

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday April 16. to Thursday April 19. 1677.

Madrid, April 7.

THE last of March the Queen parted from Aranjuez to Toledo, where her Majesty was received by the Magistrates of the City, and all the Persons of Quality that were there, with great Ceremony. The Confessor of his Highness Don Juan of Austria, hath had several private Conferences with Don Fernando Valençuela, for whose Trial, several Commissioners or Judges are appointed. At Cadix and at St. Lucar are fitting three Men of War, which are designed to Convey several Vessels laden with Ammunition and Provisions to Sicily, on them will embark Don Fernando Carrillo, who is appointed to command the Armada, though not with the quality of General, which is not disposed of as yet.

Vienna, April 11. The Count de Waldstein, designed Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of England, has been forced by an indisposition to defer his journey much longer than he intended. On Thursday last parted from hence the Marquis de Grana, carrying instructions from the Emperor to the Duke of Lorraine. General Cops is appointed to command the Imperial Troops which are to act in Pomeran this Campaigne.

Copenhagen, April 17. In our last we told you, that 4 or 5000 men were sent over to Landskroon, it seems their design was upon Helsingburg, which they executed on Wednesday morning, and in a short time made themselves Masters of the Town, the Suedes that were there retiring into the Cittadel; the Danes having plundered the Town, returned to Landskroon. The Suedes, upon advice of these Troops passing over to Schonen, have quitted the Posts they had taken on this side of Christiansstadt, and have formed a Camp near Lundun, which the Heer Meerheym, Governor of the place, understanding, made a Sally, and had the good fortune to attack the Suedes in their Rear, and to take several Prisoners.

Méyßenheim, April 17. Yesterday the Duke of Lorraine arrived here, and having only stayed to hear Mass, continued his march with 10000 Horse, and 5000 Foot, all brave chosen men, towards Treves, by the way of Walderfungen and Diedenhoun. The rest of the Imperial Troops begin to quit their quarters, and will have their Rendezvous the beginning of the next month near Francfort.

Francfort, April 18. The Imperial Troops having passed the Rhine at Oppenheim, are now marching with all diligence towards the Moselle, which they will pass, as is said, at Treves or Coblenz, and so advance to Luxemburg; these Troops are said to make up in all about 18000 men, and we are confident the Duke of Lorraine will not lose time, but immediately enter upon action against the Enemy. The whole Imperial Army will Rendezvous some time about the middle of the next month in our Neighborhood. We hear nothing as yet of the march of the Munster and Luxemburg Troops, who have had their Winter-quarters in these parts.

Cologne, April 19. The 16 instant, the Duke of Newburg returned to Düsseldorf from Wesel, where he had been to confer with the Elector of Brandenburg.

Brussels, April 23. The Garison which was in Cambray is coming hither, the last Night they had their quarters at Brais le Comte, and this Night they will be at Nofre-dame de Hall, consisting in about 2500 Foot, and 400 Horse, part of them will, as we are informed, be sent to Vilword, and the rest will remain in Garison here, and Don Pedro Savala, the late Governor of Cambray, is ordered to go to Mons, to assist the Duke of Archebot in case there should be occasion. The Treaty with the Bishop of Munster is finished, and the Envoy that was here is returned homewards, to halt the march of the 9000 men that Bishop is to send hither; with which, and the Osnabrug Troops, our Governor the Duke de Villi Hermosa proposes to have by the middle of the next month an Army of 24000 men, to act under his command. His Highness the Prince of Orange continues his quarters between Ghent and Bruges, and though several of his best Regiments were very much ruined in the late Fight, yet his Highness doubts not to have them recruited in a month or six weeks at farthest, and by that time to have a better Army than he has had yet. The States General have sent his Highness 300000 Florins, and 4000 Musquets; and we are told his Highness expects a farther Sum of 600000 Florins. The Most Christian King has, as we are informed, sent a detachment of 1500 men towards Germany, to join the Marfchal de Crequi, the rest of his Troops his Majesty has put into quarters of refreshment, and is himself gone towards Dunkirk. It is said that his Majesty will reside there most of this Summer, but without any certainty; St. Omer, we hear, is surrendered to the French. The Duke of Lorraine is coming down apace, and there are some Letters from Treves, which say that his Vanguard arrived there the 19 instant.

