- To which will be joined, 15 Men of War which are fitting out in Holland, by order of the States General.

Ratisbonne, March 3. Yesterday arrived here Signior Beuilacqua, the Popes Nuncio, and in a day or two will continue his journey to Nimeguen. The Imperialists are preparing to take the Field, which they will do so soon as the season is proper. From Hungary they write, that many of the Hungarians come in, and submit themselves daily.

Strasburg, March 7. The Suisse Cantons are still assembled at Baden, not having as yet resolved on the answer to be returned to the instances made by the French Ambassador, concerning their not permitting any Troops to pass through their Territories, though in the mean time the said Cantons have it's said resolved to arm, and put themselves in a posture capable to secure them against the resentment of either side, which they may happen to displeas by the resolution they shall think fit to take. The French continue to work for the demolishing the Citadell of Saverne, where the Sieur de Monclar, lately declared the Kings Lieutenant General in Alsace, at present is, to hasten the said work. From Nancy they write, that they likewise continued to work with great diligence to perfect the Fortifications of that City, that the Marechal Crequi was gone from thence to Metz, being appointed to command the Kings Forces on the side of the Moselle this Campaigne. From Vienna they write, that many of the Hungarians are come in, and submit themselves daily, upon the publication of the Emperors Pardon; and that those that continue in arms are very inconsiderable; That Count Montecuculi purposed to begin his journey from Vienna to the Army about the latter end of this month, and that there was great appearance that the marriages which hath been so often spoken of between the Queen Dowager of Poland the Emperors Sister, and the Duke of Lorraine, would be suddenly concluded.

Cologne, March 12. The Troops of the Bishop of Osnabrug, which are quartered in this Diocess, have received orders to hold themselves ready to march; in order to which they have summoned the Countrey to pay the arrears of the Contributions demanded by them. The Elector of Brandenburg is still at Hamm, though he is so well recovered as to be able to part from thence to Wesel about the end of this week. From Francfort they write, that the Imperial Troops begin to march from several parts, in order to the giving the French a diversion, who we are told have at present most of their Forces in Flanders. From Metz our Letters advise, that the Marechal Crequi having notice thereof, was likewise preparing on his part to oppose them, and accordingly was drawing all the Troops he could together.

Hague, March 13. The tenth instant the States of Holland were again assembled, in order to the raising the Moneys necessary for the supporting the charges of this Campaigne. Yesterday the Regiment of Guards of Foot, consisting in 24 Companies, marched from hence, being led by their Colonel the Count de Solmes, in order to their embarking on the Vessels that are to transport them to the place of Rendezvous, whither all our Cavalry marches by Land. The States General have finally resolved upon the report made to them by the Deputies of the Admiralties, that 15 Men of War, 3 Fireships, and 3 Gallions, shall be forthwith fitted out, to act in the Baltick, in conjunction with the Danish Fleet. On the 18 instant will be performed at Amsterdam the Funerals of the late Lieutenant Admiral de Ruyter, with great Pomp and Solemnity.

Ditto, March 16. His Highness having been the 14 instant in the Assembly of the States of Holland, and yesterday in that of the States General, to take his leave of them, parted from hence this afternoon towards Cleves, where he will have a Conference with the Elector of Brandenburg and the Bishop of Osnabrug, and that done, his Highness will part to his Army in Flanders, which in the mean time is marching thither, under the command of Count Waldeck. The Sieur Meyercroon the Danish Envoy here, has given in a Memorial to the States, in which he desires they will permit him to raise in these Countreies a certain number of Seamen for the service of the King his Master; to which the States have not as yet given any answer; but in the mean time have ordered that the Equipage for the Balticke be proceeded in with all diligence. From Germany they write, that the Duke of Lorraine had received positive orders from the Emperor forthwith to march with such Regiments as he could conveniently draw together, without losing too much time, and to pass the Rhine; some add, that his Highness will come down with the said Forces towards Flanders;
