And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made and duly examined, to certify the Name of the Peer so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers, the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns in Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such Election.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Thirteenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, in the Sixteenth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

The following Address of the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty by John Freeman, Esq; the High Sheriff; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Mr. Freeman had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEIGN to accept this humble Address of your dutiful Subjects, the Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, as an Assurance of their firm and inviolable Allegiance and Loyalty, at a Time when Rebellion has erected her Standard in the distant Provinces of your Empire.

With Affection we regard your Person, with Gratitude we acknowledge the Justice and Benignity of your mild and merciful Government; — with Detestation we abhor the Professions of Attachment to the former, by those who resist your Authority, and oppose your Laws.

To confirm the Liberties of Britain by the Establishment of the Legislative Powers of Parliament, our Ancestors sacrificed their Blood; and to secure those Liberties to their Posterity, transferred the Succession to the Crown to your Majesty's Family. — To defend and maintain those Powers, we look up to your Majesty as the great Guardian of our Constitution; and permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall cheerfully concur in every Support which our Duty may call for, or our Abilities can furnish, towards the Success of your Majesty's Arms over your rebellious Subjects; at the same Time most ardently wishing, that your Majesty's gracious Offers of Mercy, together with the firm Support of your dutiful and loyal Subjects, may influence the Hearts of the Rebellious to return to their Duty and Allegiance; and that your whole People reunited may, with us, be convinced, that to be a British Subject, with all its Consequences, is to be the freest Member of any Civil Society in the World.

And we pray to God, that your Majesty and your Progeny may long reign over these Realms in undisturbed Peace and undiminished Splendor.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Sutherland.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County for Sutherland, sensible that, under your mild and equitable Administration, we, among other Blessings, enjoy every Species of Liberty compatible with the Existence of Society, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that none can hold in greater Detestation and Abhorrence than we do, the unnatural Behaviour of your Subjects in America, who have raised the unprovoked Standard of Rebellion against your gracious Government, and the legal Authority of Parliament. With the deepest Concern we see, that their Obstinacy and Contempt of the Lenity exercised towards them, by your Majesty's Humanity and Aversion to Bloodshed, render the most vigorous Measures absolutely necessary for reducing their rebellious Spirit; and we assure your Majesty that we, and the other Inhabitants of this most loyal County, are all ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support your Majesty in all such Measures as the Wisdom of your Parliament may find necessary for quelling this Rebellion, and for securing and preserving the just and Constitutional Rights of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

By Order, and in Presence of the Meeting,
Dornoch, Nov. 22, 1775. James Sutherland, P.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Banff, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk. One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Banff.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Banff, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to testify our Disapprobation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of your Majesty's Colonies in America.

We admire your Majesty's Moderation and Temper, which, while your Majesty exerts that firm and constitutional Spirit to subdue, yet still holds forth the Ecce-nvolence to pardon those who return to Duty.

We most humbly assure your Majesty, that we will support your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, in maintaining the Authority of the Legislature over every Part of the British Dominions.

We pray God to direct your Majesty's Councils and Measures, and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, at Banff, the Twenty-first Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Years, by our Præses.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Elgin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, of the County of Elgin, sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to testify our Abhorrence horrence of that avowed Rebellion which exists in the Colonies in America.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will support your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, in maintaining the Dignity of your Crown, and the Authority of the Legislature over every Part of the British Dominions.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the City of Elgin, North Britain, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Staates Long Morris, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the City of Elgin, North Britain.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of your antient City of Elgin, beg Leave, upon this Occasion, to approach your Throne, and humbly to assure your Majesty of our firm and inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government.

