

and a general illumination prevailed in and about Brentwood, in Lord Petre's Park, and at the Houses in the Neighbourhood of the Camp; which Testimonies of Loyalty, together with the Ringing of Bells, and the repeated Acclamations of Joy which the People expressed as Their Majesties passed, were very pleasing, and afforded great Satisfaction to Their Majesties.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1778,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament passed in the Tenth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled, "An Act to prevent the further spreading of the Contagious Disorder among the Horned Cattle in Great Britain," His Majesty is empowered, (amongst other Things) from Time to Time, as often as he shall find it necessary so to do, by His Royal Proclamation, to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to prohibit generally, or from any particular Country or Countries, or from the Isles of Alderney, Jersey, Guernsey, or any of the Islands or Dominions belonging to Great Britain, the Importation of any Cattle, or of any Manner of Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, into the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or into any of the Islands or Dominions thereto belonging: And whereas His Majesty hath received Information, that the Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle has broke out in the Ukraine:— His Majesty doth thereupon, with the Advice of His Privy Council, find it necessary to Order, and doth hereby accordingly Order and Command, that no Horned Cattle, nor any Manner of Hides, Skins, Horns, Hoofs, or other Part of any Horned Cattle or Beast, nor any Hay, Straw, Litter, Fodder, or other Things which have been employed about Infected Cattle, or the Hides or any other Part of such Cattle, or have been in or near the Places where any such Infection hath been, and are liable to retain the same, shall be imported from any Ports or other Places within the Dominions of Russia or Poland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified. And His Majesty is further pleased, with the Advice aforesaid, to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, that the utmost Care be taken not to permit any Entry to be passed for any Cattle, or for any Manner of Hides or Skins, Horns or Hoofs, or any other Part of any Cattle or Beast, which are already, or may hereafter be, brought from the Places aforesaid, directly or indirectly, into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, until further Order. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of October, 1778,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy. And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776. And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed. And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st Day of this instant October; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this instant October to the 31st Day of December next, inclusive. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Vienna, October 10. The Prussian Artillery have retired from the Camp occupied by the King of Prussia near Schatzlar, and are gone into the Neighbourhood of Schweidnitz. Four Regiments of Infantry and two Battalions of Grenadiers, and Ziethe's Hussars, have likewise left the Camp; the Infantry are marched towards Landshut, and the Hussars towards Smideburg. The Rest of the Camp continue in their Situation.

The Prussian Corps under Lieutenant-General de Wurich quitted on the 6th Instant their Camp near Ratschenberg, and retired towards Ruckers and Lewin: Lieutenant-General Marquis de Botta has changed his Position, and has fixed himself with his Corps near Lodenitz.

Vienna, October 7. The Nobility and Foreign Ministers had the Honour this Morning to pay their Respects, for the first Time, to the Grand Duke and Dutchess of Tuscany.

St. James's, October 24.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Wynne, Doctor of Laws, the Office of His Majesty's Advocate-General for all Matters Ecclesiastical and Maritime relating to His Majesty's Crown.
