Mrs. Watson
Cottingham

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or leaving the said Letters, or either of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement; the said Mrs. Watson doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, That, on the 5th and 9th of October last, a Number of Persons, with their Faces blacked, or Crapes over them, or otherwise disguised, to the Number of 80 or 100, with Fire Arms, Swords, and other offensive Weapons, did riotously and tumultuously assemble themselves on the High Road, and upon the uninclosed Part of the Link, in the Parish of Great Malvern in the County of Worcester, to the great Terror of the Passengers on that Road, and Persons in that Neighbourhood; and did then and there by Force and Violence cut down, burn and maliciously destroy all the Posts, Gates, and Rails, set up for the Purpose of inclosing that Part of the said Link which lies in the Parish of Leigh in the said County of Worcester, by Virtue of an Act of Parliament obtained for that Purpose; menacing Destruction to all that opposed them; and did also burn down a Barn; and one of them did wilfully and maliciously fire at a Person on the Road:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of these Offenders, (excepting the principal Proposer and Adviser of this mischievous Plan) who will surrender himself, within Three Months from the Date hereof, before any Magistrate in the County of Worcester, or in any neighbouring County, or before any Magistrate in the County of Middlesex, or City and Liberty of Westminster, and give such Information of this outrageous Offence, so that Two or more of his Accomplices may be convicted of the same.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement to such Person to surrender himself an Evidence as aforesaid, the Proprietors of those Lands will give to the Person so surrendering the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, on Conviction of Two or more of his Accomplices; and to any other Person not concerned in the said Offences making such Discovery, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, on such Conviction, to be paid by Mr. Lyttleton, Attorney, in Worcester.

St. James's, November 14, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the following Houses and other Buildings in the Parish of West Lubworth in the County of Dorset have been several Times wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown; that is to say, on the 11th Day of September last the House and Shop belonging to Elizabeth Randall, and all the Stock in Trade consumed; on the 11th of October last the House of Mary Gregory, and Barn filled with Corn consumed; on the 12th of the same Month the House of Ann Rumsey, Barn filled with Corn, two Hay Ricks, and Smith's Shop, consumed; on the 5th of November last the Mill House and Kilm of William Randall; on the 8th of November another House belonging to Ann Rumsey, and two Houses belonging to Samuel Baywell: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offences, or any of them, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders, (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Houses and other Buildings) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, Thomas W'ell, Esq. doth hereby promise a Reward of THIRTY POUNDS, and the Church-wardens and Overseers of the Parish of West Lubworth aforesaid do promise a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) the said Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
