THIS Morning, between Three and Four o'Clock, the Queen was happily delivered of a Prince. His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, several Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and the Ladies of Her Majesty's Bed-Chamber were present.

This great Event was made known by the Firing of the Tower Guns.

Her Majesty is, God be praised, as well as can be expected; and the young Prince is in perfect Health.

Extract of a Letter from Valentine Morris, Esq; Governor of the Island of St. Vincent, to Lord George Germain, dated St. Vincent, January 1 and 3, 1779.

MY Duty and the Times oblige me to be very troublesome in my Correspondence, but as I have great Reason to believe Admiral Barrington is too closely blocked up at St. Lucia to give your Lordship any Information respecting himself, I suffer, notwithstanding the present Embargo, a Vessel to sail from hence bound to Lancaster, in order to acquaint your Lordship, additional to what my last of December 29, and the inclosed Newspaper, which is pretty exact, that, on the 28th Instant, Admiral Barrington was still so close blocked up at St. Lucia, that two different Vessels I have sent to give him Intelligence, and to receive such, could not get to him. On the 29th another Vessel I had sent to Barbados, to learn if Admiral Byron was arrived, when within Six Leagues of Land, as another Dutch Vessel with Dutch Papers were chased by Cunningham, (who lately infested the British Seas) quite to the Ports of this Island, the Dutch Vessel having been brought to, and long detained by Cunningham. The Captain and a Passenger learnt from the Crew that Byron was not yet arrived, although Eight of his Vessels only were by the French expected hourly; and Cunningham was with others cruising there, to carry the News to D'Estaing when he should arrive.

I have another swift-sailing Schooner, which I sent with Letters from Admiral Barrington to Barbados, and which he entreated me, if possible, to get conveyed thither. I have directed the Captain of her to proceed to the Admiral, if possible, after going to Barbados. I wish he may be able to effect it.

January 3. Nothing could have happened more opportunely, for the Immediate Safety of this Island, than the happy News the Inclosed contains, of which I beg Leave to congratulate your Lordship. It came by a Person whom I had sent to the Admiral. A French Frigate arrived from Boston to Martinico, which occasioned the French Fleet and Troops quitting St. Lucia.

Extract from the St. Vincent Gazette and General Advertiser of Saturday December 19, 1778, referred to in the above Letter. Kingston, December 19, 1778.

ON Thursday the 10th Instant arrived at Barbados from New York a considerable Body of very fine Troops, commanded by Major-General James Grant, under Convoy of the following Vessels, viz. the Pre'on of 50 Guns, Commodore Hobam, St. Alban's of 64, Captain Onslow, Monmouth of 64, Captain Griffith, Lis of 50, Captain Esyaer, Centurion of 50, Captain Eraithwaite, the Caracas Bomb, some Frigates, &c. and on the Saturday following they sailed (joined by Admiral Barrington and his Fleet) on an Expedition against St. Lucia, where they arrived the next Day, and landed the Troops without Opposition, at l'Ance Chec, a little to Windward of the Carenage.

On the Evening of the 13th the Pearl Frigate, Captain Lindsay, arrived at Barbados from Rhode Island. She was dispatched by Admiral Byron the 17th of November, to apprise Admiral Barrington, that d'Estaing, with Fifteen Ships, sailed from Boston the 3d of November, as was supposed for these Seas. The Pearl arrived at Antigua the 4th of December, and not finding Admiral Barrington there, proceeded immediately for Barbados. About Seven Leagues to Windward of Antigua she fell in with a Dutchman, who had been boarded the Night before Eighteen Leagues to Windward of Defeada by One of Seven French Men of War from Boston. Captain Lindsay, to be certain of the Fact, sent for the Captain and his Log-Book, in which he found the Circumstances clearly related. The French Ships were cruising, and when they spoke the Dutchman standing to the Northward, but afterwards put about, and stood to the Southward. It is presumed the Rest of d'Estaing's Squadron were cruising to Windward of Barbadoes, as some Vessels were seen from thence the Day the Fleet failed, which caused an Alarm to be fired there. Byron's Squadron, it seems, was driven from the Mouth of Boston Harbour, in a Gale of Wind, the 1st of November, and went to Rhode Island, from whence he was to sail in Two or Three Days after Captain Lindsay; so that, in all Probability, ere this, he is arrived at Barbados, which is the Place of Rendezvous. Immediately after the Arrival of the Pearl, who was much disabled, the Boreas failed with Captain Lindsay's Dispatches to the Admiral. The Boreas went away with the Fleet, but sprung her Fore-top Mast, which obliged her to put back.

