty's Subjects; and of compelling the Refractory to pay a due Attention to their Dependence on the Parent State, and a proper Obedience to the Laws of our inestimable Constitution. Nor can any Thing render your Majesty's Clemency more conspicuous, than the Disposition you have manifested of re-admitting to your gracious Favour and Protection such of your Subjects as may voluntarily retract their Errors, and return to their Duty and Allegiance.

Sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Vigilance to promote the Happiness of all your People, and to secure to them inviolate the full Enjoyment of their Liberties, and all the just Rights and Privileges delivered down to them from their Forefathers, we most solemnly assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready to risk every Thing we hold most dear, to keep the Dignity and Honour of the Crown unsullied, and to maintain and support the Supreme Legislative Authority of Great Britain; which we know to be the only firm Basis of the true Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects in every Part of your extensive Dominions.

That your Majesty may reign long and prosperous over an happy and united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects,

George Burrard,
Mayor
Harry Burrard, Recorder
John Sparrow
William Burrard
Tho. Shepard, sen.
John Goodricke
J. Bond, jun.
Nathaniel Bond
Bolton Simpson
Tho Beckley, jun.
Tho. Shepard, jun.
Jos. Pearce
William Trattle
Harry Darby
John Browie

Henry Penton
J. Bromfield
Henry Brownrigg
William Reynolds
William Hawkins
Thomas Winbolt
John Lind
Henry Matter
Richard Bowles
W. A. Heywood
Henry Tratele
Wm. Sutherland
Nathaniel Phillips
Edward Hicks
William Orratt
John Orratt
James Newell

William Sparrow
William Hufe
John Edwards
William Cooper
James Newell
Russell Skinner
John Sparrow, jun.
Thomas Grant
James Skutt
Tho. Brice, jun.
Charles Fluder
John Miller
William Lyne
Joseph Bayley
Richard Temple
John Temple
Charles Colborne