Deeply impressed with a grateful Sense of the many valuable Blessings and Privileges we enjoy, in common with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majesty's wise and mild Administration, we should think ourselves greatly wanting in that Respect, Duty, and Allegiance, we owe to the best of Kings, if we omitted this Opportunity of testifying our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion that presently exists in some of your Majesty's Colonies in America; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support all such Measures, as shall be judged necessary by your Majesty and Parliament, to put a speedy End to this unprovoked Rebellion, which, we apprehend, has been greatly encouraged and abetted by the seditious Practices of a turbulent and discontented Faction at Home. It is our sincere and ardent Prayer to the Supreme Disposer of all Things, that the Divisions amongst your misguided and deluded American Subjects may subside; that Peace, good Order, and a just and Constitutional Dependence upon the Mother Country, may again be restored, without the further Effusion of Human Blood; and that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by our Appointment, by John Duff, Provost.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Burgh of Lanark, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Cockburn, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Town-Council, and Deacons of Crafts, of the Burgh of Lanark, in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH affectionate Hearts, full of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and impressed in the most sensible Manner with the Blessings that flow from your mild and auspicious Reign, permit us, at this important Crisis, to express our Abhorrence of that rebellious Spirit which has prompted your deluded Subjects in America to take Arms in Opposition to your Majesty's Government, and to the Legal Authority of Parliament.

We have with the greatest Concern beheld the many unjust Attempts which have been made to disturb the Tranquillity of your Majesty's Reign. We sincerely wish that our unhappy and deluded Fellow-Subjects in America may see their Error, and return to their Duty; but if they shall continue in their unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion, with our Lives and Fortunes we will assert the Supremacy of your Majesty and Parliament over every Part of the British Empire; and hope the Sons of Sedition may be taught, that the same Arm which was lately stretched out for their Defence and Security, and which drove all their Enemies far from their Confines, can with equal Ease chastise ungrateful and rebellious Subjects. Happy that the Rod is in the most mild and merciful Hand, in the Hand of the Father and the Friend of his People.

We pray that God Almighty, for these Purposes, may bless your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom, grant Success to your Arms, restore Peace and Tranquillity to all your Subjects, and spare your Majesty long to reign with Honour and Glory over a happy, a free, and united People.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Lanark, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five Years, by Robert Bell, Provost.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Kincardine, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commissioners of the Land Tax of the County of Kincardine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen of the County of Kincardine, in General Meeting assembled, esteem it our Duty on the present Occasion to express, with the highest Sense of Gratitude, the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's free and lenient Government; and to avow our firm and unalterable Resolution to support, by every Exertion of our Powers, the Measures adopted by your Majesty and the Parliament of Great Britain, for suppressing the Rebellion now subsisting in your Majesty's Colonies in America.

With the most ardent Prayers for your Majesty's Happiness, and the long Continuance of your Reign over a free and a grateful People, we most sincerely wish for the speedy Success of your Majesty's Endeavours to reduce the Colonies to a just Subordination to the Legislative Powers of Great Britain, and due Obedience to your Majesty's Government.

Signed, in Name of the General Meeting, and by their Appointment, at Stonhaven, the 29th Day of November, 1775 Years,

R. Barclay, Præses.

The following Address of the Ministers and Presbytery of Irvine has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Loudoun, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, met here this Day, beg Leave to approach your Throne; deeply sensible of the many Blessings both of a Sacred and Civil Nature, which we enjoy under your Majesty's equitable and mild Administration.

We think ourselves called upon by the present Circumstances of Public Affairs to declare unanimously our Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and our Abhorrence of that Spirit of Licentiousness and Rebellion which prevails so extensively in your Majesty's Colonies.

We are happy in being able to assure your Majesty, that the numerous People under our Care have the same Sentiments of Loyalty with ourselves, detest that ungrateful and unnatural Rebellion, and are disposed to do every Thing in their Power to strengthen the Hands of Government, in taking the most vigorous Measures to put a speedy Stop to it, and to re-establish Peace and Harmony upon a solid and lasting Foundation.

That Almighty God may direct your Majesty's Councils, els, and give Success to the Measures of Government for restoring Peace and bringing the rebellious Part of your American Subjects to a just Sense of the invaluable and peculiar Blessings that accrue to them from the happy Constitution of the British Empire, is our most earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Presbytery of Irvine, this Twenty-eighth Day of November, Seventeen hundred and seventy-five, by Henry Graham, Moderator.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Freeholders of the County of Orkney, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Dundas, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Stirling, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Freeholders of the County of Orkney, think it our indispensable Duty at this Time to approach your Throne, and to testify our Regard and Reverence for your Majesty's Person and Government, and for the established Constitution of the British Empire.