Amwerp, April 23. The Prince of Orange, who has his Quarters between Ghent and Bruges, having taken a Muster of his Troops, finds, as we are told, his loss in the late Fight not to be so considerable, as was at first imagined. Those Regiments which suffered the most, are sent into Quarters, and other fresh Regiments to supply their places. The Prince, we hear, has caused some Officers, who behaved themselves very ill in the fight, to be executed.

Hague, April 23. The States General, we are told, have written to the Prince of Orange, to thank him for his endeavors against the Enemy, and for the pains and dangers he exposed his Person to, of which they pray him to be careful, for that the happiness and preservation of the State so much depends upon his safety; to which they add, that as his Highness will do well to recompence those that behaved themselves bravely in the late Fight so that it will be necessary that those that were wanting in their duty, be exemplarily punished for a terror to others. The States at the same time have resolved, besides the money that hath been already sent to his Highness, to supply him with a farther sum of 600000 Florins. We are intimated that 9 Regiments are on their march from these Countries to reinforce his Highness, who we doubt not but will in a short time have his Army compleat again. Here is made publick a List of the Killed and Wounded in the late Fight, which however is not altogether perfect.

A List of the Officers that were Killed, Wounded, or Taken Prisoners in the Battle fought the 11 Instant, between his Highness the Prince of Orange, and the Duke of Orleans.

Of the Princes Garde du Corps.	The Sieur de la Vergnie's Regiment.
Heer Ryswicke Cornet, wounded.	The Colonel wounded.
A Reformed Officer killed.	Lieutenant Col. prisoner.
Seven Troopers killed.	1 Captain killed.
Twelve wounded.	4 prisoners.
Of the Princes Regiment of Dragoons.	Kilpatrick's Regiment.
Capt. Walestein killed.	Lieutenant Col. )
Count Waldeck's Regiment of Horse.	Everwyn } killed.
Lieutenant Hartman wounded, and Prisoner.	3 Captains } wounded.
Brederode's Regiment of Horse.	Witrenhoue's Regiment.
The Major killed.	The Colonel )
1 Captain } killed.	3 Captains } prisoners.
1 Lieutenant } killed.	Walenburg's Regiment.
The Princes Foot Guards.	Lieut. Colon. Valkenburg
Lieuten. Col. } wounded.	prisoner.
Major Sibert } wounded.	Major } wounded.
Capt. Laer wounded, and prisoner.	Tourslay's Regiment.
2 Captains killed.	3 Captains killed.
4 Captains wounded.	Count Vander Lippe's Regiment.
2 Lieutenants wounded.	The Colonel wounded, and prisoner.
1 Lieutenant killed.	Major killed, or prisoner.
4 Ensigns wounded.	Prince of Brandenburg's Regiment.
Adjutant killed.	Lieuten. Colon. Poedwell
The other wounded.	wounded, and prisoner.
Of Prince Maurits's Regiment.	1 Captain wounded.
Lieuten. Col. la Noy pris.	1 Captain prisoner.
The Major prisoner.	2 Lieutenants killed.
2 Captains killed.	1 wounded.
1 Captain wounded.	1 Ensign killed.
Duke of Holstein's Regiment.	Count Waldecke's Regiment of Foot.
Lieut. Col. } wounded,	1 Captain killed.
Salis & } prisoners	Regiment of Klooster.
Major } prisoners	The Major killed.
2 Lieutenants } killed.	Regiment of Grim.
3 Ensigns } wounded.	The Colonel killed.
2 Lieutenants wounded.	Major wounded, and pris.
2 } prisoners	Hofwege's Regiment.
3 Ensigns } prisoners	The Colonel killed,
Count Horne's Regiment.	Ensigns wounded.
Lieuten. Col. } Prisoners.	Zobell's Regiment.
2 Captains } wounded.	The Colonel prisoner.
1 Ensign } wounded.	2 Captains killed.
Heer Girickell's Regim.	Albrunswaert's Regiment.
Major Schaep wounded, and prisoner.	The Major killed, or pris.
Grave of Warfuree wounded.	Slangenbur's Regiment.
Heer Van Eppe's Regiment.	1 Captain killed.
The Major wounded.	1 wounded.
	Three Zeland Regiment's.
	Col. Maregnault wound,
	2 Majors } killed.
	4 Captains } wounded.
	2 wounded.
	Col. Hoorncbey } killed,
	2 Lieutenants } killed,
	Baron de Loitben killed.
	Col. Truxes killed, or pris.