On Tuesday Morning last, Admiral Barrington was attacked at St. Lucia by a Part of D'Estaing's Fleet, who had with them a Number of Privateers and Small Vessels, with Troops to the Number it is said of 5000. This Fleet was intended for the Reduction of this Island and Grenada, whither they were proceeding, when they observed our Attack on St. Lucia. Notwithstanding Admiral Barrington's Inferiority in Point of Ships, he beat the Frenchmen off twice that Day, and has hitherto successfully withstood with very little Loss all their Attempts.

On Friday they had collected 14 of their Capital Ships, and were in Sight. General Grant is in Possession of the Carenage, and of the Heights about it. Admiral Barrington with the Fleet lies at the Grand Cul de Sac. Several very capital Batteries are erected on Shore, one in particular of 12 of the Boyne's Lee Lower Deck Guns, which are 32 Pounds. These Batteries are of essential Service to our Ships in repelling the Enemy, and will, with the Blessing of God, keep them employed until the Arrival of Admiral Byron.

Captain Merry, of the Government Brig of Grenada, who passed by here this Afternoon, left Admiral Barrington late the preceding Evening. He informs us, that the French had landed their Troops to the Amount of 5000, who had an Engagement with General Grant, in which they lost 800, and our Loss was only 70. He further says, that they wanted much to re-embark their Troops, but had not been able to accomplish it. A Transport, with 4 Soldiers on board, and a Number of Soldiers' Wives, had fallen into the Hands of the Enemy; and the Ceres Sloop of War was chased off the Coast.

Extract from the St. Vincent Gazette and General Advertiser of Saturday the 26th of December, 1778, referred to in the above Letter. Kingston, December 26, 1778.

SINCE our last two Vessels have arrived from St. Lucie, the last of which left Admiral Barrington on Thursday Evening. They brought no News of any Consequence, nothing having happened since the 18th Instant, on which Day the Attack on Shore (mentioned in our last) was made by the French on our Intrenchments. They marched up in three Columns; the Right led by the Count d'Estaing, and the Left by the Marquis de Bouillé; and were suffered to advance without Opposition so near, that our Front Line only fired once, and received them with their Bayonets. Seventy of the French were killed in our Intrenchments, and their whole Loss, in Killed, Wounded and Prisoners, is estimated at about 1,600. On our Side we had 60 killed, and 100 wounded; among the latter Brigadier General Meadows, who received a Ball in the Flesh of one of his Arms.

Admiral Barrington remains at the Grand Cul de Sac with his Fleet, and is defended by two very strong Batteries. The French Fleet is likewise at an Anchor about a League from him, and consists of Eleven Sail of the Line, and three Fifties, besides a Number of Frigates, &c.

The Ceres Sloop of War was taken by Six French Frigates, with whom she fell in with in a heavy Squall.

An American Ship from Piscataqua, mounting 18 Guns, and a Number of Men, mistook our Fleet for the French, and was taken. She had taken two Prizes, a Sloop and a Schooner.

S I R,

I HAVE the Favour of your Excellency's Letter of the 31st past by Mr. Collins, and have the Satisfaction to acquaint you that Count D'Estaing moved off, with his whole Force, the 29th, toward Martinique, leaving us in quiet Possession of the Island, which capitulated whilst his Fleet was in Sight.

I wish your Excellency would be so good as to encourage the mercantile People under your Government to send Supplies of Provisions hither, of every Kind, as they are much wanted for the Army, and will therefore meet with a good Market.

I am, &c.

His Excellency Governor SAM. BARRINGTON.

Whitehall, February 23, 1779.

THIS Morning Colonel Innis, one of Sir Henry Clinton's Aid du Camps, who had arrived at Falmouth in the Lord Hyde Packet from Georgia, came to Town with Dispatches from Lieutenant-Colonel Campbell of the 71st Regiment, and Major-General Prevost, to Lord George Germain, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, of which the following are Copy and Extract:

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Campbell to Lord George Germain, dated Savannah, January 16, 1779.

