St. James's, December 17, 1776.
Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the First Day of November last past, an anonymous Threatening Letter, directed "For Mr. Hide Merchant in Cambridge," having the Post-mark on it, was delivered from the Post Office in Cambridge to Mr. Thomas Hide, one of the Aldermen of the Burrough of Cambridge, wherein the Lives of the said Mr. Hide and several other Persons were threatened, and a Conspiracy said to be formed by a Gang of Nineteen Persons for the said wicked Purpose of murdering the Persons mentioned in the said Letter, and likewise setting one of their Houses on Fire, on Account of a supposed Intention in them to give their Votes for Mr. Keene, then a Candidate to represent the said Burrough in Parliament: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in Writing the said Letter, and also the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Conspiracy, is hereby pleased to offer His most-gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Crimes, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mr. Thomas Hide doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Tho. Hide.

And, as a still farther Encouragement, John Newling, Esq; Mayor of Cambridge, doth likewise hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

John Newling, Mayor.

St. James's, December 17, 1776.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Thursday Night the 5th Instant, or early on the Friday Morning following, some Persons unknown broke into the Parish Church of Kenilworth in the County of Warwick, with Intention, as is supposed, to carry away the Church Plate, the said Persons having proceeded to the Vestry Chest, and forced seven Locks, but took nothing away, having been interrupted, it is believed, by the Ringing of the Morning Bell: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said sacrilegious Attempt, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Vestry of the said Parish of Kenilworth do hereby promise a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

St. James's, December 10, 1776.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Neckhold Thompson, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the City of Norwich and County of the same, who, together with the Right Worshipful the Mayor, and other Justices of the Peace in and for the said City and County, hath been active and instrumental in detecting, apprehending, and committing divers Persons for stealing and embezzling divers Quantities of Silk and Woollen Yarn, and other Persons for receiving them, knowing the same to be stolen or embezzled, hath lately received a Threatening Letter to intimidate him from proceeding in his Duty as a Justice of the Peace in Prosecution of Criminals for such Offences; an Extract from which follows in these
