Hamburg, the 10th of September, 1776.

MR. Herman Conrad Schaz, by Procuration of Mr. Lorentz Heybruch, actual Factor of His Great Britannic Majesty and the Elector of Brunswick Lunenburg at Bremervörde, hath denounced to the inferior Court of Justice of this City, by Way of Petition, That he and his Wife Anna Elizabeth Heybruch, born Behn, lately deceased, on the Twenty-ninth of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, had made a reciprocal Testament, which on the Fifteenth of July of this Instant Year was published here, and the Original thereof delivered to the said Court of Judicature, pursuant to which the said Co-Testatrix, loco legitimæ, hath bequeathed and given to her lawful Son, begotten in her first Marriage, by Name Daniel Schomaker, or in Case he should have departed this Life, to his Issue, a Capital of 11400 Marks, Bank Money of Hamburg, by three Assignments notified in the said Testament; and the said Testators, at the Time of making their Testament, not having any sure Account of the said Daniel Schomaker and his Family, or their being alive or dead, it was enjoined to the said Constituent of this Petitioner, in case he should out-live his Wife, to cause a Public Proclamation to be made, by which the said Daniel Schomaker, being a lawful Son of her first Marriage, and as appears by his Letter written about four Years ago, an ordained Parson in a Province of America called Weisenburg Township, where he is married, and has a matrimonial Blessing of five Children, or on his Decease his Posterity were to be summoned, either personally to appear, or to constitute a lawful Attorney for observing the Settling of the said Sum, loco legitimæ, to them bequeathed in the said Testament.

This Petition hath been complied with by the said Court of Judicature, and, terminus peremptorius subpoena præclusi & perpetui silentii, appointed to the said Parson Mr. Daniel Schomaker, or in Case he being no more alive to his Descendants, on the Tenth of January, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, for observing their Rights, and settling this Inheritance, according to the Direction of the Testament; which at the Request aforesaid hereby is publicly made known.

London, November 11, 1776.

ALL Persons who were Shippers of Goods on B and the Duckenfield, William Forster Master, outward-bound for Jamaica in the Year 1770, when she was stranded on the Coast of France, are desired to send their Bills of Lading and Invoices to Arnold Nesbitt, Esq; in Aldermanbury, on or before the First of next Month; as a Dividend will be made of what was saved on the 10th of said Month; and all Persons neglecting to send in their Claims will afterwards be excluded.

Whereas Philip Launder, of Nottingham, Woollen-dra-per, did, by Deed dated the 16th of October, 1772, vest all his Real and Personal Estate in Cornelius Launder, Esq; and Mr. John Foxcroft, both of Nottingham aforesaid, in Trust, for all or such of the Creditors of the said Philip Launder who should accept their proportionable Share of the Money arising therefrom, and give to the said Philip Launder on receiving the same a full Receipt and Discharge for all Money due and owing from him to them respectively; Now we, the said Cornelius Launder and John Foxcroft, do hereby give Notice, that we shall, on the 14th Day of December next, make a Final Dividend of the Money arising from the Real and Personal Estate of the said Philip Launder to all or such of his Creditors who shall accept the same, and give such Receipt and Discharge as aforesaid; and such of the Creditors who do not appear in Person, or by his or her Attorney, on the said 14th Day of December next, and agree to accept of such Dividend in full Payment of his or her Debt, will be excluded the Benefit thereof.
