Admiralty-Office, July 30.

BY Letters received from Captain Douglas, of His Majesty's Ship Isis, dated at Quebec the 26th and 27th of last Month, it appears, That immediately after raising the Siege of Quebec, of which he gave an Account in his Letters of the 8th and 15th of May, every proper Measure was taken to facilitate the farther Operations against the Rebels, by sending down the River all the Pilots which could be procured to bring up the Transports that were daily expected with General Burgoyne from England and Ireland; and, that no Time might be lost on their Arrival, he had provided Pilots for the upper River, and placed Frigates and Armed Vessels in proper Stations to assist and escort them; and also, left the Transports should be prevented by contrary Winds from sailing up the River, he had stationed Vessels with Provisions at proper Places for the Use of the Troops, if they should be obliged to disembark and march by Land. By these Dispositions, all the Transports with Troops, which had Pilots on Board, proceeded up the River without stopping at Quebec, and arrived at Three Rivers Time enough to defeat the Rebels, and afterwards drive them from St. John's, and all their Posts below Lake Champlain. Captain Douglas in the same Letter says, that the prudent and spirited Behaviour of Captain Harvey, of the Martin Sloop, cannot be too much commended; and that the Zeal, Vigour, and Unanimity, of His Majesty's Servants on both Elements was scarcely equalled on any other Occasion within his Remembrance. He also writes that he was, in Concert with General Carleton, considering upon a proper Establishment for Armed Vessels to be employed on the Lakes Champlain and Ontario, and in contriving the most expeditious Means of getting them, with other Craft on the said Lakes, in order to the better accelerating the Passage of the Army; and that Captain Harvey, of the Martin, was returning to Sorel, in order to examine into the Means of floating between Camels (as is practised in Russia and Holland) through the Rapids of Chamble into Lake Champlain, the Six Armed Vessels, one of which was already arrived from England, and the others hourly expected.

Admiralty-Office, July 30.

CAPTAIN Le Cras, Senior Captain of His Majesty's Ships at Plymouth, in his Letter, dated the 26th Instant, has the following Paragraph, viz. "The Mercury Brig, a Prize to the Cerberus and Merlin, arrived the Night before; and the Person who had the Command of the said Brig says they parted from the Cerberus the 26th of June, Block Island on the Coast of America, bearing N. N.E. Distance 17 Leagues; and that they then saw Vice Admiral Lord Shuldham with his Squadron, and the Transports under his Convoy, steering W. by S. for New York; and that on the Evening before they had seen the Greyhound Frigate, with General Howe on Board."

Admiralty-Office, July 30.

BY a Letter received from Vice-Admiral Young, dated at Antigua the 31st of May last, it appears, that Captain Bryne, of His Majesty's Ship the Hind, which had been sent on Service to St. Augustine in the Province of Georgia, having Intelligence that the Rebels were fitting Armed Vessels in the adjacent Rivers; and being at Anchor off Sunbury River, he ordered Lieutenant Ellis, of the Hinchinbrooke Armed Schooner, with the Ship's Tender and Boats, mann'd and arm'd, to proceed over the Bar, where they set on Fire a Brig that was loading, and a Ship on the Stocks, intended by the Rebels for a Privateer to carry 20 Guns. It further appears from the Admiral's aforementioned Letter, that since the Account transmitted in his Letter of the 3d of March, and published in the Gazette of the 8th of last Month, the Cruizers under his Command had seized Seventeen more Ships and Vessels, either belonging to or employed in carrying on a Trade with His Majesty's Rebellious Subjects in North America.
