The Original Patent Water-closets

ARE made by William Allan, Cabinet-maker, No 129, New Bond-street, who begs Leave respectfully to apprise the Public, that the uncommon Approbation which this useful Invention has received from the many Nobility, Gentry, and the most eminent Architects, who have fully experienced their superior Merit, has tempted others, in Hopes of invading his Property with Impunity, to mutilate his Construction, and impose on the Public very imperfect ones, under the Sanction of that Reputation which his have already acquired; he therefore finds it necessary to intimate, that the original Patent Water-closets are to be had at his House, and no where else; and that he is resolved in due Time to prosecute those who have thus openly invaded his Property, and pursued Methods so very destructive of his Reputation and Business.