MY LORD,

IN Consequence of Sir Henry Clinton's Orders to proceed to Georgia, with His Majesty's 71st Regiment of Foot, Two Battalions of Hessians, Four

Battalions of Provincials, and a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, I have the Honour to acquaint your Lordship of our having sailed from the Hook on the 27th of November, 1778, escorted by a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships of War, under the Command of Commodore Parker; and of the Arrival of the whole Fleet off the Island of Tybee on the 23d of December thereafter, Two Horse Sloops excepted.

On the 24th the Commodore, with the greatest Part of the Transports, got over the Bar, and anchored in the Savannah River, within the Light-house of Tybee; on the 27th the rest of the Fleet joined him.

During the Time occupied in bringing the last Division of the Fleet over the Bar, I formed from the Provincial Battalions Two Corps of Light Infantry; the one to be attached to Sir James Baird's Light Company of the 71st Highlanders, the other to Captain Cameron's Company of the same Regiment.

Having no Intelligence that could be depended upon with respect to the Military Force of Georgia, or the Disposition formed for it's Defence, Sir James Baird's Highland Company of Light Infantry, in Two Flat Boats, with Lieutenant Clark of the Navy, was dispatched in the Night of the 25th, to seize any of the Inhabitants they might find on the Banks of Wilmington Creek. Two Men were procured by this Means, by whom we learnt the most satisfactory Intelligence concerning the State of Matters at Savannah, and which settled the Commodore and I in the Resolution of landing the Troops the next Evening, at the Plantation of one Gerridoe, an important Post, Twelve Miles farther up the River than the Light-house of Tybee, and Two Miles short, in a direct Line, from the Town of Savannah, although the Distance was not less than Three along the Road. This Post was the first practicable Landing-place on the Savannah River, the whole Country between it and Tybee being a continued Tract of deep Marsh, intersected by the Creeks of St. Augustine and Tybee, of considerable Extent, and other Cuts of Water impassable for Troops at any Time of the Tide.

The Vigilant Man of War, with the Comet Galley, the Keppel Armed Brig, and the Greenwich Armed Sloop, followed by the Transports in Three Divisions, in the Order established for a Descent, proceeded up the River with the Tide at Noon; about Four o'Clock in the Evening the Vigilant opened the Reach to Gerridoe's Plantation, and was cannonaded by Two Rebel Gallies, who retired before any of their Bullets had reached her; a single Shot from the Vigilant quickened their Retreat.

The Tide and Evening being too far spent, and many of the Transports having grounded at the Distance of Five or Six Miles below Gerridoe's Plantation, the Descent was indispensably delayed till next Morning. The First Division of the Troops, consisting of all the Light Infantry of the Army, the New York Volunteers, and 1st Battalion of the 71st, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Maitland, were landed at Break of Day on the River-dam, in Front of Gerridoe's Plantation, from whence a narrow Causeway of 600 Yards in length, with a Ditch on each Side, led through a Rice Swamp directly for Gerridoe's House, which stood upon a Bluff of 30 Feet in Height, above the Level of the Rice Swamps.

The Light Infantry under Captain Cameron, having first reached the Shore, were formed and led briskly forward to the Bluff, where a Body of 50 Rebels were posted; and from whom they received a smart Fire of Musquetry; but the Highlanders, rushing on with their usual Impetuosity, gave them no time to repeat it: They drove them instantly to the Woods, and happily secured a Landing for the Rest of the Army. Captain Cameron, a spirited and most valuable Officer, with Two Highlanders, were killed on this Occasion, and Five Highlanders wounded.

Upon reconnoitering the Environs of Geridoe's Plantation, I discovered the Rebel Army under Major-General Robert Howe, drawn up about half a Mile East of the Town of Savannah, with several Pieces of Cannon in their Front. The 1st Division of Troops, together with One Company of the 2d Battalion of the 71st, the 1st Battalion of Delancy's the Wellworth, and Part of the Wiffenbach Regiment of Hessians, being landed, I thought it expedient, having the Day before me, to go in Quest of the Enemy, rather than give them an Opportunity of retiring unmolested.

