

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday January 18. to Monday January 22. 1676.

Portsmouth, Jan. 18.

ON Tuesday last sailed from hence the Squadron of Dutch Men of War under the command of the Sieur Altemonde, which put in here, for that the Frost hindered their entrance into their own Ports, which are now open through the thaw.

Warsaw, Jan. 1. We expect their Majesties in this City, about the middle of this month, when the Dyet will be assembled here; the two great points, of which they will treat of will be concerning the Peace with the Ottomans, which must be ratified by them, and the raising Moneys for the paying of the Army. There be those that would fain persuade themselves that some difficulty will arise in the first point, that is, That the Dyet will not ratifie the said Peace, because, as they pretend, it is too disadvantageous to this Crown, which yields by it Caminie, and a large Territory thertunto belonging to the Turks; but when we remember with what a general joy and suti faction the news of the conclusion of the said Peace was received the whole Kingdom over, there is little ground to doubt but that the Dyet will as cheerfully ratifie it, and even return his Majesty thanks, as for the great dangers and fatigues he exposed his person to, so for his having restored Peace to this Kingdom, at a time when it stood so much in need of it.

Copenhagen, Jan. 9. On Thursday last four Companies of new raised men were sent over to Landcroon to strengthen the Garison there, though we have no great apprehension that the Enemy will make any attempt upon that place during the present season. The same day our King accompanied with his Brother Prince George went to Cronenburg, to be so much nearer for the giving the necessary orders relating to the affairs in Schonen. The Besieged in the Castle of Helsingburg make hitherto a good defence, but they begin it seems to be in some want of fresh water, wherefore our King has resolved to attempt their relief; for which end a great number of small Boats have been provided; and we are assured that in a day or two this design will be executed. The Sieur Tromp purposes to part hence in few days for Holland, as well to look after some particular concerns, as to sollicite the equipage of a Squadron of Men of War for the Balticke. We have advice that Count Magnus de la Gardie is fallen with a great Body of Suedes into Norway, and that he hath very much ruined the Country.

Ditto, Jan. 12. Our preparations for the relief of the Castle of Helsingburg were it seems too late; for yesterday about three in the afternoon the Castle was surrendered; and the Suedes took possession thereof; the Garison consisted in 700 men; but what conditions they made for themselves we cannot yet learn, notwithstanding the King this morning sent a Trumpet over to know; whom the Suedes returned with a civil answer without any satisfaction as to the message he was sent upon. The general belief is that the said Garison are made Prisoners of War; had they held out one or two days longer an attempt would have been made for their relief; but we believe they were necessitated to surrender through want of fresh water, which we had some days before heard begun to fail.

Hamburg, Jan. 19. To morrow the Duke of Lunenbourg Zell is expected at Staden, when the Conferences will be renewed concerning the partition of the Conquests in Bremen. Levies are making in all these parts for the service of the King of Denmark, and we are told that Commissions have in all been given out for the raising of 12 new Regiments.

Strasburg, Jan. 15. The French let us see they are now in good earnest resolved to quit Hagenaw, for they have already demolished the new Fortifications, which have cost many thousand Crowns, and now they are going to do the like to the old Walls; and that the Imperialists may not make any use of the said place, they have resolved likewise to demolish the Town-house, and several other principal houses, which might otherwise serve for Magazines. We are told that Deuxponts and Stevorne are likewise to be slighted, the most Christian King not intending to have any Army in Alsace this next Campaign.

Cologne, Jan. 15. The Duke of Newbourg is expected about the end of this month at Duse Corp; and it is said that the Treaty of Marriage between his eldest Son and the Emperors Sister is as good as concluded. From Lintz they write, that their Imperial Majesties intended to part thence the 9th instant, on their return to Vienna. From Spire they tell us, that the Duke of Lorraine had changed the Garison of Phillipsburg.

Nimeguen, Jan. 23. We are now in hopes to see the preliminary point concerning the form of powers for the several Ambassadors speedily adjusted, to the satisfaction of all. Here is arrived his Excellency my Lord Ambassador Hide, who returning from his employment in Poland, received a command from His Majesty of Great Britain to repair thither, with the character of His Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, to assist the other Ambassadors his Colleagues in the mediating a general Peace, though it is said his Excellency will continue here for a certain time only.