Ostend, April 24. We have advice that on the 21 inst St. Omer Capitulated, and the next day was Surrendered upon Honourable Conditions, the Garrison is to march to Bruges. The Prince of Orange's Army lies dispersed in the several Villages between Bruges and Ghent, in order to refresh themselves. till his Highness receives the Recruits he expects from several places, which begin already to arrive; his Highness has his Head-quarters at Eckelo, and we are told that in 8 or 10 dayes he will have a very brave Army together again, and then we may expect to hear of some farther Action in these parts. We have an account that the most Christian King was expected at Dunkirk as this day.

Paris, April 24. The King having put his Troops into Quarters of refreshment, is, as we understand, gone to visit his Maritime places, as Dunkirk and Calais, from whence his Majesty will return hither. We do not yet know the Conditions which the Duke of Orleans granted to the Town of St Omer, farther then that one is, that the Garrison should be conducted to Ipres or Bruges. Threecore Standards and Colours taken from the Dutch in the last Battel, have been brought hither, and are hung up in our Cathedral Church of Notre-dame. In the Relation that is printed here of that Fight it is said, that 4500 of the Enemy were slain, and 2000 taken Prisoners: We cannot yet learn the particulars of our loss. From Lorraine our Letters advise, that the Duke of Lorraine is marching with 15 or 16000 Imperialists towards the Moselle, to oppose whom the Mareschal de Cequi is drawing his Forces together.

Dover, April 15. This day arrived here a small Bark from Calais, the Master of which reports, That on Friday, about 6 in the afternoon, the King arrived there. That yesterday about noon, the Duke of Orleans came likewise thither from St. Omer; out of which the Spanish Garrison marched not till Friday morning, consisting in 3000 Foot, and 800 Horse, taking only with them six covered Wagons. That this morning early the King and the Duke of Orleans went for Dunkirk, and are expected back at Calais on Wednesday next, and from thence they intend for Paris.

Whitehall, April 16. His Majesty being come this evening into the House of Lords, in His Royal Robes, with the Crown upon His Head, and with the usual Solemnity seated in His Throne, was pleased to send for the House of Commons up; who accordingly attending His Majesty at the Bar of the Lords House, several Bills, as well Publick as Private, were presented to His Majesty, to which His Majesty was graciously pleased to give His Royal Assent. The Publick Acts are as follow,

1. An Act for Raising the sum of Five hundred eighty four thousand nine hundred seventy eight pounds two shillings and two pence half-penny, for the speedy Building Thirty Ships of War.
2. An Act for an Additional Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liguors, for Three Years.
3. An Act for the better Observation of the Lords Day, commonly called Sunday.
4. An Act for prevention of Frauds and Perjuries.
5. An Act for taking of Affidavits in the Country, to be made use of in the Courts of Kings-Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer.
6. An Act for Confirming and Perpetuating Augmentations made by Ecclesiastical Persons to small Vicarages and Curacies.
7. An Act for taking away the Writ de Hæretico comburendo.
8. An Act for the Naturalizing of Children of His Majesties English Subjects born in Foreign Countries during the late Troubles.
9. An Act for Erecting a Judicature to determine Differences touching Houses Burnt and Destroyed by the late dreadful Fire in Southwark.
10. An Act for the better Repairing and Maintaining the Peere of Great Yarmouth.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, acquainted the Two Houses, that His Majesty gave them leave to Adjourn till the 21 of May next: And accordingly the Two Houses Adjourned till that time.