THE following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Citizens of Dublin, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Citizens of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,
WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, Freeholders, Merchants, Traders, Manufacturers, and other Citizens of Dublin, the Metropolis of your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, feeling ourselves at this Time particularly called upon, embrace with Pleasure the Opportunity of testifying to your Majesty our steadfast Loyalty, and zealous Attachment to your Sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity; for the Preservation and Honour of which, we are and ever shall be ready to devote our Lives and Fortunes; truly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We hear, with equal Sorrow and Astonishment, that many of your misguided Subjects in America have withdrawn themselves from their Allegiance to your Majesty. We lament that, influenced by the Counsels of wicked and designing Men, they have even dared to adopt a System tending to render themselves independent of the Parent Country; yet, deeply affected by the Troubles subsisting in the Colonies, we have the fullest Reliance on your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice, that you will pursue with Firmness such Measures as may tend effectually to restore the violated Rights of the British Empire.

We feel ourselves bound, at so important and critical a Conjunction, most humbly and zealously to lay our Hearts at the Foot of the Throne, and to express our warmest Gratitude for your Majesty's paternal Goodness to this your Kingdom of Ireland, so recently and so amply shewn by several Acts of the British Parliament for the Encouragement of our Commerce, Manufactures, and Agriculture: And our Duty also leads us to acknowledge the grateful Sense we entertain of your Majesty's peculiar Indulgence, in sending to preside over us so excellent a Chief Governor; to whose faithful Representation of our Loyalty and Attachment we attribute these important Advantages, which have flowed to us from your Royal Protection and Favour.

Alarmed with Apprehensions from what we have heard, and grateful for the Blessings we feel and enjoy, we cannot avoid fervently to offer our Prayers to the Almighty, for the Preservation of your Majesty's Royal Person and Family; that your Reign over us may be long and happy, and that you may ever triumph over the Enemies of our glorious Constitution.

N. B. No Attendance will be given at this Office on the Day of Ball, after Two o'Clock in the Afternoon.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 9, 1776.

TO prevent the Inconveniences which have arisen from the Space before their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded; it is requested that those Ladies only, who mean to Dance, will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Moscow, December 7, N. S. On Tuesday last, being St. Catherine's Day, there was a Court in the Morning, and a very brilliant Ball in the Evening.

The same Day Count Potemkin was appointed Governor-General of Astracan.

This Day, being the Festival of St. George, the Knights of the Order had, as usual, the Honour of dining with her Imperial Majesty. Several new Knights were created, and a considerable Number promoted; amongst the latter was Count Potemkin to the Second Class of the Order.

The Departure of her Imperial Majesty from hence is fixed for the 15th of December, O. S. and that of the Great Duke and Dutchess for the 7th.

Admiralty-Office, January 6, 1776.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the First Instant the Ship Providence, of Newcastle, of the Burthen of Two Hundred Tons, whereof George Heath was Master, bound from Newcastle to London, laden with Coals, having, in a Gale of Wind, struck on The Cutler, a Sand near Woodbridge Haven in the County of Suffolk, she immediately went to Pieces, but the Crew saved themselves by their Boats.
