

Trade; and, in my Way, expect to be joined by the Experiment, which I detached the Evening before last to Guernsey.

In all these Transactions, it has been my constant Endeavour to deserve their Lordships Approbation of my Conduct.

St. James's, May 5.

The King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Thomas Fowke, Esq; of Lowesby Hall, Leicestershire; Charles Gould, Esq; of Ealing in the County of Middlesex; and Hew Dalrymple, Esq; of the Athol Regiment of Highlanders: And they had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand on the Occasion.

St. James's, May 6.

The King has been pleased to nominate the Earl of Dalhousie to be His High Commissioner to the Church of Scotland.

Dresden, April 28. A few Days ago General Mollendorff dispatched a Trumpet to Field-Marshal Haddick, informing him that he should continue the Suspension of Arms, which was to have finished on the 28th of this Month, until he had fresh Orders to recommence Hostilities. The Field Marshal accordingly communicated this Circumstance to the Officers commanding on the Frontiers; and the Armistice is still to be exactly observed on both Sides.

St. James's, April 24. 1779.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Sunday last, the 18th Instant, between the Hours of One and Two in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in the Stable of a Farm-house, called Earle's Hall, in the Parish of St. Osyth in the County of Essex, the Property of the Earl of Rochford, late in the Occupation of John Deane, and now in the Occupation of John Baker, whereby the said Stable and a Barn full of Corn were entirely consumed, together with Six Cart-horses; and whereas there is great Reason to believe that the said Stable was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Stable on Fire, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Stable) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Earl of Rochford doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by William Garwood, Steward to the Earl of Rochford, at St. Osyth aforesaid, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the the said Offenders.

ROCHFORD.