A Company of the 2d Battalion of the 71st, together with the 1st Battalion of Delancy's, were accordingly left to cover the Landing-place, and the Troops marched in the following Order for the Town of Savannah.

The Light Infantry, throwing off their Packs, formed the Advance, the New York Volunteers followed to support the Light Infantry, the 1st Battalion of the 71st, with Two Six-pounders, followed the New York Volunteers, and the Wellworth Battalion of Hessians, with Two Three-pounders, followed the 71st, Part of Wiffenbach Battalion of Hessians closed the Rear. On the Troops having entered the great Road leading to the Town of Savannah, the Division of Wiffenbach's Regiment was posted on the Cross Roads to secure the Rear of the Army; a thick impenetrable wooded Swamp covered the Left of the Line of March; and the Light Infantry, with the Flankers of each Corps, effectually scoured the cultivated Plantations on the Right.

The Troops reached the open Country near Tatal's Plantation before Three o'Clock in the Evening; and halted in the great Road about 200 Paces short of the Gate leading to Governor Wright's Plantation, the Light Infantry excepted, who were ordered to form immediately upon our Right of the Road, along the Rails leading to Governor Wright's Plantation.

The Enemy were drawn up across the Road at the Distance of 800 Yards from this Gateway; one half, consisting of Thompson's and Eugee's Regiments of Carolina Troops, were formed under Colonel Eugee, with their Left obliquely to the great Road leading to Savannah, their Right to a wooded Swamp, covered by the Houses of Tatal's Plantation, in which they had placed some Riflemen; the other half of their Regular Troops, consisting of Part of the 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th Battalions of the Georgia Brigade, was formed under Colonel Elbert, with their Right to the Road, and their Left to the Rice Swamps of Governor Wright's Plantation; with the Fort of Savannah Bluff behind their Left Wing, in the Style of Second Flank; the Town of Savannah, round which they had the Remains of an old Line of Intrenchment, covered their Rear. One Piece of Cannon was planted on the Right of their Line, One upon the Left, and Two Pieces occupied the Traverse, across the great Road, in the Center of their Line. About 100 Paces in Front of this Traverse, at a critical Spot between Two Swamps, a Trench was cut across the Road, and about 100 Yards in Front of this Trench, a marshy Rivulet run almost parallel the whole Extent of their Front; the Bridge of which was burned down to interrupt the Passage, and retard our Progress.

I could discover from the Movements of the Enemy, that they wished and expected an Attack upon their Left, and I was desirous of cherishing that Opinion.

Having accidentally fallen in with a Negroe, who knew a private Path through the wooded Swamp, upon the Enemies Right, I ordered the 1st Battalion of the 71st to form on our Right of the Road, and move up to the Rear of the Light Infantry, whilst I drew off that Corps to the Right, as if I meant to extend my Front to that Quarter, where a happy Fall of Ground favoured the Concealment of this Manoeuvre, and increased the Jealousy of the Enemy with regard to their Left. Sir James Baird had Directions to convey the Light Infantry, in this hollow Ground, quite to the Rear, and penetrate the wooded Swamp upon our Left, with a View to get round by the new Barracks into the Rear of the Enemy's Right Flank. The New York Volunteers under Colonel Tumbull was ordered to support him.

During the Course of this Movement our Artillery were formed in a Field on our Left of the Road, concealed from the Enemy by a Swell of Ground in Front, to which I meant to run them up for Action, when the Signal was made to engage; and from whence I could either bear advantageously upon the Right of the Rebel Line, as it was then formed, or cannonade any Body of Troops in Flank which they might detach into the Wood to retard the Progress of the Light Infantry.

The Regiment of Willworth was formed upon the Left of the Artillery, and the Enemy continued to amuse themselves with their Cannon, without any Return upon our Part, till it was visible that Sir James Baird and the Light Infantry had fairly got round upon their Rear. On this Occasion I commanded the Line to move briskly forward. The well-directed Artillery of the Line, the rapid Advance of the 71st Regiment, and the forward Countenance of the Hessian Regiment of Willworth, instantly dispersed the Enemy.

