From Saturday November 14, to Tuesday November 17, 1778.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th Day of November, 1778,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WH E R E A S the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hath laid before this Board an Extract of a Letter from Sir William Hamilton, His Majesty's Envoy at Naples, giving Information, That that Government, justly alarmed by the Accounts of the Plague raging violently at Smyrna, and in several Islands of the Archipelago, and of its having passed Salonica, have augmented their Quarantine, and taken other Precautions to prevent its coming into that Kingdom; His Majesty this Day took the same into Consideration; and although it appeared that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time subsisting, by Orders of this Board, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, (except those coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain, Minorca or Gibraltar;) yet His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary, upon this Occasion, to cause the said Orders to be enforced and extended; and to that End, His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby order, require and command, that the said Quarantine be enforced; and that all the Officers, appointed for the Service of Quarantine, do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance of Quarantine, to be punctually and strictly observed and carried into Execution: And His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, require and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from Minorca or Gibraltar, and all Goods and Merchandizes on Board the same, that are already arrived, or that shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days; and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine: And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or leaving the said Letters, or either of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mrs. Watson doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, That, on the 5th and 9th of October last, a Number of Persons, with their Faces blacked, or Crapes over them, or otherwise disguised, to the Number of 80 or 100, with Fire Arms, Swords, and other offensive Weapons, did riotously and tumultuously assemble themselves on the High Road, and upon the uninclosed Part of the Link, in the Parish of Great Malvern in the County of Worcester, to the great Terror of the Passengers on that Road, and Persons in that Neighbourhood; and did then and there by Force and Violence cut down, burn and maliciously destroy all the Posts, Gates, and Rails, set up for the Purpose of inclosing that Part of the said Link which lies in the Parish of Leigh in the said County of Worcester, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament obtained for that Purpose; menacing Destruction to all that opposed them; and did also burn down a Barn; and one of them did wilfully and maliciously fire at a Person on the Road:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of these Offenders, (excepting the principal Proposer and Adwiser of this mischievous Plan) who will surrender himself, within Three Months from the Date hereof, before any Magistrate in the County of Worcester, or in any neighbouring County, or before any Magistrate in the County of Middlesex, or City and Liberty of Westminster, and give such Information of this outrageous Offence, so that Two or more of his Accomplices may be convicted of the same,

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement to such Person to surrender himself an Evidence as aforesaid, the Proprietors of those Lands will give to the Person so surrendering the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, on Conviction of Two or more of his Accomplices; and to any other Person not concerned in the said Offences making such Discovery, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, on such Conviction, to be paid by Mr. Lytleton, Attorney, in Worcester.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the following Houses and other Buildings in the Parish of West Lulworth in the County of Dorset have been several Times wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown; that is to say, on the 11th Day of September last the House and Shop belonging to Elizabeth Randall, and all the Stock in Trade consumed; on the 11th of October last the House of Mary Gregory, and Barn filled with Corn consumed; on the 12th of the same Month the House of Ann Rumsey, Barn filled with Corn, two Hay Ricks, and Smith's Shop, consumed; on the 5th of November last the Malt House and Kilt of William Randall; on the 8th of November another House belonging to Ann Rumsey, and two Houses belonging to Samuel Bagwell: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offences, or any of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Houses and other Buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, Thomas Weld, Esq. doth hereby promise a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS, and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish of West Lulworth aforesaid do promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) the said Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

To the Coal-factors, Billingsgate, London.

GENTLEMEN,

AT a Meeting of the Coal Trade from Shields, Sunderland, and this Town, held this Day at the Trinity-house, your General Letter of the 14th Instant was read and considered; when the following Resolution was unanimously agreed to be published in the Gazette and the Newcastle Papers; and that Hand-bills be printed, for the Information of all Persons interested in the Event.

Resolved, That they are extremely surpris'd to find the Coal-factors attempting to rid themselves of Engagements, which the Trade has hitherto thought not only reasonable, but indispensibly necessary for the Security of their Property; and therefore thus publicly acquaint them, That an Application will be made to Parliament to put this Business under some permanent equitable Regulations, unless the Coal-factors will conform to the Act of Parliament pass'd in the Year 1740, and the Agreement submitted to by the Owners of the Shipping for the Convenience of the Coal Buyers, immediately subsequent to that Act; and that they do insist upon an immediate Notice from the Coal-factor of any Defect in the Payment of the full Two-thirds of the Value of the Cargoes sold, otherwise shall consider themselves totally exonerated from any Risque attending it.

JOHN BAKER, Chairman.

Sheffield, November 5, 1778.

WHEREAS the Copartnership between Mess. Parker, Roebuck, and Shore, Bankers, in Sheffield in the County of York, is this Day dissolved by mutual Consent. It having been found, that a Partner concerned in the Sheffield Trade was disadvantageous to the said Copartnership, Mr. Roebuck, on that Account, and also the better and more fully to attend his own Business, has determined to withdraw himself from the said Bank Copartnership. Notice is hereby given, that all Engagements by or with the said Copartnership will be fulfilled by the said Parker and Shore; and that the Business of Bankers will be carried on by them, under the Firm of Parker and Shore, at their Bank in Sheffield aforesaid, as usual, who are duly authorized to settle all depending Accounts, and give proper Discharges for the Receipt of all Ballances due to the late Copartnership.

J^{no} Parker.
Ben. Roebuck.
John Shore.

N. B. Mr. Shore also proposes, as soon as his own Commercial Accounts are finally closed, for the above Reasons, totally to decline all other Business, and attend to the Bank.