Deeply impressed with these Sentiments, we view with Abhorrence the unnatural Rebellion which has broke forth among your Subjects in America, and the Anarchy and Confusion into which these once happy People have been so rashly hurried by the artful Designs of factious and desperate Men.—We earnestly hope that the Parliament, the Great Council of this Nation, will give your Majesty such Advice and Assistance, as will enable You not only effectually to crush this Civil War, but also to restore and establish in every Part of the British Dominions that Obedience and Regard to the Supreme Power of King and Parliament, which every good Subject must clearly perceive can alone continue and insure to them the innumerable Blessings they enjoy from our happy Constitution, and your Majesty's most lenient Government.

With unfeigned Zeal we assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times concur, with others of your faithful Subjects, in every Step which your Majesty's paternal Care and the Wisdom of Parliament shall deem necessary to be taken, for repressing the unlawful Violence and Confusion now existing in America, which is so contrary to the Spirit of true Liberty, and destructive and dangerous to the Peace and Happiness of this Empire.

Signed, in our Name and at our Appointment, by our Prefes;

Patrick Graeme, Preses.

Orkney, November 14, 1775.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Rutherglen, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Rutherglen, deeply impressed with a Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, and to declare our Disapprobation and Abhorrence of the Rebellion now supported by some of your Majesty's deluded Subjects in North America, against their lawful Sovereign and the Constitution of the British Empire.

We sincerely wish, that the Measures adopted by your Majesty and Parliament may be vigorously prosecuted, for reducing your rebellious Subjects under a due Obedience to the Laws, and for establishing the Dependence of the Colonies on their Mother Country.

Permit us to assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and of our sincere and hearty Resolution to support the Administration of your Majesty's Government.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Town-Council, this Twenty-ninth Day of November, Seventeen hundred and seventy-five Years.

James Fleming, Provost.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy, of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable James Stuart Mackenzie, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, assembled at Dingwall, this 23d Day of November, 1775 Years.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Uninfluenced by the artful Chicane of Party, unacquainted with the venal Prostitution of Faction, but firmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Government, we, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Heretors, Freeholders, and Clergy of the Counties of Ross and Cromarty, though locally distant, presume to approach the Throne, at this most important and critical Period.

The impartial Administration of Justice, tempered with Mildness and Mercy, the equitable Measures pursued for the Good of the whole Empire, and the Protection we are blessed with in the Enjoyment of our Liberties, both Sacred and Civil, under your Majesty's Government, must distinguish your Majesty's Reign in the Annals of the British Constitution.

Free and happy as we are, it is therefore with an inexpressible Concern we behold many of our Fellow-Subjects in America, incited and supported by factious and designing Men at Home, violating all the sacred Ties of Cordiality and Commerce, which should subsist between the Mother Country and her Colonies, taking up the Arms of unnatural Rebellion, and actually engaged in Hostilities with the Parent who tenderly fostered and supported them with her Treasure and Blood.

We place the justest Reliance upon the Wisdom and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils, whereby we soon hope to see re-established the supreme Authority of the British Legislature over every Part and Dependency of its extensive Empire.

Since the lenient Measures and Moderation hitherto shewn have not brought back the deluded Sons of America to a Sense of their Duty, but call for stronger and coercive Measures, we therefore beg Leave, in the most respectful and dutiful Manner, to assure your Majesty, that we will at all Times, to the utmost of our Power, be ready to support your Majesty, and the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, as well as the Legislative Authority of these Realms, in Defence of our inestimable Constitution; and that, for these Ends, we shall have no Hesitation in convincing your rebellious and deluded Subjects in America, that with the same Chearfulness we so profusely spill'd our Blood in the last War, in defending them against their and our natural Enemies, we are now ready to shed it, if necessary, in bringing them back to a just Sense of their Duty and Allegiance to your Majesty, and their Subordination to the Mother Country: And we can assure your Majesty, that these are the Sentiments which prevail among all Ranks of People in these Northern Parts of your Majesty's Dominions.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, by Harry Munro, Preses.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverury, has been presented to His Majesty by Colonel Staates Long Morris, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Council-House of Inverury, November 23, 1775.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverury.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverury, think it our Duty at this Time to approach the Throne, and humbly speak our Sentiments, on the present most alarming Crisis of Publick Affairs.

