From Saturday June 1, to Tuesday June 4, 1776.

St. James's, June 4.

THIS being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Birth-Day, the same was observed at Court, where there was a very numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment His Majesty on the Occasion. At Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there will be a Ball at Court; and Illuminations, and other Public Demonstrations of Joy, throughout London and Westminster.

St. James's, June 4.

The following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Cathcart, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, animated with the same Sentiments of Loyalty, which prevail among the People under our Care, embrace this first Opportunity of joining with them in declaring, that, at this interesting Juncture, our Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and our Zeal for the Constitution and Rights of Great Britain continue firm and unshaken.

Under a Constitution founded on the Principles of Liberty, and governed by a Sovereign whose Reign has been uniformly distinguished by a sacred Regard for the Rights of his People, we have enjoyed a Felicity, which our Forefathers struggled and prayed for, but did not obtain; and we daily bless that God, by whom Kings reign, for your mild and equitable Administration. Sensible of our own Happiness, and reposing with Confidence on your Majesty's Attention to the Welfare of all your People, it is with no less Astonishment than Regret, that we have beheld those alarming Events which disturb the Tranquillity of your Reign.

But while we deeply bewail the Progress of that Spirit, which hath prompted our Fellow Subjects in North America, to take Arms, in Opposition to your Majesty's Authority, and the Supremacy of the British Legislature, we contemplate, with peculiar Satisfaction, that striking Proof which your Majesty now gives of your paternal Affection, by vesting in the same respectable Persons whom you have intrusted with the Command of your formidable Fleets and Armies, the Power of displaying the Extent of your Majesty's Clemency, and of conciliating the alienated Minds of your Subjects.

We consider ourselves as called upon in the present Situation of Publick Affairs, to exert our utmost Diligence in discharging the important Functions of our sacred Office, in order to confirm the People committed to our Charge in their Reverence for the Laws of their Country, in their Attachment to the System of legal Government established by the glorious Revolution, and in their Loyalty towards your Majesty, whom they have experienced to be the faithful Guardian of those Liberties, which your Illustrious House was called to maintain.

These Endeavours shall ever be accompanied with our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that he may go forth with the Fleets and Armies of our Country; that he may bless the humane Means employed by your Majesty to recall our Fellow-Subjects to a Sense of their Duty, and to put a speedy Period, without Effusion of Blood, to the present dangerous and unnatural Rebellion; that He, who stilleth the Tumults of the People, and ruleth the Spirit of Man, may, in His good Time, turn the Hearts of the Children unto their Fathers; that out of Confusion Order may arise; that, in Place of Anarchy and Civil Discord, Submission to legal Authority may return; and the Union between Great-Britain and her Colonies may be happily re-established, so that both may long rejoice under the Government of your Majesty, as their common Parent and Benefactor.

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

John Ker, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 28, 1776.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, embrace with Pleasure the Opportunity which our Meeting in a General Assembly affords us of approaching your Throne with respectful Congratulations on the Birth of another Prince.

Animated with the Principles of Loyalty and inviolable Regard to your Royal Person and Family, we cannot fail to rejoice in an Event which adds to your domestic Felicity.

Possessed as we are with Reverence and Gratitude towards the Illustrious House of Hanover, to which, under God, the Nation is indebted for the full Enjoyment of the Protestant Religion, and of Public Liberty, we must consider the Increase of your Royal Family as an happy Pledge of the Security of our Civil and Religious Rights, which our Ancestors were solicitous to establish, by calling your August Family to the Throne of these Kingdoms—On that Throne may it flourish to the latest Posterity.

With our fervent Prayers for the Blessing of the Most High to rest on your Majesty, on your illustrious Consort the Queen, and on all your Royal Progeny, we are,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this national Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

John Ker, Moderator.