A Body of the Militia of Georgia posted at the new Barracks, with some Pieces of Cannon to cover the Road from Great Ogeechee, were at this Juncture routed, with the Loss of their Artillery, by the Light Infantry under Sir James Baird, when the scattered Troops of the Carolina and Georgia Brigades run across the Plain in his Front. This Officer, with his usual Gallantry, dashed the Light Infantry on their Flank, and terminated the Fate of the Day with brilliant Success.

Thirty-eight Officers of different Distinctions, and 415 Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1 Stand of Colours, 48 Pieces of Cannon, 23 Mortars, 94 Barrels of Powder, the Fort with all its Stores agreeable to the inclosed Return, and in short the Capital of Georgia, the Shipping in the Harbour, with a large Quantity of Provisions, fell into our Possession before it was dark, without any other Loss on our Side than that of Captain Peter Campbell, a gallant Officer of Skinner's Light Infantry, and 2 Privates, killed; 1 Serjeant, and 9 Privates, wounded: 83 of the Enemy were found dead on the Common, and 11 wounded. By the Accounts received from their Prisoners, 30 lost their Lives in the Swamp, endeavouring to make their Escape.

I have the Pleasure to inform your Lordship, that although the Rebels retreated through the Town of Savannah, and many Inhabitants were on the Streets, none suffered in the Pursuit but such as had Arms in their Hands, and were in actual Resistance.

Every possible Care was taken of the Houses in Town, and the whole was secured against being set on Fire by the Enemy, who, as I was informed, had it once in serious Contemplation: The Rebels had however removed most of their Effects out of Town; and, except what their Negroes might have practised during the Course of the Night, little or no Depredation took Place, and that even less than had ever happened to a Town under Circumstances of a similar Nature.

Without a single Horse to drag our Artillery, or Waggon to carry forward a sufficient Quantity of Provisions, your Lordship may well conceive our Difficulties in proceeding up the Country as soon as could be wished; however, by the indefatigable Exertions of Major Frazer, our acting Deputy Quarter-Master-General, the Zeal and forward Dispositions of the whole of the Officers of the Army for continuing the Pursuit, I was not only enabled to march to Cherokee Hill on the Evening of the 1st of January, but also to take Possession of the Town of Ebenezer on the 2d, after securing all the intermediate Posts between Savannah and it.

Twenty Horses for Dragoons, together with several Hundred Head of Cattle, were collected on the March; and on the 3d of January the last scattered Remains of General Howe's Army retreated across at the Two Sisters.

After establishing Post at this Ferry, I proceeded with the Light Infantry and Cavalry to Mount Pleasant; and these Corps have since been constantly on the Move, even 50 Miles above the Town of Savannah, without a single Rebel to oppose them.

Many respectable Inhabitants joined the Army on this Occasion, with their Rifles and Horses, who are formed into a Corps of Rifle Dragoons, for the Purpose of patrolling the Country between our advanced Posts, and for ascertaining the earliest Intelligence of the Enemy's Movements. A Body of Militia were also formed at Ebenezer, to patrol in the same Manner, to the Right and Left of that Quarter, by which Means the Country is effectually secured from Depredations.

Having cleared this Province of the Rebel Army, except two Hundred Men left in Garrison at Sunbury Fort, a Number too insignificant to merit an early Attention, and who, from a rapid Movement of the British Troops along the Banks of the Savannah River, must have their Communication with South Carolina cut off, and of Course fall at Discretion, Commodore Parker and I thought this Period the best to issue the inclosed Proclamation and Oath to the Inhabitants at large, founded on the Instructions I received from His Majesty's Commissioners at New York; and this we did from a Persuasion, that it would have the most salutary Effects upon the Inhabitants, after beating the united Force of Carolina and Georgia out of their Country.

The immediate Consequences justified this Persuasion; and I have now the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that the Inhabitants from all Parts of the Province flock with their Arms to the Standard, and cordially embrace the Terms which have been offered.

To establish the Public Security, and check every Attempt to disturb the Peace of Individuals, I issued another Proclamation, setting forth a Reward of Ten Guineas for every Committee and Assembly Man taken within the Limits of Georgia; and Two Guineas for every lurking Villain, who might be sent from Carolina to molest the Inhabitants. A late fruitless Attempt of a Rebel Party, sent across the Savannah to plunder the Plantations on this Side of the Water, has inspired our Rifle Dragoons with double Alacrity, and has pointed out the Propriety and happy Consequences resulting from their being ready to oppose every Banditti of this Nature.

