St. James's, May 31.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by the Earl of Dalhousie, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met together in a National Assembly, consider it as our Duty, at this interesting Juncture, to approach your Throne, in order to assure your Majesty, that our Attachment to your Person and Government, and the Zeal of the People under our Care for the Constitution and Rights of Great Britain, continue firm and unshaken.

Sensible of our own Felicity, under the Reign of a Prince, who has been the faithful Guardian of those Laws and Liberties which the Illustrious House of Hanover was called to secure and maintain, we observed with deep Concern the first Appearances of a turbulent and ungovernable Spirit among the People of North America. We have contemplated its alarming Progress with Astonishment, and beheld Fellow-Subjects, who enjoyed, in common with us, the Blessings of your Majesty's mild Administration, take Arms in Opposition to your just Authority, disclaim the Supremacy of the British Legislature, reject with Disdain the Means of Conciliation generously held out to them by your Majesty, and labour to erect their unlawful Confederacies into Independent States.

With Reverence and Gratitude to Divine Providence, we offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the Success which has attended the Fleets and Armies which you have been constrained to employ, in order to oppose the Violence of rebellious Subjects, and reclaim them to a Sense of their Duty. While we trust that your Majesty's Councils will be conducted with Wisdom, and your Troops continue to act with Valour, we regard it as our immediate Duty in the present Situation of Public Affairs, to encrease our Diligence in discharging the Functions of our Sacred Office, that we may not only confirm the People under our Care in Sentiments of Loyalty to their Sovereign, and Attachment to the British Constitution, but may impress all Ranks of Men with a deep Sense of their manifold Transgressions, and incite them to such Reformation in their Hearts and Lives, as will avert from our Country those Judgments which our Iniquities justly deserve.

That the Lord of Hosts, in whose Hand is Power and Might, may go forth with the Fleets and Armies of our Country; that He, who stilleth the Tumults of the People, and ruleth the Spirit of Man, may in His good Timé turn the Hearts of the Children unto their Fathers; that the destroying Sword may return into his Scabbard, and be at Rest; that the Union between Great Britain and her Colonies may be speedily re-established on Terms so just and equitable, that both may long rejoice under the Government of your Majesty, as their common Father and Benefactor, are the daily and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful,
Most obedient, and
Most loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment,
Edinburgh,
