Lord Chamberlain's-Office, Sept. 13, 1777.

NOTICE is hereby given, That there will be no Drawing-Room at St. James's on the Anniversary of His Majesty's Coronation, Monday the 22d Instant.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, St. James's,

June 17, 1777.

WHEREAS it is supposed that several Persons who have heretofore been appointed Gentlemen of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber in Ordinary, may, in Course of Time, be dead, or removed from their Places of Residence: That it may appear to the Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household who of them are remaining alive, his Lordship is pleased to direct, that all such do, on or before the 30th Day of October, 1777, transmit to Whittled Keene, Esq; at the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, St. James's, an Account of their present Places of Residence.

Petersburg, August 19. On Saturday last the Great Duke came from Zarco Zelo to review Prince Potemkin's Regiment of Cuirassiers, which is encamped a few Wersts from hence. The same Evening the Empress came to Town; and on Sunday Morning her Imperial Majesty went to Mass at the Chapel of the Preobrazensky Guards, (it being the Anniversary Festival of that Regiment:) After which there was a Court at the Summer-Palace, and the Officers of the said Regiment had the Honour to dine with the Empress as usual. In the Evening her Imperial Majesty returned to Zarco Zelo.

East-India House, September 10, 1777.

WHEREAS some Person or Persons unknown have lately, at Two several Times, set Fire to the House of Mess. Nodin and Houlds in Leadenhall-street, nearly adjoining to one of the Warehouses of the East-India Company; which Fire was fortunately soon extinguished, but otherwise might have endangered the said Warehouse:

The Court of Directors of the said Company do hereby promise a Reward of 50l. for the Discovery of the Person or Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said House; to be paid, upon his, her, or their Conviction, by Mr. Mitchell, the Secretary to the said Company.

South Sea House, September 13, 1777.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, that the Transfer Books of Old South Sea Annuities will be shut on Friday the 26th Instant, at Two o'Clock, and opened on Friday the 31st of October next.

And that the Warrants for the Half-year's Interest, due thereon the 10th of October next, will be paid on Saturday the 8th of November following.