Captain Stanhope of the Navy, who commanded the Flat Boats of the Fleet, and to whose Exertions we are much indebted, went with Lieutenant Clarke, and a Number of armed Boats of the Fleet, and boarded an armed Brig, two Sloops and a Schooner, who interrupted the Passage to Abercorn, by which Means the Navigation of the River to that Post was happily opened. The Comet Galley and armed Sloop Greenwich, are now stationed to cover the Mouth of Ebenezer Creek; the two Rebel Gallies, who were formerly there, have retired to Purifburg.

Having, in the Space of Ten Days, settled the Frontiers of Georgia in a State of Tranquility, and having formed such a Disposition of the Army, as I thought most expedient for shutting up all the Avenues leading from South Carolina, I turned my Thoughts to Sunbury, and visited the Town of Savannah on the 10th Instant, where Commodore Parker with Colonel Innes, who was left Commandant of the Town of Savannah, had with uncommon Abilities, unremitting Zeal and Attention, regulated fully to my Satisfaction every Public Transaction in the lower District of that Province.

A Letter from General Prevost that Evening, stopped my intended Excursion to Sunbury, by the agreeable Intelligence of his Arrival from the South, and of his having taken the Fort after a short Resistance. The Particulars of which your Lordship will learn from himself, as I expect him hourly in Town, and have detained the Packet for that Purpose.

All the Rebel Cattle, within Reach of our Posts, have been ordered for Slaughter, and to be salted up for the Use of the Navy and Army. We have also given such Encouragement to the Farmers to bring in their Bullocks, Hogs, Sheep, Poultry, &c. as cannot fail of establishing good and reasonable Markets at each of our Posts.

I am now preparing to march with all the Light Troops, and a Battalion of the 71st to Augusta, with a View to secure that important Post, and give every possible Encouragement, Protection and Aid to His Majesty's Loyal Subjects in the back Countries of both the Carolinas. In the Course of a Month from the Time of my setting out, I hope to have it in my Power to give your Lordship some favorable Accounts from that Quarter.

I have already taken the most essential Steps towards rendering that Expedition less hazardous, than might otherwise appear, from the Difficulties of marching through a Country so little cultivated, and so thinly inhabited.

If I am fortunate enough to succeed, and that a favorable Opening should offer, your Lordship may rest persuaded, as it is the supreme Object of my Wishes, nothing shall be wanting on my Part to promote the Honor and Success of His Majesty's Arms.

I cannot close this Dispatch to your Lordship, without expressing, with every Sentiment of Regard, how much I consider myself indebted to the Advice and forward Aid of Commodore Parker, in every Operation where the Assistance of the Navy was necessary; and I should render the highest Injustice to the Fleet and Army, did I not acquaint your Lordship, how much the King's Service has been promoted by the cordial Exertions of both. If a Jealousy subsisted between them, it was only in the most strenuous Efforts to promote the Service of their King and Country.

To Colonel Innis, Aid de Camp to Sir Henry Clinton, who will have the Honor to deliver the present Dispatch to your Lordship, I beg Leave to refer you for further Particulars regarding the Operations of the Army under my Command. The spirited Exertions of this Officer have done him peculiar Honor; his Zeal and Merits entitle him to the highest Confidence.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

By Hyde Parker, jun. Esq; Commodore of a Squadron of His Majesty's Ships of War, and Lieutenant-Colonel Archibald Campbell, commanding a Detachment of the Royal Army, sent for the Relief of His Majesty's faithful Subjects in North and South Carolina and Georgia,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N .

WHEREAS the Blessings of Peace, Freedom and Protection, most graciously tendered by His Majesty to His deluded Subjects of America, have been treated by Congress with repeated Marks of studied Disrespect; and to the Disgrace of human Nature have had no Effect in reclaiming them from the bloody Persecutions of their Fellow Citizens; Be it therefore known to all His Majesty's faithful Subjects of the Southern Provinces, that a Fleet and Army, under our Orders, are actually arrived in Georgia for their Protection, to which they are desired to repair without Loss of Time, and by uniting their Force under the Royal Standard, rescue their Friends from Oppression, themselves from Slavery, and obtain for both the most ample Satisfaction for the manifold Injuries sustained.