While under your Majesty we enjoyed all the Blessings of the best Government the Wisdom of Man ever devised, we have seen with Indignation the malignant Breath of disappointed Faction, by prostituting the sacred Sounds of Liberty, too successful in blowing the Sparks of a temporary Discontent into the Flames of a Rebellion in your Majesty's Colonies, that we from our Souls abhor.

This is now grown to such a daring and dangerous Height, that we doubt not the same paternal Tenderness that directed the lenient Measures, with which the first Swellings

Swellings of this Distemper were treated, will apply such fervent Remedies to the affected Parts, as shall be necessary to restore that Union and Dependency of the Whole on the Legislative Power, on which the Health, Strength, and Happiness of the British Empire depends.

In the Prosecution of which, to the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, we doubt not will be joined the Hearts and Hands of all that love their Country, and that Sovereign who is so truly the Guardian of its Constitution and Liberty.

May this best, this most abused of human Blessings, be long dispensed by your Majesty, and late, very late, may You leave your Reign, the rare Example of a Prince, who loved, revered, and strengthened, the Rights of His People.

Signed by Appointment,
Geo. Burnett, Provost.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Ancient Burrow of Jedburgh, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Jedburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your ancient Burrow of Jedburgh, beg Leave, in the present important Conjunction, to express the grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's mild and equitable Reign; of your constant and tender Attention to the Happiness and Honour of the Nation, and the religious and civil Liberties of your People.

Inspired with a Love and Admiration of our Constitution, we cannot without Alarm hear Doctrines maintained subversive of the Principles upon which it is established; the Supreme Power of Parliament, the Basis and Security of British Liberty, denied and opposed by a great Number of your American Subjects, who grown insolent from Prosperity, and lost to all Sense of Justice and Gratitude, proceeding from Tumult to Rebellion, obstinately persevere in the rash and desperate Purpose of shaking off their Constitutional Dependence on the Mother Country.

We feel most sensibly for these of our American Brethren, whose Attachment to Order and Government continually subjects them to Violence and Outrage; we feel even for those, who misled from Duty by the insidious Protestations of Loyalty and Patriotism, under which ambitious Men have been carrying on their interested Schemes, are likely to fall Victims to their unhappy Delusion.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we view with the highest Indignation and Abhorrence, both their Principles and Designs; and that we are ready, to the utmost of our Power, to vindicate, and support the Interests of this Kingdom, and the Constitutional Dependence of all its Colonies.

We confide in the Justice and Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament, for the Measures proper to be pursued; and trust, that, from a suitable Exertion of the Powers of Government, and the Wisdom of your Councils, their daring Attempts shall not only be frustrated, but the unnatural Intension extinguished, Unity restored, and a more permanent Tranquillity secured.

That this desirable Event may be speedily and happily accomplished, and that your Majesty may long reign in Peace and Prosperity over a happy and grateful People, is our ardent Wish and Prayer.

Sealed and signed, for and in our Name and by our Order and Authority, in Council assembled, this Second Day of December, 1775 by,

A. Andrew Lockup.

The following Address of the Magistrates, Council, and Incorporations of the Royal Burgh of Cupar in Fife, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Incorporations of your Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, beg Leave humbly to testify to your Majesty our unshaken Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government.

That sensible of the many valuable Blessings we, with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, enjoy, under your mild, legal, and just Government, do, with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, see an unnatural Rebellion broke out in your Majesty's American Colonies, influenced by some restless and seditious Spirits among themselves, and not a little fomented by a small disappointed Faction at Home; and we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that (with the almost universal Voice of your Majesty's British Subjects) we will concur, with Heart and Hand, Life and Goods, in supporting your Majesty in executing those Measures You shall judge most effectual for restoring Peace, Liberty, and a due Dependence on your Majesty and the Legislative Authority of this Empire, in the British American Colonies; where Rebellion, Tyranny, Oppression, and Confusion, do at present prevail.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Baxter, Provost.

Cupar, December 6, 1775.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Cockburn, Barr. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts filled with the most grateful Acknowledgements, for the many Blessings we have enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and Constitutional Government.

