St. James's, December 2.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Richard Farmer, D. D. the Vice-Chancellor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in full Senate assembled, think it our Duty at this alarming Crisis to approach your Throne with the deepest and most grateful Sense of the many Blessings, which, through the Dispensation of the Divine Providence, we have participated with our Fellow-Subjects under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Anxious for the Continuance of those Blessings in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and animated with the warmest Loyalty and Affection for your Royal Person and Government, we cannot remain silent Spectators of the unnatural Rebellion, into which many of our Brethren in your Majesty's American Colonies have been unhappily seduced. We see their Delusion with equal Indignation and Concern: We disclaim the Opinions on which they proceed, as destructive of the happy Constitution, that hath ever existed in the History of Mankind, and subversive of all Order and good Government: Yet we pity their Infatuation, and lament the Miseries which it is necessarily bringing upon them.

Relying with full Confidence on your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Tenderness, and convinced that You will pursue every Method, consistent with the Dignity of Government and the Preservation of the Constitution, to prevent, as much as possible, the Effusion of Blood, and to restore due Obedience and Peace; we fervently implore Heaven to bless your Majesty's Counsels with Success; so that the Crown and Dominions of this Realm may be transmitted with undiminished Lustre to your Majesty's remotest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by George Wombwell, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Earl of Sandwich, Recorder of the said Borough, and Lord Viscount Hinchinbrook, one of the Aldermen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Royal Person, to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for the wise Measures you have taken to enforce the Legislative Authority of the Parliament of Great-Britain over all your extensive Dominions.

To beseech your Majesty to use every Constitutional Effort to bring your rebellious Subjects in America to acknowledge their past Errors, and to submit to that legal Authority, which they have dared to resist, with the most unprovoked and violent Outrages.

Our Offer of contributing Aid towards reducing the Colonies to Obedience, by desiring your Majesty to dispose of our Lives and Fortunes, is, we are sensible, but of very little Importance to the Completion of so great a Work; but we can only offer our All: And we flatter ourselves that we may say with Truth, that none of your Majesty's Subjects exceed us in Loyalty to your Sacred Person, or in Abhorrence of the vile Machinations of those Disturbers of the Publick Tranquillity, who, by various Means, have given Encouragement to the deluded Colonists to hope for Success, in what we are convinced is their principal Object, the Establishing themselves in an Independency of the Mother-Country.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Richard Clayton, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, chants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan, with all dutiful Respect beg Leave to approach the Throne to testify our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, at a Time when a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion hath made its Appearance in your Majesty's Dominions in America.

Fully sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy, in common with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we cannot without Horror look on every Attempt to disturb the same.

With all the Attention we are capable of, we have considered whatever our deluded Brethren have urged to palliate the Violences they have been guilty of. We have weighed every Argument that has been offered by the Advocates they have unfortunately met with in this Country.—On the maturest Deliberation we cannot find any Ground for the outrageous Steps they have already taken, and we are lost in Wonder and Astonishment at their Conduct, who have been so far forgetful of their Duty to the best of Kings, as to endeavour to justify such Proceedings.

We lament that your Majesty's Mildness and Clemency have hitherto had no good Effect on the Minds of your infatuated Subjects in America; but we cannot help thinking this has been in some Degree owing to the Artifices of a Faction in this Kingdom, that has contributed to keep up the Spirit of Dissension; and, to serve private Views, hath not scrupled to sacrifice the public Interest.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that Trade has not, in our Neighbourhood, suffered any Diminution or Decay;—that our Manufactures flourish in the fullest Extent;—and that we are under no Apprehension from any Efforts that may be made to lessen or distress them.

In your Majesty and the Great Council of the Nation we repose an entire and implicit Confidence; and we shall zealously acquiesce in whatever Measures may be thought necessary to support the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Constitutional Rights and Authority of this Country over every Part of the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The following Address of the Recorder, Alderman, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Axbridge in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Hotchkin, Esq; Recorder of the said Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Mr. Hotchkin had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The dutiful Address of the Recorder, Alderman, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Axbridge in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when we think every Individual, who has enjoyed the Happiness of your Majesty's paternal Care, should stand forth in Vindication of those Measures, which we doubt not are the Result of sound and good Policy, however misrepresented by wicked, designing, and factious Men, receive, Sir, this dutiful Address of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of the Borough of Axbridge, who lament, even unto Sadness, that, at a Time when the Success of your Majesty's Arms had gained, and the Wisdom of your Councils had taught us to look up to the Blessings of a long and lasting Peace, a Set of Patricides should have arisen up among your own People, who wish to destroy that Happiness of which they cannot partake; Men, whose Circumstances being wretched, whose Expectations still worse, hope to gain from Anarchy and Confusion that Relief, which Decency and Order never can afford them.

The Conduct of your Majesty's American Subjects is painful to the Feelings of the Human Heart; that those who ought to have been the first to have stood forth to vindicate the Honour of your Majesty's Crown, and the Happiness of their Fellow-Subjects in Great Britain, should wantonly and unprovoked exert the first Efforts of their Strength to wound the Breast which warmed them into the Power to hurt, is an Extreme of Wickedness unknown to past Times and Countries.

Sensible of the Blessings we have ourselves enjoyed under your Majesty's most excellent Government; trusting that our Posterity may be as happy and blessed in your Royal Descendants as we have been in you; May it please your Majesty to be assured of our inviolable Attachment, and Loyalty to your Person and Family,

Family, and to our present Constitution both in Church and State; for the Support of which we will most cheerfully contribute every Assistance in our Power; conscious that whatever we may advance will be received as humble Dews from the Earth, and returned in Showers of Plenty and Increase.

We are, may it please your Majesty,

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of the Land-Tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Quarter Sessions assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by William Stewart, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Freeholders and Commissioners of the Land-Tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Quarter Sessions assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

IMPRESSED with the deepest Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, we cannot help testifying our Abhorrence of those Attempts which are made to disturb it's Tranquillity by our rebellious Fellow-Subjects in North America.

Warmly attached to our inestimable Constitution, it is our earnest Wish that every Part of it may be preserved inviolate: To attain this great End, it appears to us an indispensable Requisite, that the Supremacy of the British Legislature be asserted over every Part of the Empire.

With such Sentiments as these, we must express our Disapprobation of the Principles of those Men, who make British Liberty to consist in an undistinguished Opposition to every Measure of Administration: The fatal Effects of a Conduct resulting from such Principles are now severely felt by the misguided Colonists on the other Side of the Atlantic.

We lament and pity the Mischief which evil Councils, Licentiousness, and a factious Spirit have produced among a deluded People. But since conciliatory Proposals have been disregarded, and Mildness and Forbearance construed into Timidity, we humbly apprehend that vigorous Measures are now become absolutely necessary to bring back these ungrateful Children to a proper Sense of their Duty to their Mother Country. Being fully persuaded that these Measures will be such as are consistent with the Honour, the Dignity, and the Liberty of Britons, we will support them with our Lives and Fortunes.

We cannot conclude without expressing a Wish, that undisturbed by Faction, and undisturbed by Rebellion, your Majesty may long continue to reign over the Hearts of your People.

Signed by Order, and in Presence of the Court,
Will. Gordon, Protes.