To all other well-disposed Inhabitants, who, from a just Regard to the Blessings of Peace, reprobate the Idea of supporting a French League, infidiously framed to prolong the Calamities of War, and who, with His Majesty's faithful Subjects, wish to embrace the happy Occasion of cementing a firm and perpetual Coalition with the Parent State, free from the Imposition of Tax by the Parliament of Great Britain, and secured in the irrevocable Enjoyment of every Privilege consistent with that Union of Interests and Force, on which their mutual Advantage, Religion and Liberties depend; We offer the most ample Protection in their Persons, Families and Effects; on Condition they shall immediately return to the Class of peaceful Citizens, acknowledge their just Allegiance to the Crown, and with their Arms support it

To those who shall attempt to oppose the Re-establishment of legal Government, or who shall presume to injure such whom the Dictates of Reason, Honor, and Conscience prompt to embrace it, we lament the Necessity of exhibiting the Rigours of War, and call God and the World to Witness, that they only shall be answerable for all the Miseries which may ensue.

Deserters of every Description, who, from a due Sense of their Error, wish to return to their Colours, have also our Pardon, provided they return within the Space of Three Months from the Date of this Proclamation.

G O D Save the K I N G .

I do solemnly swear, That I will bear true and faithful Allegiance to His Majesty King George the Third, my lawful Sovereign; and that I will, at all Risks, stand forth in Support of His Person and Government: And I do solemnly disclaim and renounce that unlawful and iniquitous Confederacy called the General Continental Congress; also the Claim set up by them to Independency, and all Obedience to them, and all subordinate Jurisdictions assumed by or under their Authority.—All this I do sincerely promise, without Equivocation or Mental Reservation whatever. So help me God.

THE Bearer, having complied with the Terms of the Proclamation issued by the Commanders of His Majesty's Sea and Land Forces in this Province, dated 4th of January, 1779, has Permission to remain on Plantation, and enjoy His Majesty's Protection for Family and Effects of every Kind; has also Permission to pass and repass to and from Savannah, with Provisions and all other Necessaries for the Use of the Town and Garrison, unmolested; and the Guards at the Out-Posts are hereby required and directed to give every Assistance that may be necessary.

Given at Savannah this _____ Day of _____ One thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine.

To all Officers, Civil and Military.

By Archibald Campbell, Esq; Commanding His Majesty's Forces in Georgia,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N .

WHEREAS Information has been received, that many Ringleaders of Sedition, and some skulking Parties from the Rebels of Carolina, do still continue to infest this Country, and under Colour of the Night, have the Audacity to rob and otherwise ill-treat those true and faithful Subjects of His Majesty, whom they have not been able to seduce from their Allegiance. And whereas the aiding or concealing any Person or Persons acting in injudicial or illegal Capacities, or who may yet hold out in Arms against the Authority of The King, must be highly prejudicial to the Tranquillity and Interests of the loyal Inhabitants of Georgia;

The Commandant of the Troops hereby directs, that all His Majesty's faithful Subjects shall guard themselves against the Dangers of such secret, wicked and destructive Enemies; and he doth hereby command them, in His Majesty's Name, to make diligent Search and Enquiry after all such notorious Offenders, that their lurking Places, as well as those of their wicked Confederates, may be instantly made known.

Any Person or Persons knowing or suspecting the Concealment of such public Offenders are strictly commanded, on Pain of the severest Punishment and Confiscation, to repair immediately to Head Quarters, or to the next Military Post, and make the same known to the Commanding Officer of His Majesty's Troops, for the Time being. For each Rebel Committee or Assembly Man, brought into any of the Military Posts, a Reward of Ten Guineas will be paid to the Person or Persons who bring him; and for every Rebel who is found lurking about the Country a like Reward of Two Guineas will be paid upon his being delivered over to any of His Majesty's Officers.

Given at Head Quarters at Savannah, this Eleventh Day of January, 1779, and in the Nineteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

Arch. Campbell.

GOD Save The KING.