Amsterdam, Jan. 25. The Admiralty of this place hath received Letters from the Commander Jacob Binches written at the Island of Tobago the 27 of September last past, in which he gives an account, That after the taking of Cajana, and the executing his design at Espagnola, he was come with the Men of War under his command to Tobago, and had possessed himself of that Island, which he had found in a very good condition; that he was about raising a Fort there; that the ships under the command of the Sieur Rood, who sailed out of the Texel the 25 of May, laden with Ammunition, Provisions, and other necessaries, were likewise arrived there. There are also Letters from the Sieur Spranger Governour of Cajana, advising of the good condition of that Colony, and that he daily employed 50 Negroes to raise several Fortifications necessary for the defence of the Colony.

Hague, Jan. 22. The Sieur Blaspyl, Ambassador and Plenipotentiary of the Elector of Brandenburg for the the Treaty at Nimeguen, having been some days intoairo here, and having had several Conferences with his Highness the Prince of Orange, and the Deputies of this State, is returned again to Nimeguen. We are told that among other things he proposed the forming a Body of 8000 men, who are to have their station near Ruremond, to awe the Garrison of Mastricht, and to prevent its incursions into the neighbouring Counties. The Sieur Van Amerongen is returned hither from Bremen, where he hath assisted on the part of this State at the Conferences that have been held there by the Allies. The Duke of Villa Hermosa Governor of the Spanish Netherlands has sent hither his Adjutant-General, to give this State an account of the great preparations the French make in those parts for an early Campaign; upon which it hath been resolved that six Regiments of Foot of this State shall march forthwith towards Brabant. On Saturday next his Highness means to part hence for Soesdyk, where and at Dieren his Highness will pass some time. Our advices from Spain inform us of great alterations that had happened at that Court; that the Marquis of Villa Sierra had been forced for his safety, as well as in obedience to the Kings command, to leave Madrid, and that Don Juan of Austria was expected there in few days, in order to the taking upon him the management of the affairs of the Monarchy, in which however it is said he will be opposed, not only by those who are in the interest of the Marquis of Villa Sierra, but likewise by another party, who are against having the Ministry either in the hands of the said Marquis, or of Don Juan, but desire his Majesty would make choice of a third person fit for so great a trust. Our next Letters will tell us the issue of all.

Ditto, Jan. 26. The 23 instant his Highness parted hence for Soesdyke, and the next day his Excellency Sir William Temple Ambassador Extraordinary of His Majesty of Great Britain, having dispatched the affairs he came about relating to his particular Embassie to this State, returned to Nimeguen, from whence they write of a good appearance there was, that the matter of the Powers for the several Ambassadors, in which so much time had been spent, would be suddenly adjusted to the satisfaction of all, and that then they would without farther loss of time proceed to the substantial part of the Treaty. We hear of much harm that hath been done through the high waters, occasioned by the late thaw, and the violent winds we have had, and of several Dikes that have been broken through, by which means much Countrey hath been set under water, and a great deal of Cattle drowned. From Denmark our Letters give us an account that the Castle of Helsingburg was surrendered to the Suedes the day before the King intended to have attempted the relief of it, to which end great preparation had been made, and many small Boats provided.

Madrid, Decemb. 31. It seems the dissatisfaction which most of the Grandees and others of the Nobility had conceived against the Marquis of Villa Sierra lately declared first Minister of State, came at last so far, that the Duke of Alba, the Duke of Aveira, the Duke of Arcos, the Prince of Castigliano, and 15 or 16 more of the principal persons of this Kingdom entered into a mutual Engagement, and confirmed the same by Oath, to represent to the King the danger and ill consequences which would arise from the Marquis of Villa Sierra's continuing in the Ministry, and not to desert till they had removed him from Court, and brought Don Juan thither, as likewise till that part of the late Kings Will was performed, which says, That when the King was entered into his Majority, the Queen should retire into a Nunnery; the Council of Castile joined with them herein, and took their time to represent the state of things to his Majesty, who, as is said, was at first displeas'd with the representations they made, but the thing having been noised abroad, it legat some inquietness in the minds of the people, which it was feared would have occasioned some disorder among them, through the great desire they had to see Don Juan at Court, and the Marquis of Villa Sierra retired from thence. In the mean time the King sent for the Cardinal of Aradon to consult with him, being a person of great eminence, and highly esteemed and respected by all.