While we thankfully acknowledge these Blessings, it is with the utmost Abhorrence we observe a most unnatural Spirit of Disaffection, which has for some Time past prevailed in several of your Majesty's Colonies in America, and which has now broke out into a daring and open Rebellion; a Rebellion the more unjustifiable and ungrateful, as being raised against the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the Legislative Authority of Great-Britain, which has always been anxiously concerned, and careful to provide for their Safety and Security, even at the Expence of much Blood and Treasure.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we and the whole Inhabitants of this Burgh whom we represent, are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support all such Measures as your Majesty and the Wisdom of Parliament shall judge necessary, to put a speedy End to this unnatural Rebellion, which appears to us to have been greatly fomented and encouraged by the Machinations of a seditious and discontented Party at Home.

That Almighty God may bless your Majesty's Councils, give Success to your Arms; that a speedy Reconciliation may take Place among all your Subjects, and that you may have a long and prosperous Reign over a free and happy People, is our sincere Prayer.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Town-Council of Selkirk, this 21st Day of November, 1775 Years.

Thomas Currier, Chief Magistrate.

St. James's, December 15.

Knights

Knights Companions, according to their Seniority, Juniors first.

Sir George Howard, Knight Elect.

Sir Charles Thompson.

Sir Ralph Payne.

Sir Charles Frederick.

Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherst.

The Bishop of Rochester, Dean of the Order, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge.

Then, by the Sovereign's Command, Lieutenant-General Irwine was introduced into the Presence by Sir Charles Thompson and Sir Ralph Payne, the two Junior Knights present, preceded by Francis Barker, Esq; Corporal of His Majesty's Yeomen of the Guard, officiating, with the Sovereign's Permission, as Gentleman Usher Daily Waiter, with Reverences as before.

The Sword of State was delivered by Sir Charles Frederick, the second Knight in Seniority; and Lieutenant-General Irwine, kneeling, was knighted therewith; then the Right Honourable Sir Jeffery Amherst, the Senior Knight, presented the Ribbon and Badge to the Sovereign; His Majesty put them over the new Knight's Right Shoulder; who being thus invested, and having kissed His Majesty's Hand, the Procession returned to the Privy Chamber in the above Order, Sir John Irwine, the new Knight, preceding the Knight Elect.

The Ceremony was performed in His Majesty's Closet, several Great Officers of the Court being present.

Secretary of State's Office, Whitehall, December 16.

BY the last Advices received from Quebec, of the 26th of October, it appears, that General Carleton, who was then at Montreal, had formed a considerable Corps of Canadians and English; that he, and Lieutenant-Colonel Maclean who commanded another Corps on Sorel River, were preparing to proceed, by separate Routes, to the Relief of St. John's, which had been for some Time invested by the Rebels, without their being able to make any Impression upon it; and that there was the greatest Probability, that the Country would be soon cleared of those Invaders, whose Force was considerably diminished by Sickness and Desertion, and in great Want of necessary Supplies.

There are no Advices from Boston later than the 12th of October, when General Gage left it invested as before by the Rebel Army, which had however attempted nothing since the Affair of Bunker's Hill.

The Earl of Dunmore, Governor of Virginia, acquaints the Secretary of State, in a Letter dated the 22d of October, on Board the Ship William, off Norfolk, that on the 15th his Lordship had landed with a Party of between 70 and 80 Men in the Neighbourhood of the Town of Norfolk, and destroyed 17 Pieces of Ordnance, and brought off 2 more, which had been carried away from that Town by the Rebels, and concealed in the Country; that on the 17th he had landed again at about Eight Miles from the Town, and marched between Two and Three Miles into the Country, where about Two hundred Shirt Men were collected to oppose him, but who fled into the Woods upon the Appearance of the Party, leaving behind them some Small Arms and Ammunition, which his Lordship carried off; that on the 19th he had again landed, and destroyed Ten Guns, and brought off Six, at a Distance of Two Miles from the Coast; and on the 20th brought off Six more; and on the 21st, the Day before his Lordship's Letter is dated, he had landed again, and brought off Ten Guns, and Two Cohorns, and about Sixty Small Arms, and a great Quantity of Ball of different Sizes; and his Lordship imagines there are not any Military Stores remaining in the Possession of the Rebels in that Part of the Province. In these several Landings his Lordship made seven Prisoners, among whom is one Robinson, a Deputy to the Provincial Convention; and one Mathews, a Captain of the Minute Men.

Whitehall, December 16.
