To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, approach your Majesty with their Congratulations on the happy Delivery of their most amiable Queen, and the Birth of another Princess; and to assure your Majesty, that there are not in all your Dominions any Subjects more faithful, or more ready to maintain the true Honour and Dignity of your Crown,

They

They will continue to rejoice at every Event which adds to your Majesty's domestic Felicity; and they hope that every Branch of the August House of Brunswick will add further Security to those Sacred Laws and Liberties which their Ancestors would not suffer to be violated with Impunity, and which, in Consequence of the glorious and necessary Revolution, that Illustrious House was called forth to protect and defend.

Signed by Order of Court,
William Rix.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I Thank you for this dutiful Address on the happy Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of another Princess.

St. James's, May 4.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, now assembled about the Affairs of the Church within our District, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, with Hearts full of Affection and Loyalty, to declare in the strongest Manner our warm and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, and to express our Abhorrence of the Rebellion now subsisting in your Colonies in North America.

This Rebellion we consider as unnatural towards the Parent State, and ungrateful to the best of Sovereigns, whose Reign has been so much distinguished by Wisdom, Justice, and Clemency.

We are happy to assure your Majesty, that the People under our Charge entertain the same just Sentiments; and we shall not fail, great Sir, at this critical Juncture, to enforce upon them Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty, and of Submission to Government.

That the Divine Providence may so guide your Majesty's Councils, and prosper your Arms, as that the present Civil War may be brought to a speedy and happy Conclusion, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's faithful Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.