 The Cardinal being cometo Court together with Don Pedro his Brother, the Duke of Medina Celi, &c. humbly advised his Majesty forthwith to send for Don Juan, as the best way not only to prevent the disorder which the unquietness of mens minds at present threatned, but likewise to provide for the honour, safety and happiness of his Kingdoms; upon which his Majesty resolved, and accordingly commanded that the Marquis of Villa Sierra should leave Madrid forthwith; that Don Juan should be declared chief Minister, and should be sent to immediately to repair to Court; and that the Queen his Mother should be desired in a convenient time to perform the last Will of the late King, and to retire into a Nunnery; which was no sooner known in Town, but it occasioned a general rejoicing among the people, and immediately dissipated all those troubles which were before apprehended. We are told that Don Juan will be here the 5 or 6 of the next month, and that the Queen has written to him, declaring her satisfaction in what the King has been pleased to do for the good of the publick. It is said that the Count de Monterey and several other persons of quality accompany Don Juan on his way hither, and that they are attended by 5000 armed Men.

Paris, Jan. 25. You were told several months since of the departure of Count d' Esprez with a good Squadron of Men of War under his command for Thulun; it was then said, that he went to watch the Spanish Plate Fleet, and to endeavor to intercept it; but at present we are informed that he has been directed to take his course to the Cape of Good Hope, to way-lay the Dutch East-India ships that are expected home this year. Our Troops still march towards Flanders; and the discourse still continues, that Duxports and Savone are to be demolished as well as Hoguenaw; to which is added that the Duke of Laxemburg is appointed to command the Army again in Germany this next Campaign, and that the Prince of Conde will not go into the Field. The Letters we receive directly from Sicily, do contradict what was written from Rome, of the Duke of Pavonne's having taken Melazzo and Catania.

Advertisements.

☞ A Sermon Preached before the King at Whitehall, Decemb. 28, 1676. By Thomas Sprat D<sup>D</sup> Chaplain in Ordinary to His Majesty. Published by His Majesties special Command, Sold by Henry Brome at the Gun at the West-end of St Pauls.

ON Thursday next, the 25 instant, at the great Corner House of Charles Street, next to St James's great Square, will continue the Sale for several sorts of Household Goods, as old Tapistry Hangings, Damask Beds, Cloth Beds lined, Serge and Camblet Beds, Feather Beds, Quilts, Chairs, Carpers, Pictures, Skreens and Chests of Drawers, &c. which by the extremity of the late Frost was discontinued, but now is intended to continue for the space of six weeks longer; those that want old deep Tapistry Hangings, or odd Pieces, may more especially there be fitted. The House, with Coach-house and Stables is likewise to be Lett.

These are to give Notice, That if any person hath any Money, Plate, Jewels, Bonds, Bills, or other Securities for Money, or any Deeds or Evidences that were or did, or do belong unto Mrs Francis Hancock, or her Estate, who lived in the White Fryers, London, and was the Wife of Peter Hancock the elder Esq; residing in the Barbadoes, she said Mrs. Francis Hancock dying suddenly on the 21 of December last, that before they pay or dispose thereof, they are desired to acquaint Mr. Peter Hancock her Son, or Mr. Roger Lambert in Two-Gate Court in Fleetstreet therewith, and they shall be well rewarded for so doing.

Taken Jan. 16. out of the Stable of Francis Walker of the City of Worcester Esq; one sorrel Gelding, 15 hands high, seven years old, with flaxen mane and tail, and a long blaze in the face; and one chestnut Gelding, 14 hand high, five years old, with a star newly made, the white hairs appearing. If any person shall secure the Person or Horses or either of them, and give notice to the said Francis Walker Esq; or to Edward Buckley Esq; at the Office of the new Farmers of the Hearth-money in Throckmorton-street, London, or to Mr Isaac Swift in Chester, and he shall have five pounds for his pains.